GIVE ALL CREDIT

THE news of the battle about Yser brings home to all of us that the manhood of both sides in the great struggle taking place in Europe is so evenly matched, insofar as actual bravery is concerned, there is little possibility of telling which contending nation really is possessed of the most valorous men.

In times of great peril men arise to the occasion singly or perhaps in a few numbers, but when the world has gone mad with the desire to kill enemies of the moment, it is but natural to believe that great masses of men will demonstrate their fearlessness.

Some will say the soldiers are foolhardy to fight for kings and monarchs. That may be, but there are none who can say each side has not, in many instances of late, defied death and seen its men fall in thousands.—Marshfield Record.

Scattered Shots

HAVE YOU READ the little pamphlet sent out by the city? The questions involved, you are asked to help settle by your vote Monday.

THIS GERMAN GAS can't be any more rank than some of the hot air that some of the news agencies sent out earlier in the war.

THERE IS no better time than the present to begin swatting the fly. Every one killed now means 10,000 less in July and August.

IT'S GREAT to make the world laugh—if it laughs with you instead of at you.

WHAT HAPPENED to the committee appointed to solicit funds for maintaining a representative at the Panama-Pacific exposition?

DO YOUR FLY swatting early.

KLAMATH FALLS MUST have a good band this season. Whether it does or not depends upon the support you, and you, and you give the movement.

WE SHOULD worry. The price of house numbers hasn't advanced a bit.

Doing Their Duty

Scores of Klamath Falls Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty. When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak.

Backache and other kidney ills may follow. Help the kidneys do their work. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Proof of their work in the following: Daniel Flaten, C. street, Jacksonville, Ore., says: "I suffered from weakness of the kidneys and all the disorders that go with kidney complaint. I asked all over. Doan's Kidney Pills soon fixed me up in good shape."

American Shades for American Women Now

Now it's American colors for American women. The wave of patriotism—or feminine sickness—that has caused her to frown upon foreign modes is now responsible for the introduction of an entirely new set of shades designed to make those of the time-honored rainbow look drab by comparison.

Goethals grit—a light sand, as its name might indicate—Christobal red, Independence blue, Baby Francis pink, named in honor of the white house infant; Ponce de Leon green, with Penn gray to give a touch of seriousness, are a few of the new shades that have been put on the market.

But not all. In addition there is knickerbocker, a medium shade of tan, with its companion, Chevy Chase, a light mode. The pinks run the gamut from the palest Pricilla down through Baby Francis, Evangelina, to Lafayette, an intense old rose.

More time, forethought and sentiment have been expended on the blues, however, than on any other color, because this, of all, is the American woman's favorite. Independence, which promises to be universally adopted, is an absolutely original color.

The outcome of an inspiration of a department head of one of the big shops, who conferred with a dye artist in carrying out his idea. Independence is an attractive, purplish shade of blue, the result of a combination of the American flag colors.

An even more defiant shade of blue is Barbara, named from the aggressive Barbara Fritchie. Betay, inspired by Betay Ross, is a true blue, with no suggestion of another color, and Pocahontas is the name given to the color best described by the tones of the feathers on a bluebird's breast.

Ponce de Leon, a youthful apple-blossom green, is in the same category with Hudson, De Sota and Columbus. The purple shades are represented by a Martha Washington, lavender and Lincoln and Arlington, of tragic significance. A flaming Indian red will be known as Hiawatha, and Christobal, a crude brick shade, has been designed for trimming only.

But at any rate, Prussian blues and Russian greens, London grays and Persian reds have become taboo. The American woman has made her declaration of independence, and a waiting world is breathless to see the reversal.

Government Is Highest Per Head in Klamath

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—The per capita cost of county government is higher in Klamath county than in any other county in Oregon, according to the report just made public by the census bureau, which gives elaborate detailed figures on county revenues and expenditures for 1913.

The report shows that in Klamath county the per capita cost was $27.77, as against an average cost of county government for the entire state of $10.83. In nine counties the per capita cost exceeded $15, as follows: Crook, $15.22; Curry, $18.69; Gilliam, $15.31; Josephine, $18.60; Klamath, $27.77; Lake, $19.02.

In Multnomah county the per capita cost was $2.78; in Washington county, $12.95; and in Lane county, $12.28.

The record for low per capita government was made by Hood River county, where the cost was $7.56 a person. Other counties in which the per capita cost fell below $10 were: Baker, $8.24; Clackamas, $9.67; Columbia, $9.82; Jackson, $9.23; Marion, $8.21; Union, $9.66; Wasco, $8.22.

Tillamook county had by far the highest per capita revenue receipts. In seven counties the per capita revenue receipts exceeded $15, as follows: Crook, $21.58; Curry, $17.44; Grant, $17.97; Lake, $15.31; Lincoln

$15.33; Tillamook, $28.93; Wheeler, $16.08.

The per capita receipts of the more populous counties follow: Multnomah, $8.74; Washington, $12.99; Lane, $10.78; Clackamas, $10.31.

Crook county raised less money from general property taxes than any other county in the state, its receipts from that source being $23,798.

(Herald Special Service) PINE GROVE, April 28.—The business meeting of the Anti-Can'ts was held recently and it was decided at this time that the same officers be in charge of the society for another thirty days. Earl Mack is president, and Miss Jennie Icenbice was chosen secretary. Charles Dutton and Robert Elliott were appointed as ushers for the Pine Grove Sunday school and after some minor matters were attended to, adjournment was taken, and a dainty luncheon was served.

Attending this meeting were Misses Inez and Helen Elliott, Miss Nora Miller, Frank Miller, Robert Elliott, Earl Mack, Ed and Earl Miller, Miss Jennie Icenbice and Cal and Ivan Icenbice.

The Pine Grove school has purchased a beautiful oil painting. Joe Taylor and family were in the county seat recently shopping.

S. Igoia, who has been away for some time, has returned to his place near Olene.

A. Kinney, the prosperous Olene merchant, was in Klamath Falls last week.

Jess Beckley and wife, with a party of Klamath Falls friends, called at the McClay ranch last Sunday.

Mrs. S. E. Icenbice visited her daughter, Mrs. Dixon, last week.

J. S. Mills sold nine hogs to the City Meat market at the Falls.

TURN HAIR DARK WITH SAGE TEA

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular, because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.
