But if you are going to drink, says the senator, drink straight "booze,"

"I think my friend from Mississippi, Senator Williams, is mistaken if he thinks that alcoholic drinks derived from the grape, the fermented liquors in contradiction to those that ar- ditilled, are less narmful. It is my opinion that he is decided mistaken. The Englishman and the Scotchman and those people of Europe who drink heavy port wines are, t think, killed off as quickly, and I think more quickly, than those who confine themselves to the use of pure whisky.

'If a person is going to drink at all, if he wants to get drunk or if he desires a stimulant, as a physician who has practiced for 40 years, I say to him, 'Get good pure whisky.' Leave wine and beers out. You will last longer and do yourself less harm and the result will come cheaper in the long run. It is a matter of economy. If you really wish to use alcohol and get the effects from it without any subterfuge or fooling about it. It is the safest drink of all. "I say this in order that those who are going to continue the use
