COMMUNITY CONTRACTS

IN EVERY community are lying dormant forces that if utilized would work the community's transformation from stagnation and poverty to progress and prosperity.

In agricultural communities are soils producing only one-half their capacity under proper tillage, and that are being exhausted by obsolete methods. There are stores losing their trade steadily to mail order houses and other out of town concerns; while at hand are newspapers and print shops that if properly used would clinch practically all trade to local merchants that conduct their stores in accordance with modern standards and to meet the requirements of patrons of their communities.

Many communities not only possess almost limitless wealth in natural resources, but many are so situated as to be able to develop along lines hitherto unattempted. Undoubtedly the next century will see small manufacturing carried on in communities that now deem such development impossible.

In other communities the newspapers are loyal and liberally patronized and mailorderism is scarcely thought of; small manufacturing is carried on to an extent that gives employment to many persons who otherwise would move to industrial centers. These communities are rich; they have good schools, good roads, good churches, flourishing merchants and intelligent and enterprising citizens.

What kind of community is ours? Have we any resources that should be developed? Is there any latent force that needs community aid to arouse it into action? If so, let us unite and utilize all the forces available for our development.

Scattered Shots

WITH EASTER so near, no farmer is giving half the attention to weather predictions as is his city.

YOU CAN LAY it down as a certainty that the man who will holler the loudest because the paper gives two lines to the fact that he was arrested and fined, will also holler loudly if the paper doesn't give a couple of columns to telling of his wonderful booster spirit if he paints his barn.

THE MAN WHO is looking for trouble usually succeeds in locating it with a very little effort.

THE LAWYER is one of the few people who gets ahead by minding other people's business.

YOU CAN'T HOLLER at all at anything the city council does next year if you don't register NOW.

THIS IS THE time of year when the school kids find it as nearly impossible to study as it is to sit still, and the calendar is being consulted to ascertain how many more weeks until vacation.

The trouble is that most parents want their sons to attain fame as ministers, etc., while the small boy is partial to fame via the Matthews-Plank-Jess Willard routes.

IT IS NEVER too early—to do your Christmas shopping.

MORE THAN ONE person is wondering where, oh, where are the garden tools he purchased at this time last year.

Don't overlook this one, "The Man on the Box," Sat tonight.

KENO'S PEOPLE PLAN A PICNIC

WILL BE HELD SUNDAY IF THE WEATHER PERMITS—GRIP IS PRAVELENT THERE—OTHER NEWS NOTES

(Herald Special Service)
KENO, April 2.—Grant Nelson, his sister Laura Nelson, and Helen Colwell went to Klamath Falls last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchens and son went to Klamath Falls with Douglas Puckett last Saturday.

Brice McCormick went to the Downing ranch last week, to be gone a week or two.

Manly Puckett is not much improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Powers and family visited Klamath Falls last Monday.

Ben Kerns and family moved from their home into the house occupied by Mrs. Kerns' father, Mr. Mattoon, last Wednesday.

Sam Padgett is having the roof of his large barn repaired.

Some of our people expect to go on a picnic Sunday, if the weather permits. Cooking eggs and fishing will be engaged in. We expect to have a general good time.

Miss Hazel McCormick is much improved in health. She expects to be in school again soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sutton, Miss Nell Hutchens and Mr. Rogers came to Keno in Mr. Sutton's launch last Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton called at the home of Mrs. Kittie Puckett and Mr. Rogers and Miss Hutchens visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. Hutchens.

Mr. and Mrs. McCormick and son Lyle and Mrs. Madison of Klamath Falls, visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Prentiss Puckett, last Tuesday.

There were not many at Sunday school last Sunday, on account of the inclement weather.

Mr. Broyles is helping Walter Kemp with his farm work at present.

Prentiss Puckett has begun hauling logs for Ackley Bros. Lumber company.

Mr. Henry Snowgoose, who has had quite a severe attack of la grippe, is some better at present.

Mrs. Susie Wheeler will help Mrs. Nelson with her work this summer.

NEWS ITEMS OF MT. LAKE PEOPLE

EASTER SERVICES TO BE HELD AT CHURCH SUNDAY—IMPROVEMENT CLUB SETS MEETING DATE—OTHER ITEMS

(Herald Special Service)
MT. LAKE, April 2.—Austin Case, who has been home from High School with la grippe for the past two weeks, has returned and resumed his studies.

There will be Easter services at the Mt. Lake church Sunday. Sabbath school will be omitted, and the services will begin at 10:30.

The weather has not kept the farmers from their work in the field, although the wind has been rather strong.

At the Mt. Lake Improvement Club meeting last Friday night it was voted to hold one monthly meeting on the last Saturday of the months of April, May, June, July, August, September and October. The mock trial was very amusing, and furnished good entertainment for the evening. A number of friends from the Falls were present.

David McComb was out from the Falls Tuesday to see his brother, J. A. McComb. He has rented his Langell Valley ranch, and goes north to take a pastorate.

Britain's War Lord Does Smile

Lord Kitchener

They say in Great Britain that Lord Kitchener, the biggest Englishman connected with the war, never smiles. It is tradition among the people that he is ever stern. Yet here is proof that he can and does smile. His friends who see him when he is off duty have insisted that he does smile occasionally, and they have offered their word to prove it. The photographer who took this picture has proved it for everyone. He may not smile often, but he does smile. Incidentally, this is one of the best pictures and one of the most recent ever taken of the war lord. He has fought shy of photographers more than any important character in the war. The Kaiser of Germany will pose for them, and has posed hundreds of times, but Kitchener seldom stops long enough for a photographer to catch him.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old, famous Sage Tea recipe are sold annually, says a well known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray, becoming faded, dry, scraggly and thin, have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

ful—all dandruff gone, scalp itching and falling hair stops.
 This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur tonight, and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

Debates U. S. Preparedness United Press Service

NEW YORK, April 2.—Whether lessons of Europe's war require Uncle Sam to increase his army and navy will be debated tonight at Carnegie Hall by Representative A. H. Gardner of Massachusetts, author of the agitation for "preparedness," and Morris Hillquit, foe of martial expenditures.

The Quality the Doctor Demands

Doctors buy rubber goods here because they can find here the kind of goods they want. They also send their patients to us because their patients can find the kind of goods the doctors want them to buy.

Our rule in buying rubber goods is to buy the best that are made—for strength, finish and wearing quality; and, therefore, we have the kind that the doctor, and everyone who knows good rubber goods demands.
