FRANK SAVED FROM GALLOWS

GOVERNOR SLATON FINALLY COMMUTES SENTENCE TO LIFE IMPRISONMENT AT 12 O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT

ATLANTA, June 21.—The sentence of Leo M. Frank, office employe in a factory here, convicted for the murder of a girl in the basement of the factory, and sentenced to be hung on the gallows tomorrow, and for whom one of the greatest fights in history has been waged, was commuted to life imprisonment by Governor Slaton last night at 12 o'clock.

The governor said in explaining his action: "All I ask of the people is to read my statement, which will be issued later, and which will consider in a calm manner the reasons given for commuting Frank's sentence. I am satisfied that I did right."

Frank was taken secretly to a Milledgeville farm at midnight, arriving at 4 o'clock this morning. His demeanor was calm, and hardly showed relief at the change of fate.

Police Chief Beavers has closed 220 saloons and twenty clubs, fearing that drinking would intensify the situation here and cause violence.

KLAMATH COUNTY EXHIBIT IS GOOD

SAYS REPORT OF PHIL J. SINNOTT, COUNTY REPRESENTATIVE AT FAIR—COULD BE IMPROVED, HOWEVER

Reports from Phil J. Sinnott, Klamath county's representative at the Panama-Pacific exposition, state that the Klamath county exhibit is better than he expected after hearing reports, but that it needs some changes, which he is working on.

Sinnott finds many inquiries concerning this county, and has already sent several men here. He is almost daily sending lists of men whom he has interested in the county, and who are corresponding or coming up here as a result.

Sinnott is working on several changes in the booth which will add greatly to its attractiveness. One is the replacing of some furniture used there by a display of Indian baskets, which will be seen as soon as one enters from one of the entrances to the building, and will attract many people to the booth, he states.

SENATORS VISIT WATER PROJECTS

LARGE PARTY TAKEN OVER THE VIEW OF APPROPRIATION FOR FURTHER EXTENSION WORK

The special train carrying the committee on appropriations of the house of representatives arrived in the city early Sunday morning, and were taken over the project by the water users association in automobiles, a total of ninety-three miles being covered.

The committee had telegraphed ahead that no banquets or demonstrations were desired, as this trip is a business trip alone. Many expressions of favorable comment were made by the members of the committee, and they will take the data gathered, using it for reference when the appropriations are made later in congress.

John J. Fitzgerald of New York, chairman of the committee, headed the delegation and was accompanied by the following: William P. Borland of Missouri, Joseph W. Byrns of Tennessee, Charles R. Davis of Minnesota, Frederick H. Gillet of Massachusetts.

McHattan Goes to San Francisco. T. G. McHattan left Sunday morning for San Francisco, where he will purchase new stock for his jewelry store on Main street.

OREGON COURTS REVERSED BY SUPREME COURT

LAND GRANT CASE IN FAVOR OF RAILROAD COMPANY

Supreme Court Reverses Oregon District Courts, Despite Acknowledgment of Failure of Railroad Company to Live Up to Laws Regarding Disposal of Land—Grant Made Half a Century Ago.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21.—The supreme court reversed the Oregon district courts this afternoon in the forfeiture to the government of 2,300 acres of timber land in Western Oregon, valued at fifty to sixty million dollars, granted to the Oregon & California Railroad company a half century ago.

The railroad and its successor, the Southern Pacific company, failed, it is alleged, to dispose of lands as provided in the grants. The court, however, granted an injunction against future violations of land under disposal contracts, and enjoined from sale of timber on unsold lands until congress can conserve federal interests.

STUDENT WORKS FOR EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON STUDENT GIVING ENTERTAINMENTS OVER STATE TO PAY HIS WAY THROUGH COLLEGE

Earl E. Fleischman, a student in the University of Oregon, is traveling over the state giving entertainments to aid him in securing a college education, and will appear in Klamath Falls tomorrow night at the Christian church.

Fleischman was a freshman in the University last year, and made a big hit by his ability to appear before the public on any occasion in a serious manner or otherwise, always giving good entertainment.

The "boy amateur" is his stage title, and his program consists of musical numbers, impersonations and dramatic readings. He has a baritone voice of exceptional quality, and sang regularly in the Christian church at Eugene. The entertainment begins at 8 o'clock.

LAVA BED ROAD PROJECT NOW ASSURED FACT

COUNCIL OF PROMOTERS HELD AT CAVE

Delegations Each Leave Machines Five Miles From Cave and Walk the Distance—Modoc County Is Ready to Go to Work July 4—Local Committee Ready to Take Up Subscriptions—Big Opening Planned

Meeting at Bear's Paw Caves yesterday at noon the delegations from Klamath and Modoc counties completed final arrangements for the commencement of work on the Lava Beds road project, which, when completed, is to give Klamath county, in conjunction with the Crater Lake trip, the most scenic highway in the state, vying with the Columbia River highway.

This is of especial importance now that a great deal of the coast automobile travel is being directed up the Columbia and down the Central Oregon highway.

The representatives from this city were Captain O. C. Applegate, Chas. H. Merrill of Merrill, John A. McCall, O. C. Applegate Jr. and Richard Gibson. Modoc county sent C. J. Fuleher, secretary of the Modoc County Good Roads Association; Lester Woods, a stockholder; Geo. Courtwright and Geo. Kregge, who are also stockholders.

The local party left this city at 6 o'clock, drove the machines about five miles beyond Sam Fleeners, walked the remaining five miles, held the consultation, visited the ice cave below Bear's Paw cave, and made the return trip to this city by 6 o'clock, which is almost a record trip.

Modoc county is prepared to start the work immediately following July 4th, and this leaves it up to Klamath county," stated Captain Applegate this morning.

"We must now take up our subscriptions and make plans for the work. To lessen the expense we are going to hold a big Good Roads Day, and take 100 men from this city down and work on that road, throwing out the small rocks. One day's work will practically clean that up. Of course, other men will be put to work to take out the big rocks and loosen them up. All kinds of tools will be provided for the work, and Klamath county's sixteen miles of road, much of which needs but a rake to clean it up, can be finished. Modoc county expects to have their end completed by August 1st.
