American Girl May Wed the Brother of Lord Decies

Miss Catherine Britton, daughter of Alexander Britton of Washington, and long a favorite in society, may never return from Europe, where she went to act as a nurse for the French. This photograph shows her in a costume she wore at a fancy dress ball shortly before sailing. She left the United States a few weeks ago with Miss Nona McAdoo, daughter of the secretary of the treasury. Now she is reported as being engaged to "Bobby" Beresford, former amateur lightweight champion boxer of the British army, and a younger brother of Lord Decies, husband of the former Miss Vivian Gould. Letters received here since the sailing of Miss Britton and Miss McAdoo, to become war nurses, brought the news of the former's engagement, and while it was not possible to learn from Miss Britton's parents any details of the affair, it is understood that she has written to Mr. and Mrs. Britton, asking their consent. Young Beresford, it is said, met Miss Britton for the first time on board ship on the way over. During the voyage Beresford and the Washington society girl were together frequently. "Bobby" Beresford is the heir to his brother's title, should the latter die without male issue.

Moving Pictures

"A Leap in the Dark," the third episode of the "Million Dollar Mystery," will be shown at the Orpheus tonight, in addition to "Under Fire in Mexico," a three reel feature of love and warfare, and "Camille as She Never Was," a side splitting comedy.

"The Wolf," the big six part Lubin photoplay, written by Eugene Walter, author of "Paid in Full," "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," and many others, will be presented at the Star theater today and tomorrow. Judging from the comment of moving picture trade journal critics, it is one of the most commendable offerings that has been released by any company in the past year. The scenes are laid in the great Canadian north, portraying the scenic beauty of the snow clad prairie, the dense forests and the frozen streams.

The cast has been well selected, the entire company receiving the highest praise for the excellent portrayal of their respective parts. The story is one that nearly everyone is familiar with, the play has met with wonderful success, but like many other notable stage successes, has had the one great drawback, the settings. This is one instance where the motion picture triumphs, as the scenes that are brought before you are as beautiful and realistic as any imagination could picture.

The management feels absolutely safe in recommending "The Wolf" as one of the best feature attractions that has been seen at the Star. In addition to "The Wolf," "The Black Diamond Express" of the "Hazards of Helen" series will be shown. This makes a program consisting of seven reels. A superior bill, from start to finish.

If you are looking for a good time as well as a good movie, it will pay you to see "Chickadee." Like "Camille" some of the most desirable properties in the Klamath Falls. Never too busy to answer questions. 422 Main St., Phone 94.

sla's purpose. The murder of two Lutheran missionaries on the Shantung peninsula furnished the pretext. Germany seized Kiaochow and Russia swallowed her chagrin, taking Fort Arthur as a consolation. This crowded her against Japan. The result is well known. Today Russia and Japan find themselves in accord, and where Kiaochow may ultimately land is beyond the ken of any who are content to deal with facts. Certain it is there are evidences of renewed activity in railroad construction in the vicinity of Kalgan.

Believes Russians to Benefit by Jap Conquest

By BURTON K. STANBURN (Written for the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 16.—It would be hard to find a man in Japan who would not be glad to see Russia, and especially the Russian army, in the hands of the Japanese. The Japanese are not only a powerful nation, but they are also a nation that is growing rapidly. The Japanese are not only a powerful nation, but they are also a nation that is growing rapidly.

Representative W. D. E. Ainsworth of Pennsylvania has such an idea. He recently returned from a rather extensive tour through the Far East. He is impressed with the rapid growth of Russia and believes that Russia will be the dominant power in the world.

"It is interesting to recall that it was Kiaochow, and not Port Arthur, which was Russia's first love. It was almost within her grasp. China had leased Kiaochow to Russia, with it went the permission to build the Manchurian railroad through Manchuria. Accompanying it there was an unspoken purpose to build the Klamath railroad from Lake Baikal to Peking. A thought has been taken this road to Kiaochow, then being Russia had 'repossessed' once part of the Pacific.

It was about this time that the Manchurian railroad was completed. It was about this time that the Manchurian railroad was completed. It was about this time that the Manchurian railroad was completed.
