WHY NOT PROFESSIONAL JURORS?

THERE are two things which the average citizen is willing to dodge. One is paying taxes and the other is jury service. It is mighty hard on a business man to be haled into court and lose a week or more at a time in order to serve as a juror and to be annoyed by attorneys and to be compelled to listen to hot air and to be placed practically in jail, if trying a criminal case, while the prisoner is free on bond.

If the state can employ honest men as judges it can find honest men capable of serving as jurors, and to secure absolute justice the jurors might be required to serve in any county in the state.

The amount of money paid out in jury fees by the different counties in any state would be sufficient to employ the necessary number of jurors and the business man would be relieved of unpleasant duty and the state would get better service and the public more exact justice.

There would thus be less opportunity to fix juries in criminal cases, as the jurors would or could be selected from men from a different county from the one in which the crime has been committed.

The majority of men would be willing to have the fee system abolished and the jury service reformed as above outlined.

Scattered Shots

THE MAN WHO will not turn out to do a day's work on the county roads free of cost ought to be given thirty days.

IT IS JUST AT such ticklish times as the present that some yap will shoot off his head with some remarks that a German sympathizer will resent, and the result might be a general riot that will precipitate war.

ONE OF THE MOST profitable investments is a season Chautauqua ticket. No similar expenditure of money will yield such wonderful returns in pleasure, inspiration and fun.

NOW THAT THE war talk is at white heat again, wouldn't it be a good idea for our naturalized Germans, English, Russians, French and Austrians to read over their oaths of citizenship. There is something in it about forswearing allegiance to all monarchs, and swearing to uphold the American government.

It pays to choose your company. Remember this when taking insurance. See Chilcote.

Shippington Items of Interest to All

By Lora King

SHIPPINGTON, May 13.—During last week's storm three of the Upper Lake steamers are said to have taken refuge in sheltered ports—the Modoc at Eagle Ridge, the Klamath at Bare Island and the Mazama in the lee of Squaw Point.

A mirage appeared on Upper Lake a few days ago. This is considered a harbinger of an early summer.

Several acres of corn will be planted in Buenavista Addition next month. There will also be a lot of sugar beets planted, as much for an experiment as for anything else.

Mrs. Herbert Hill has started up a boarding house at Shippington. She has leased the W. O. Huson house near the Long Lake mill.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Price of Jacksonville, Ore., who are on their way to Langell valley to locate, arrived a few days to visit friends at Shippington.

Ye gods and little fishes! Several new dogs have appeared in Shippington and more nocturnal music can be expected.

Cofer Bros. are installing a rock crusher at Winema landing. Maybe this will facilitate the building of that much inflated Shippington road.

Captain Wickstrom is driving piling at the big McCornack dike at Ball's Bay. The steamer Eagle is in attendance.

John Linman, who has been laid up for some time with rheumatism, is much better now.

Cofer Bros. are stripping off the surface soil from a new piece of land they have leased from the Klamath Development company, to the north of Blehn Addition. When the surface soil is removed it lays bare a strata of clay suitable for making brick. Several men and teams are employed.

The steamer Modoc, Captain Burk Wilson, is towing logs from Ball's Bay to Algoma.

You needn't kick. I don't owe the public an apology for not writing more often. This makes just the 700th letter I have written for the local press. What do you know about that?

dances in Greek costumes have caused considerable comment. The young woman didn't wear much besides a short pair of trunks and a robe which was filmy. Her legs and feet were bare. The leader of a teachers' organization before which several young women appeared at a benefit in this garb, was rather severe in her comment.

Resembling a pistol and controlled by a trigger is a new pneumatic tool for cleaning dirt from inaccessible parts of machinery.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil is carefulness in spending. The man with a salary will find that his money goes further when he deposits it in the bank and pays his bills by check. And he knows where every penny goes, too. The First State and Savings Bank invites accounts from salaried men and housekeepers. As little as one dollar will start one. Many a one begun with that sum has become a goodly balance, because of the check it puts on thoughtless spending.

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia, "limber up!" Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

American-Servian Is Against Women's Peace Meeting

Mme. Slavko Grouitch, the American wife of the permanent under-secretary for foreign affairs of Serbia, who has been in the United States for some time to raise funds in behalf of the Serbian agricultural relief committee of America to fight the plague in her adopted country, is bitterly opposed to the Women's International Peace Congress, soon to be called at The Hague. Just the other day Miss Jane Addams of Chicago led a delegation of American women to Holland to attend this meeting. Mme. Grouitch called the meeting "silly, misguided and worthless."

"It is too late now to talk about peace, reconciliation and a cessation of conflict," Mme. Grouitch said. "War exists. We are dealing with a condition. Now is the time for women to prove they are eager and willing to help women. Why are not the good women who deplore the horrors of war in Europe gathering supplies and medical kits for the suffering non-combatants? Why are they not sending over doctors and nurses instead of conversing on that gigantic folly—the idea that they can effect world peace by speeches and resolutions? The peace movements supported by Andrew Carnegie and others are reaping the harvest of their own folly and neglect. As long as five years ago they were appealed to by economists to work for the education of the masses and the betterment of living conditions everywhere. Instead, speeches, resolutions and literature on the beautiful philosophy of peace comprised their efforts."

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By Hal Sheridan

United Press Service NEW YORK, May 13.—Every time they match Paek McFarland and Mike Gibbons, they don't.

Not that Mike isn't ready, because he is not only ready, but anxious. At one time Mr. Gibbons betrayed no such undue desire to mingle with the light-hitting but extremely clever young million-dollar fighter from Chicago's stockyards, but then Mike had everything to lose, including the fight, probably. Times have changed, however. Gibbons is about as simon-pure a middleweight champion as was Ketchell, and those who disputed Stanley's claim usually took care to do so outside of a ring. The phantom boxer that was Mike Gibbons of many moons ago, today is in addition a hard-hitting wallop, as clever as anyone who ever came along in this modern ring era, and confident that he can whip all creation at the right weight.

When Mike was prone to dodge, it was Paeky who was the world beater, and he still may be just that—only we are inclined to voice a few just doubts. Paeky, when he was at his best, easily outclassed everything in the division in which he fought—133 pound class. Not only did he actually possess the wonderful skill he still insists he retains, but he was too big for the lightweights who faced him. When he was compelled to admit that he could no longer make the weight, he simply dropped out of active competition and went to nursing along his real estate.

The very career of McFarland explains his reasons for avoiding, as long as convenient, the very lucrative match with Gibbons. If Paeky were at his best, he would figure to outclass the cleverest of them all at his weight, but the point is that Paeky, in Gibbons, will be compelled to face a bigger man than himself, a terrific hitter, and a veritable shadow. The tables would be reversed exactly for the stockyards wonder. And Paeky never relished a beating. It is axiomatic that a good little man cannot defeat a good big man.
