EDUCATE OUR VOTERS

PRESIDENT WILSON is expected to veto the immigration bill, which has been passed by both houses of congress, because of the clause requiring all immigrants to read a few words of some language. The admission of immigrants is a problem difficult of solution. The uneducated immigrant may not be criminal in his natural instincts, but he is generally exploited by the great industrial concerns and is forced to work as a peon.

Investigations by congressional and legislative commissions has shown that ignorant foreigner are sometimes kept in subjection and are actually semi-slaves. The company store keeps the alien worker in debt and his terms of labor are more exacting than they should be in a free country.

This is the only menace offered by the unlettered immigrant. Our greatest menace is from a number of half-educated agitators. Men are given citizenship papers entitling them to vote, even though they know no more about the questions they are passing upon than a mule.

The real literary test should be applied to voters. No man or woman should be granted suffrage unless he or she has been a bona-fide citizen of the United States for, say, five years. And no citizen should be allowed to vote who cannot speak or read and write the English language.

Every American who speaks or understands but one language will admit that he would be a poor voter in any foreign country where he did not understand the language. Our own citizens need educating, and the best educated voters would be the women.

In every state where there is equal suffrage the voters show greater intelligence than the voters do in the states where only men are granted the franchise. If the alien labor laws were made stronger and were strictly enforced, there would be no excuse for suggesting any literary test.

Industrial Commission Chairman Attacks Millionaires

Chairman Frank P. Walsh of the Industrial Relations Commission, which has begun an inquiry into the huge Rockefeller, Carnegie and Sage Foundations, has just made a radical speech in which he attacked aggregations of wealth. He insisted that coal lands of the West had been stolen by corporations and should be returned to the people. The tenor of his talk indicated that he would use his influence in the commission to have it decide the big foundations should be dissolved.

This is, in part, what Mr. Walsh said in his speech. "Even without changes in the laws as they are today we can do much to solve the problem of unemployment and the kindred problems that go with it. We can, for instance, take back for the people vast fortunes that have been embezzled from the people. I mean the fortunes taken from coal lands illegally filed on in the West. A thief never gets a true title. "Is there any person who will not challenge a $100,000,000 foundation, exempt from taxation and to be used in a way the people as a whole do not dominate? There are $300,000,000 now invested in these foundations, and there are no limitations on those funds. Suppose all of these foundations should concentrate their resources in the securities of one industry where the tollers were making a fight for democratic control? They could crush down the defenses of the fight for industrial justice. They bring the great necessities of life under their control."

KAISER'S BIRTHDAY CAUSES RECKLESS DARING BY HIS MEN

Thousands Sacrificed From the Coast to Rheims

His program for each day, for each week and for each month is always carefully planned far ahead. Of course, the war has cut into his ordinary routine; in fact, the death of the Austrian archduke compelled him to return from Norway, where he always spent his annual yachting trip. He is a prodigious reader and on his table may be found American, British and French magazines and newspapers as well as German. His favorite books are those dealing with history and economics. For recreation he reads Latin and Greek poetry, Horace and Homer being his favorites.

He has a clear, strong voice, and his recent illness does not seem to have affected it—despite reports to the contrary. Furthermore, the emperor likes to use his voice in loud singing of hymns or in delivering flowery sermons to his family and crew on the Hohenzollern, his yacht, or at one of the palaces. But it is the role of the military man that Wilhelm II will be remembered longest, and his birthday today sees him engaged in a struggle which is the climax of that training which began with his boyhood days when he was given a miniature frigate, the Royal Luise, with which he might play. Since that time he has reviewed troops, supervised manoeuvres, studied tactics and encouraged military and naval efficiency on the ground that the best preparation for peace is to prepare for war. His many portraits show him almost invariably in uniform. His interest in naval affairs has always been unceasing. "Our future lies on the water," is a saying of his which he first pronounced many years ago. And he has tried to keep pace with other countries in building up a large navy.

CURING DEFECTS IN DOCUMENT FAVORED

SALEM, Jan. 27.—Representative Houston's bill, curing defects in all deeds and instruments heretofore executed with relation to real property, was passed by the House.

Because Houston's bill will affect considerable property in the state, and because it was regarded as sweeping, more or less opposition was voiced against it. Primarily, it is intended to make valid deeds where there was an error in the acknowledgment or in the number of witnesses. Representative Houston explained that these were defects that could be cured and that it had been the custom of the legislatures, ever since the beginning, to pass bills of this character. Representative Ravey declared the bill was sweeping, and expressed the fear that it would allow fraud to creep in, and that it might do more injury than good.

LAWMAKERS MAY DEMAND CHEAPER SCHOOL BOOKS

SALEM, Jan. 27.—Contending that the state is paying an exorbitant price for its textbooks, Representative Blanchard, of Josephine county, has signified his intention of introducing a bill in the House providing that when the state's present contracts expire with publishers it shall enter into a contract for textbooks, the amount of which will not exceed seventy-five per cent of the amount of the present contracts.

TO DARKEN HAIR USE SAGE TEA

LOOK YOUNG! BRING BACK ITS NATURAL COLOR, GLOSS AND THICKNESS

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the sage tea and sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application of two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant, and you appear years younger.

All Tired Out Hundreds More in Klamath Falls in the Name Fight

Tired all the time; weary and worn out day and night; back aches; head aches; your kidneys are probably weakened. You should help them do their work. Let one who knows tell you how.

Frank Longwill, 102 S. Mistletoe street, Medford, Ore., says: "I had severe, sharp pains in my back, felt tired, languid and run down all the time. The kidney secretions were unnatural and too frequent in passage. My rest was badly broken at night. Four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of all symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. I have had no complaint since."
