American Red Cross Is Working Wonders for War Victims' Help

Old Organization Has Sent More Than a Quarter of a Million in Cash to Alleviate Misery, Besides Tons of Clothing and Other Supplies

By BURTON K. STANDISH
 (Written for the United Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—Mabel T. Boardman, just now active director of the "infinitely small" work of the American Red Cross, is firmly convinced that persons wishing to aid victims of the war, combatant or non-combatant, make a mistake when they fail to make use of the Red Cross.

"A number of volunteer organizations have sprung up," she said, "and their purpose is fine. They want to help, and they set about in their own way to do it. The trouble is that their work too often duplicates our own, and that means just that much waste; it means that money is being spent twice for one end, whereas there are so many things crying for relief which we haven't the money to relieve. I think this is in large part due to the failure to understand that the Red Cross will apply funds to any purpose for which it is given. If $5,000 is given for a specific piece of relief work it is used for that, and the same is true if the sum given is $5. However, if we had planned to spend the same amount of funds already in hand for that work we don't do it; we divert it to another crying need."

"For example, we have transmitted $279,389 in cash to Europe. Of this, $197,799 was for purposes designated by the givers, as against $181,689 not designated. The Red Cross knows the field better, we believe, than the new volunteer organizations can possibly know it. We've got our machinery in operation and are able to make the expense the very minimum. Volunteer organizations, from the very nature of things, incur expenses that are already being borne by the Red Cross, and which should not be twice taken from the too meagre funds available for relief work."

"I wish people understood this better. I wish they realized that when Congress created the Red Cross, acting under the treaty of Geneva in the creating of a volunteer aid society, it intended that the Red Cross should be the American people's expression of sympathy and the American people's means of helping the stricken whenever need arises. Nothing could be more essentially an institution of the American people and of the American government than is the Red Cross. Probably most people do not know that our accounts, after being audited by the war department, are reported to Congress, together with detailed statement of our work."

There is evidently something in what Mrs. Boardman says. The Rockefeller Foundation seems to think so, too. Such money as it has set aside for war relief work has been turned directly over to the Red Cross to be administered as the Red Cross sees fit. The foundation, admittedly expert in such matters itself, concedes this field to the Red Cross, and to avoid waste and misuse gives the latter the funds, asking only a receipt for it, and no explanation of how used.

But one appeal for financial aid has been made, that made by President Wilson as president of the Red Cross, August 13. The response to that thus far has been $1,415,032. More is urgently needed.

Some of the uses to which the money has been put are here indicated:

Cotton 937,000 pounds, gauze 832,000 yards, crenoline 65,000 yards, bandages 924,600 pieces, adhesive plaster 32,500 yards, chloroform and ether 23,100 pounds, medicines 4,870 pounds, compressed tablets 680,000, hypodermic tablets 98,000, disinfectants, assorted, 26,936 pounds, bichloride tablets 48,000, tincture of iodine 780 quarts, plaster of paris 1,800 pounds, surgical instruments 1,573, operating accessories 2,998, hospital equipment 50 cases, field hospital outfit 423 cases, field medical outfit 20, ligatures 98,000, antitoxin for typhoid 20,000 doses, tetanus antitoxin 55,000 doses, smallpox vaccine 10,000 tubes, blankets 10,208, stretchers 9,240, shawls 516, women's and girl's sweaters 1,740, for workers in Serbia 50 cases, motor ambulances 19.

Those are supplies purchased. In addition donations aggregate 7,668 cases and 2,887 packages of hospital garments, surgeons supplies and clothing, valued at over $500,000. Such donations have been sent to the Red Cross warehouse donated by the Bush Terminal at Brooklyn, and have been packed and prepared for shipping by a force paid for by Cleveland Dodge.

Moving Pictures

Tonight the Orpheus offers as headlines the first episode of the greatest serial ever produced, "The Black Box." This wonderful picture is by the producers of "The Trey O' Hearts" and "Lucille Love," and the many who enjoyed these pictures should not miss the latest effort of the Universal Film company. The Orpheus management has been told by local people who have witnessed a part of "The Black Box," that it is absolutely the greatest serial they have ever seen. Each of the fifteen episodes is replete with thrills, and those who followed the previous serials of this concern realize that the Universal players know how to put the "punch" in their pictures. "Playing With Fire," a two reel feature, and "Easy Money," a roaring comedy, complete the five reel program.

"The Watchful Eye," the third episode of the new "Exploits of Elaine," will head the five reel program, which will be presented at the Star theater today. A two reel Kalem drama and a Selig comedy will accompany the feature. This program will be shown tonight only.

The Star management announces the greatest motion picture achievement the world has ever known for Tuesday and Wednesday, when "The Williamson Submarine Pictures" will be presented. They are positively the first and only motion pictures ever taken at the bottom of the sea.

On this trip beneath the sea, one wanders around as freely as in the air. The reviewer rambles in Neptune's botanical gardens, becomes acquainted with the family life of every species of deep sea fish, visits wrecks of the last century, and finally watches with breathless interest a fight to the death between man and the tiger of the sea, a huge blue thresher shark.

These are but a few of the intensely interesting features to be found in the picture. There are seven reels of the one subject, which portray life at the bottom of the sea in many parts of the globe. As a closing statement, the management wishes to impress you with the fact that when you have seen "The Williamson Submarine Pictures" you have witnessed the greatest, most marvelous pictures the world has ever known.

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull ache in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

UNIVERSAL Food Chopper
 Cuts Like a Pair of Shears

Many so-called choppers crush and tear the meat or vegetables, wasting the juices and destroying the flavor.

The UNIVERSAL—the original Food Chopper—cuts like a pair of shears, with two sharp, beveled edges. These edges are so adjusted that they keep sharp automatically by acting one upon the other.

The UNIVERSAL Food Chopper cleanly chops all kinds of meats—raw or cooked—and fruits and vegetables—coarse or fine as desired—without mashing or tearing.

Each UNIVERSAL Food Chopper is equipped with coarse, medium and fine cutters.

Extremely simple. Nothing to get out of order. Parts interchangeable—easily cleaned.
