AUNTIE—Lucille, we must get our auto repaired, and I want it put in good shape. Now the question is—where will I take it?

LUCILLE—Well, Auntie, you like the Ford car, and own one, so why not take it down to the Ford Garage? They carry all the various parts and have a first-class repair shop in connection, in fact, Mr. George Biehn is the representative of the Ford, and that's the place I should take it.

AUNTIE—You are quite right, Lucille, dear. That's the place I will go with my car. I did not know that they had a place here in town that they called the Ford Garage. Where is it located, Lucille?

LUCILLE—Down on the corner of Ninth and Klamath, Auntie, in the brick building right on the corner and say, Auntie, while you are there you can get the fixings of some new lights, and get one of those new horns. They are fine, and will suit you better than that old, quaking thing, that is on our Ford now.

AUNTIE—I will do that Lucille, and I am going to ask Mr. Biehn about some other matters regarding my car.

LUCILLE—Well, Auntie, you will find Mr. Biehn a good man to deal with, and will be very fair and right with you, and he can give you all the information you may want.

MORAL—Your car will receive proper care and treatment if you take it to the FORD GARAGE. Don't forget the number, Ninth and Klamath. Mr. George Biehn, Manager.

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—Jesse Willard may grab the championship crown from Jack Johnson, late of Chicago, and still later Parisian brawler, at their little meeting in Juarez, Mexico, in March, but there are doubters galore.

The Kansas cowboy, the experts are now busy pointing out, has the best, the ability to take punishment, and the medium-sized punch. The chief objection seems to be that he lacks ring experience and that his attitude in the squared circle is entirely too mild.

Willard is now accused of lacking nerve, but many critics complain that he is not an aggressive campaigner. And they agree that the man who takes the title from "Lil Arthab" must go after the dusky one from the start and give him a whale of a beating.

Those fight birds who look to Willard to win believe Johnson has gone back at a tremendous pace. Also there are some cautious suggestions from certain quarters that while the title is getting worthless to Johnson, because he is barred from the United States, it would prove of immense money-getting value to the Kansan. The boys who wager real money on the scrap are not losing sight of this fact, either.

Reports from Juarez say that the Mexican gambling house proprietors, curio shop dealers and gents whose bags have never been known to close, are washing their pink and blue store fronts and preparing for a big business. Incidentally, General Villa's brother, part owner of the biggest gambling dive in the border town, counts on gambling out of the throng of fight bugs about as much coin as Johnson or Willard.

If Johnson emerges from the Juarez bout safely, he will be confronted by two Sams, McVey and Langford, who are waiting for a crack at their colored brother. Johnson is now 37 years old and it looks like a sure bet that the crown will drop from his peak, if not in one of these prospective battles, at least within a short time.

Any Old Thing.

In the absence of comparison, any old thing will sell. This is just as true in life insurance as in other things. Ask Chicote about the "Dividend Paying Company of America." 635 Main Street. 21-6t.

STOPS HEADACHE, PAIN, NEURALGIA

Don't suffer! Get a dime pack of Dr. James' Headache Powder.

You can clear your head, and relieve a dull, splitting or violent throbbing headache in a moment with a Dr. James' Headache Powder. This old-time headache relief acts almost magically. Send some one to the drug store now for a dime package and a few moments after you take a powder you will wonder what became of the headache, neuralgia and pain. Stop suffering—It's needless. Be sure you get what you ask for.

Buckeye Convicts Now Having Home Rule

COLUMBUS, Jan. 22.—Prisoners at the Ohio penitentiary now have "home rule" government. This innovation marks the latest move of Warden P. E. Thomas' plan to get in closer touch with the convicts.

Included in the "home rule" plan is the appointment of six representatives, one from each division of the cell blocks. Each representative is subject to "recall" by the prisoners. The representatives are known as councilmen. Each will be allowed to visit all prisoners in his ward during the evenings, a freedom denied other convicts. In this way, Warden Thomas believes, they will keep in touch with the wants of their constituents, hear their complaints and note improvements they believe would be to the benefit of the prisoners.

These representatives will meet with the warden once every two weeks to discuss matters which have come to their attention. They are expected to make such suggestions as will tend to relieve conditions about which they complain or to urge the retention of any feature of prison life, which the convicts particularly desire. But their work ends with the suggestions. They will have no power to vote that these suggestions be put into practice.
