

CARPATHIAN WAR TOLD TWO WAYS; FIGHTING HARD

ZEPPELIN RAIDS BRITISH TOWNS AGAIN

Little Damage is Caused by This Raid. Two Men and a Woman Slightly Hurt—Russians and German Dispatches Regarding the Battle for Hungarian Soil Are Entirely in Conflict as to Results.

United Press Service LONDON, April 15.—Conflicting reports regarding the progress and results of the fighting in the Carpathians are being sent in from Petrograd and Berlin.

German dispatches assert that everywhere the Russians have been beaten. They claim that the attempts of the Czar to use his troops from Przemysl for invading Hungary failed entirely.

Petrograd insists that the Austro-Germans are everywhere preparing to retreat, allowing the Russians to advance further into Hungary. They say the fight for Ussok Pass is proceeding furiously.

Aeroplane Raid. It is believed that the Zeppelin bombing a few British towns last night was the Z-9. Revised reports show that two men and one woman were slightly hurt, one building was destroyed and three damaged by the attack, which lasted in all about 25 minutes.

An attempt was made to sink the tug Jupiter. The "Exp" descended almost to the tug's masthead, but the tug escaped uninjured.

VICE QUARANTINE IS DETROIT METHOD

DETROIT, Mich., April 15.—Quarantine as a weapon against the social vice is an innovation which may be tried out in Detroit. Police and health board officials, who have been co-operating in a plan to check the spread of disease resulting from wide-open conditions in the red light sections, are about ready to launch a new campaign, it was hinted today.

The new plan, which is experimental in nature, will be the quarantining of any resort which is reported to the police as a menace.

The quarantine method, it is said, will be employed as a substitute for the old police method, now discarded, of closing up resorts which failed to comply with the department's regulations providing for registration and medical inspection, or which failed to

JOHN BUNNY ILL; MAY NOT SURVIVE

WORLD FAMOUS "FUNNY BUNNY" OF VITAGRAPH MOVIES SUFFERING FROM A NERVOUS BREAKDOWN—IN BAD SHAPE

NEW YORK, April 15.—John Bunny, whose face is known to more people in the world than even that of Kaiser Wilhelm, is critically ill at his home in Flatbush. Little hope is held out for his recovery.

This follows a nervous breakdown about a fortnight ago. Since that time, the big comedian has gradually sank.

Bunny is a member of the Vitagraph Stock company. His comedy roles in the motion pictures produced by this company have made the whole world laugh, and in addition to his film success, he has a great record in vaudeville.

Bunny's claim to greatness is his homeliness. He realizes this, and has capitalized it so successfully that it can be truthfully stated that "his face is his fortune."

The damage from the flood will be heavy. It was preceded by a terrific rain, which was a warning to many, who narrowly escaped.

"Liars!" Cries Billy Sunday, Evangelist, to Newspapers

There was just one word in the English language to express Billy Sunday's opinion of newspapers which printed stories about his first few meetings in Paterson, New Jersey; that he had been received coldly.

"Liars!" he cried. Then during his explanation he spoke of the twenty odd men who wrote the stories for New York and New Jersey newspapers as "stinking little reporters." Ma Sunday thought so, too. This photograph gives some idea of the way Billy looked when he expressed himself.

Billy was on the last lap of luncheon when Ma Sunday invited the newspapermen to enter the dining room and receive an authoritative statement to controvert the "lying" stories which the newspapers, particularly those in New York, have published.

The evangelist quit the task of disposing of a dish of stewed prunes and smote the table in a mighty wallop and made the crockery rattle.

"Any man that writes such stuff is a liar," he exclaimed, as he pushed his chair back from the table. The diamond stickpin which fastened his silk dressing gown at the neck gleamed in an agitated fashion, as both Billy and Ma expressed themselves in unmistakable terms upon the character of the miserable stinking reporters," who wrote such trash.

"I never saw a meeting start off with such a fine spirit," declared Sunday. "If they (meaning the reporters who said there was a lack of enthusiasm) don't want to support the movement let them keep away. I never asked a newspaper to support me in my life. They can write anything they like and you won't hear a peep from me. Anyone who wants to run down these meetings is a calamity howler. I am sick of those stinking little reporters who write such stuff and try to frame up things. Why do they lie about the community and misrepresent—"

"See," interrupted Ma, "that's just what I told you he'd say. We're delighted at the reception we've received."

COUNTERFEITERS NABBED FOR U.S.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Secret service agents this morning arrested Thomas Boggs, William Young and Frank Harris aboard the sloop Barnacle, near Sausalito, charged with counterfeiting.

The prisoners were caught asleep by the officers. Awakening, they fought desperately. They also attempted to throw overboard a quantity of counterfeit coins and counterfeiting machinery.

The officials declare that the sloop, upon investigation proved to be nothing but a den for the manufacture of spurious coin. Outfits for making five dollar and fifty-cent pieces were found.

There were rifles and ammunition in the boat, and it is the belief of the secret service that the sloop traveled all along the coast, the crew passing counterfeit at all places.

The daughter was killed while she slept. The wife was attacked with the hatchet while she was preparing breakfast.

SHUBERT FEATURE IS A GREAT FILM

MOVIE PRODUCTION OF OWEN DAVIS' "A MARKED WOMAN," IS GORGEOUS, AND SCENES AND ACTING ARE SUPERB

The large audience that waited a delayed train that they might see the five reel production of Owen Davis' greatest melodrama, "A Marked Woman" at the Orpheus last night, felt well repaid for their wait, as the film is the best of its type that has been shown here. The scenes, laid mainly in China during the Boxer uprising, are splendid, and the costuming is little short of gorgeous.

This film is the Shubert production of the play, which the Shuberts featured over their circuit, but being in motion pictures the scenes taken Tomorrow and Saturday are "Clean Up" days. A proclamation setting them aside for city improvements has been issued by Mayor T. F. Nicholas.

The clean up is to be thorough, as this year the school children have been enlisted in the movement. Houston.

MEXICANS DESIRE HUERTA'S ARREST AND PUNISHMENT

CALL HIM "MODERN NERO" AND "MURDERER"

Madero Club Telegraphs Strong Resolutions to the President Regarding Mexico's Former Dictator—Reports of Los Angeles Times Regarding Japanese Naval Preparations in Turtle Bay Not Taken Seriously

United Press Service SAN DIEGO, April 15.—Calling Huerta a "murderer" and "the modern Nero," the members of the Madero Club, the local organization of the Mexican constitutionalists party, today telegraphed President Wilson, demanding the arrest of Huerta and his punishment.

"This is necessary for the future of legitimate government in Mexico," says the resolution.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., April 15.—The state and navy departments and the Japanese embassy here all unite in ridiculing the report printed in the Los Angeles Times that the Japanese navy is carrying on extensive work at Turtle Bay, in Lower California, to use that harbor as a naval and military base.

Admiral Howard is in close touch with the Mexican coast, and he laughs at the story.

While interested, officials were at no time excited by the report. They believe it is misleading.

The proclamation of Mayor Nicholas follows:

Nicholas, mayor of Klamath Falls, by virtue of authority vested in me by the charter of the city of Klamath Falls, and in pursuance of the common council of said city, do appoint Monday, April 15, and Saturday, April 17, to be known as Clean-Up Days in the city of Klamath Falls.
