Timber Deal Is Big

Minnesota Interests Buy Crook-Klamath Tract

The following from the Portland Journal is of great interest locally:

Negotiations pending for a period of several months have just been closed whereby the Deschutes Lumber company, at Bend, Oregon, sells to the Shevlin interests of Minneapolis, Minn., a body of yellow pine timber covering an area of about 60,000 acres, located in the western Klamath county and some of it within five miles of Bend. The amount involved in the deal is said to be about $3,000,000.

E. C. Shevlin of the Shevlin Timber company, with offices in this city, who is interested with T. L. Shevlin, his nephew, and others in the deal, said today that the purchase will give the company 130,000 acres of yellow pine in that district, with a total cruise of some 4,000,000,000 feet.

Tentative plans are to begin logging and erect a sawmill the coming summer, unless all signs of improvement in the lumber market fall. How large a mill and to what extent the operations will be prosecuted depends upon the turn of the market conditions.

While the Shevlin have no mills in this state, they operate several mills throughout the country. The large holdings in Central Oregon are within easy reach of transportation and only spurs will have to be built to get the output of the camps or mills to market.

John E. Ryan, who was interested in the Deschutes Lumber company, who has been stationed at Bend, Oregon, is now in Portland, and it is understood he will become affiliated with the new owners.

Ex-Secretary Knox's Son and His Wife Have a Separation

Mrs. Mary G. Knox, wife of Philander C. Knox Jr., the shopgirl who surprised the family of the former secretary of state and others when she married the young son four years ago, left her home and went to New York, where there were reports that she would sue her husband. However, her lawyer said that she did not contemplate legal action. He did not know the cause of the disagreement, but was certain it would not get into the courts. Their home for some time has been at Charlestown, West Virginia.

Previous to their marriage four years ago Mrs. Knox, who was Miss May G. Boller, had been a salesgirl in a department store at Providence, R. I. Knox is 26 years old and has been employed by a newspaper at Charlestown. According to the statement of friends of Mrs. Knox, she and her husband made their home for some time with his parents, and though treated most kindly by them, she was annoyed because he did not make provision for a home of their own.

"One Wonderful Night" is truly one wonderful picture. There is action in every foot of it. There are many characters in the cast, all of them are to be commended for their excellent work. The scenes are many and are most beautiful. There are many thrills, among the most noticeable is the plunging of an auto over a 200 foot embankment.

It would have been hard to have selected a better man for the leading role than Francis X. Bushman. He portrays the part of a young engineer who has just returned to America from a long sojourn in China. Upon his arrival in New York he very unexpectedly becomes the center of interest of a clever conspiracy, which ere many hours pass by, proves to be the night that destined his future happiness. There are many static encounters, and also some real hearty laughs.

To make a long story short, "One Wonderful Night" has everything to make a great picture. The bill will be repeated tonight for the last time.

A large number of movie fans who nightly attend the picture houses have never seen a film and have no idea whatever in what form the movies are made.

In order to give its patrons an insight into the business which furnishes entertainment to millions, the management of the Orpheus has purchased a reel of film and will cut up and give a strip to everyone attending this theater next Sunday night.

Tonight the Animated Weekly will be shown. The news of the world is given in this picture as well as the latest war news. "As Fate Willed," a two-reel special featuring Warren Kerrigan, and "It's a Boy," a Sterling comedy, complete the bill.

Grace Episcopal Guild will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Mrs. Frank Ward, corner High and Third streets. Important business is to be transacted at this time, and all members are asked to be present.

SOME MINOR WAR NEWS FROM EUROPE

LITTLE STORIES FROM THE FRONT THAT ARE COMING THROUGH THE CAPITALS OF THE NATIONS NOW FIGHT EACH OTHER—SOME ARE TRIVIAL, BUT ALL ARE INTERESTING AT THIS TIME.

United Press Service
LONDON, Dec. 27.—(By mail to New York.)—Week-end trips home from the trenches are now a regular thing among the British soldiers at the front.

The regiments which were engaged during the desperate retreat from Mons, and the subsequent advance north of Ypres, the thoroughly exhausted as the result of three months' continuous fighting, and as far as possible, they have been withdrawn from the firing line, and replaced by fresh troops.

Leave of absence is granted whenever possible and the war-weary veterans make a bee line across the Channel for a week-end at home.

The names of the lucky ones are published in the orders of the day, and the men selected behave like school boys at the end of the term.

"Telegraph for a dinner at the Trocadero, I'm dining and sleeping out," whoops a young officer and on discovering his name in the list, and in ten hours he is in London. The men's chief grievance is that they have to pay their fare back, but it is expected that this will be remedied.

Curiously enough, the thing the week-enders from the front want most is news, but they are much disposed to discuss their own doings.

CLEVELAND SOLVES BIG PROBLEM

United Press Service
CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 27.—Cleveland has started in with a vengeance to solve its problem of the unemployed.

Sixty-one thousand workers are jobless, according to recent statistics. A citizen's committee, appointed by Mayor Baker, is today at work in the interest of every unemployed man and woman. House to house canvasses are being made. Organized sub-committees are scouring the city for all available work. These committees are bringing the jobs to the jobless. Every available unemployed person is listed and as fast as jobs are found they are notified.

Two hundred Cleveland churches have taken up the campaign. From the pulpits, pastors, priests and rabbis are urging their congregations to form neighborhood "hire a worker" clubs that will create odd jobs about the household for the unemployed.

A committee, composed of business men, is raising a fund to be loaned at low interest and thus stimulate building and other industries. All merchants and manufacturers will be visited within the next fortnight and be urged to "build now" or "increase your force." F. G. Goff, president of the Cleveland Trust company, heads the citizen's committee. The municipality itself is creating work by the immediate excavation for a big reservoir. Other city projects are to be put into operation as soon as possible.

"Tired of war talk" is the response to queries.
Five officers who got leave week, made for a south coast port, went to the best hotel in place, ordered separate rooms a fire in each, and for two days their meals served in bed.
