

Important Conference Is Opened in Capital

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 24.—In the hall of the Americas of the beautiful Pan American Union building, one of the most important gatherings ever held on this continent opened today. Delegates representing practically every nation in the Western Hemisphere met to discuss their financial relations and ways and means of assisting one another while the present European war lasts and after it has come to an end. More than half a hundred of the leading financial men—governmental and commercial—from the South and Central American countries are ready to take part in the discussions which beginning today were expected to occupy the entire week, if not to continue into next.

The United States is host. Congress in authorizing Secretary McAdoo to carry out his idea, voted $50,000 expense money and a large part of this will be used in entertainment of the foreign guests, part of the program being a trip to certain important financial centers. The guests include also a large number of representative bankers of the United States, but they will defray their own expenses for the most part. The list of foreign delegates follows:

Argentina—Samuel Hale Pearson, distinguished banker; Richard C. Aldao, former minister of finance for the province of Buenos Aires; V. V. Villamil and John Zimmerman, business men.

Uruguay—Pedro Cosio, minister of finance; Dr. Gabriel Terra, former minister of industries.

Peru—Asaac Alseamora, former vice-president; Eduardo Higginson, consular-general at New York.

Colombia—Santiago Ferez Triana, former minister to Great Britain; Roberto Ancizar, secretary Washington legation.

Salvador—Alfonso Quinones, former president; Jose Suay, former minister of finance; Robert Agullar, prominent banker.

Nicaragua—Pedro Rafael Cuadra, former minister of finance; Frederick Albert Straus, banker.

Panama—Aristides Arjona, secretary of finance and treasury; Ramon P. Acevedo, manager National Bank of Panama; Ramon Arias, Jr., vice-president Bank of Canal Zone.

Costa Rica—Mariano Guardia, minister of finance; John M. Keith, banker.

Honduras—Gen. Leopoldo Gordova, minister of hacienda and public credit; D. Fortin, leading merchant; Dr. Alejandro S. Lara, of the Bank of Honduras at Tegucigalpa.

Brazil—Dr. Amaro Cavalcanti, former Supreme Court judge.

Bolivia—Ignacio Calderon, minister to the United States; Adolfo Balallivian, consular-general at New York.

Dominican Republic—Francisco J. Peynado, former minister to the United States; Dr. Enrique Jiminez, minister to the United States.

Chile—Luis Izquierdo, former minister of foreign affairs, Luis Aldunate former governor Province of Chilli; Gonzale Vergara, prominent attorney.

A thorough and comprehensive discussion of existing financial condition of all the countries represented is anticipated. Time will be taken to deliberate on all the phrases of the financial and commercial needs and problems of the American republic. Suggestions probably will be adopted for the common advancement and closer relationship of the republics.

The head of the Argentina delegation is a prominent figure of the world. He is a grandson of Samuel B. Hale of Boston, who founded the National Bank of Argentina in 1883. The capital of the banks and business corporations with which Mr. Hale is connected aggregates $700,000,000, it is said.

Salvador's delegation not only include that country's vice-president, but a former president as well.

One outcome of the conference is expected to be a better understanding on the part of American financiers of the methods and conditions of business in the Latin countries, particularly of the credit system in practice which differ materially from our own.

His coming lecture at the local Chautauqua will be one of the great treats of the week.

HIGH SCHOOL IS AGAIN A WINNER

FORT KLAMATH TEAM IS DEFEATED BY A 10 TO 6 SCORE. HILTON SHINES AS A REAL SLAB ARTIST

By a score of 10 to 6, the Klamath County High School baseball team took Saturday's game at the Fort away from Fort Klamath. Up to the seventh inning the score was 8 to 1, and then Hilton eased up a bit in his slab work. Noel was Klamath's receiver, and the Fort battery was McKeever and Zumbum.

This was the high school's final game. They have played five games, and lost but one this season. One feature of the season was the development of a good slabster in Hilton. He has steadily improved, and has been a valuable man for the team.

KLAMATH SEES VOLCANO WORK

MANY LOCAL PEOPLE SAW COLUMN OF SMOKE SATURDAY AFTERNOON, AND OTHERS REPORT MORE LATE YESTERDAY

Saturday's violent eruption of Mt. Lassen, when a mixture of mud, ashes and lava four times the volume of the hot mud flow of the day before poured into Hat Creek Valley, was known to local people by the sight of the dense smoke cloud ascending from the mountain. Many in town and around Midland witnessed this late in the afternoon.

Fred H. Mills, Joe Howard, Alex Davis and Dad Taber, who returned yesterday from a trip to Lakeview, Alturas and Susanville, say they plainly saw the eruption. They also report much white sand or ashes scattered along the road.

Other people report seeing smoke and fire last night.

SCREEN EXPERT HERE FOR WORK

SANDRY WILL INSPECT FISH SCREENS ALL OVER THE COUNTY, AND INSTALL NEW ONES WHERE NEEDED

Sam L. Sandry, fish screen expert of the state fish and game commission, is here to look over the fish screens on the various waterways in Klamath county, and to make or recommend changes wherever they are needed.

Sandry will design a number of special screens if they are needed. He will also superintend their installation.

California Officials Say That Low Did His Best

Francisco to locate Anglin. Friday morning Anglin was to appear in answer to the fugitive warrant, but he failed to do so. The "dressing" given Anglin's brother and his attorneys by Police Judge Oppenheim is described as decidedly scathing, and as a result they asked a continuance, and said they would try to have the prisoner before the judge at 10 o'clock this morning.

The following letter was voluntarily given Sheriff Low by Judge Oppenheim:

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that I, as police judge of the city and county of San Francisco, allowed Harry E. Anglin to go upon bond in the sum of $1,000 on the 19th day of May, 1915, and that the said case was called for trial on the 21st day of May, 1915, and that the said Harry E. Anglin failed to answer his name. The case was then continued to the 24th day of May at 10 o'clock a. m., at which time, if the said Harry E. Anglin does not appear, I will, unless good and sufficient reason is shown, declare the bond forfeited.

I desire to say that C. C. Low, sheriff of Klamath county, Oregon, did all in his power to bring back the said Harry E. Anglin to Oregon for trial.

Thompson & Stanford, Anglin's attorneys, also gave Low this letter without solicitation:

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, represented Harry E. Anglin as attorneys in reference to his extradition from the state of California to the state of Oregon on the charge of bigamy, the facts being as follows:

That on or about the 15th day of May, 1915, a warrant was procured from the authorities in Klamath Falls, charging the said Harry E. Anglin with the crime of bigamy, and, as it was represented to us that said Harry E. Anglin was sued for a divorce by his first wife some five years ago in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, state of California, and a copy of said complaint was served upon him, and thereafter he moved to Klamath Falls, state of Oregon, and married his present wife under the impression that a decree of divorce had been granted in favor of his first wife in the county of Alameda, state of California.

After hearing the facts, and being employed by Mr. Anglin's brother, we immediately proceeded to get a writ of habeas corpus, which was issued by the Hon. Judge Cabanis, judge of the superior court of the city and county of San Francisco, on the 19th day of May, and on the following day the said writ was dismissed for the reason that a warrant charging him with being a fugitive from justice was issued by Hon. Alon Oppenheim. The same day the said Harry E. Anglin was allowed to go on a bond in the sum of $1,000, which was put up by his brother and one Charles Schriber, and the case was set down for trial on the 21st day of May, 1915. It appears that the said Harry E. Anglin has jumped his bail and has fled to parts unknown.

We desire to say that the sheriff of Klamath county did all in his power to bring the said Harry E. Anglin back to Klamath Falls for trial on the said charge, but was blocked by the aforesaid writ of habeas corpus, and when Mr. Anglin was allowed to go upon bail.

We are somewhat under the impression that the said Harry E. Anglin has either lost his mind, or, as his brother says, is in the bottom of the bay, but we will do all in our power to locate him and bring him to trial.

SEVERAL THINGS

There are several things to be considered in selecting your bank.

- 1st Strength—financial strength.
- 2nd The care with which the bank is managed.
- 3rd The courtesy and spirit of accomodation displayed by the officers and employes.
- 4th The banking experience of its officers.
- 5th The ability of the bank to properly and promptly handle all your business.

To those wishing desirable banking relations, we offer our services as an old established, permanent, conservative and accomodating bank, promising courteous treatment and careful attention to all business entrusted to our care.

Moving Pictures

"The Serpent Sign," the first episode of the "New Exploits of Elaine," will be presented at the Star theater today. A new character will be introduced in today's episode. Edwin Arden, a well known favorite of the legitimate stage, will take the place of the Clutching Hand. In the future it will be a battle of wits between Kennedy and Woo Fang, the part that will be taken by Edwin Arden.

There is another rattling good feature on today's bill, in which the late John Bunny is the star. "Hearts and Diamonds" is the title of the piece, which is a superior comedy offering in two parts. The picture is a baseball story in which Bunny is said to be a scream, in a baseball uniform. "Rory O'More," a one part Kalem drama, completes today's program.

The Star announces a big comedy bill for Tuesday and Wednesday. The feature of the program is the three part Vitagraph comedy, "Mr. Bingles' Melodrama." One of the "Hazards of Helen" series and another reel of comedy will be presented in addition to "Mr. Bingles' Melodrama."

The Peerless orchestra has arranged an excellent concert program for Tuesday night.

To lend variety to the regular program the Orpheus tonight presents "Murder Will Out," a laughable one act farce with a local cast. In addition, "Checkers," adapted from Henry Blossom's great play, will be shown. This offering is in five parts, and cannot fail to please.
