WHO WANTS A NEW MAYOR?

THIS is the headline of an editorial in the Northwestern Sunday morning. The editor of the Northwestern should have had no hesitancy in saying: "The city of Klamath Falls demands a new mayor."

It is easy enough to detect from a reading of the editorial that the trouble with the editor of the Northwestern is that his conception of who are the people is at fault. He has suffered so often in the past from the same misconception that we are constrained to advise him to adjust his telescope to bring into close range and view the whole citizenship of the city, lest he continue to fall into irretrievable error in that regard.

He is not entirely happy in his comparison and likening of the people to the frogs in the fable.

The idea of electing a mayor is in no wise analogous to selecting a ruler of knightly attributes and powers.

The mayor has resigned. Without a mayor the government of the city is incomplete. It lacks the executive function. It is not a question of saving $100 a month by leaving the office of mayor vacant. It is not a question of whether Mr. Mathews is getting on fine. It is not a question of giving the council a chance.

It is simply a question of living up to the law of the city, and giving the people an opportunity of selecting a responsible head to the city government.

Important functions are delegated to the executive department of the city government. The people are entitled to have those questions and the executive power vested in the mayor exercised by a man directly chosen to fill that position.

It is such an official who alone, without question as to the legality of his acts, can exercise those delegated powers and functions. Section 64 of the charter says: that a vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled by a "special general election."

The present charter was compiled by a commission consisting of C. S. Moore, W. A. Delzell, J. W. Siemens, Fred Melhase, O. M. Hector, R. H. Dunbar, D. B. Campbell, Hunter Savidge, W. O. Huson, A. A. McHaffey and A. L. Leavitt, and was submitted to the people and by them adopted. The measure received a most careful scanning, and was most thoroughly discussed by both the local press and platform opponents and exponents. Its adoption lifted the city out of an intolerable condition of doubt and uncertainty, and placed it on a legal footing.

The charter muddle of a few years ago is still fresh in the minds of many people, who can see in this effort on the part of this element who now ask: "Who Wants a New Mayor?" an attempt to bring about another muddle in our civic government and plunge us into needless strife and turmoil.

The present charter is the fundamental law of this city. Made so by the will of the people. It is binding alike on the people, mayor and council under their oaths of office.

The powers and duties of each branch of the government are specifically enumerated and delegated. Powers delegated to one branch are withheld from the others.

The editor of the Northwestern says: "It's all piffle, of course. The people at large are not demanding a special election." Again we advise an adjustment of the editor's telescope.

Scattered Shots

WONDER WHO is going to be chief of police. Geo. Humphrey is the man.

THE SENATORS have come and went. A nice, quiet bunch of gentlemen.

BOTH TEAMS reinforced, the Boxers got three, K. F. two, but it was a case of two being worth four or five.

THE FORD picnic was a success—all kinds of stunts were performed—distance races and acrobatics—so they say.

WHAT'S THE council going to do tonight? Lots of people think they ought to call that election.

WE THINK there ought to be an election. The individual members are all right, but hardly a harmonious bunch.

HAD NOT noticed any diminution in the police force yet. Wait until after tonight.

HAMAKER has been a busy man. Hope it's all over with now, for a while.

THEY SAY the barbecue is going to be a success. Pounds and pounds of M. J. B. coffee donated free—and the meat! Wow!

LET'S HAVE a long fight over a commission form of government now. Must keep something going.

LIBRARY CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

MRS. R. E. WATTENBURG CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT OF CLUB TO SUCCEED MRS. O. A. STEARNS.
50 NEEDY FAMILIES HELPED

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, prominent Klamath Falls woman, who has been placed on the ballot in the school election Monday for a place on the school board, was chosen yesterday by the Library Club as its president. Other officers elected were: First vice president, Mrs. O. A. Stearns, who has been president for a number of years, but was forced to resign on account of her health; second vice president, Mrs. C. V. Fisher; secretary, Mrs. Emma Bainter; treasurer, Mrs. E. M. Graves.

The total membership is fifty-four, according to the report given at the meeting; six home economic lectures have been given during the year; ten afternoons have been devoted to needlework, and fifty needy families have been given assistance through the philanthropic department.

Three weeks were spent in dress-making work, with two lessons given each week on two days; six pupils took water color work under the instruction of Mrs. Z. C. Kimball. The financial report shows that on June 1, 1914, the club had a balance of $75.94. Total receipts were $789.22, total expenditures $815.33, cash on hand to date, June 1, 1915, $49.38. Attendance during the year has been 25,572. 10,223 books have been in circulation. Twenty-five new books have been added by purchase, 79 donated and 70 worn out. Pamphlets to the number of 250 have been placed in the library. Eight daily and weekly papers are taken at the library.

UPPER LAKE NOTES

It looks as though the ladies are going to rule. Thirty-two ladies were in evidence at St. Cloud yesterday, and only seven men. All join in thanking Miss Marie Rambo for her performance on the piano.

The Buena Vista spud crop is up and coming. We want a big rain now to boost 'em along; then we want a good price for the product—then we all want an automobile.

The steamer Klamath sank near Pelican landing Sunday afternoon, is the report. The particulars of the case we did not learn. No lives were lost.

Mrs. Della H. Sims of Milton, Ore., is a guest of Professor T. A. Barton of Buena Vista Addition. Mrs. Sims is a teacher by profession.

The Long Lake mill resumed operation at 9 o'clock this morning. A new belt-drive has been installed.

Marion Mayfield is a guest at the Vaney Hotel at Shippington. He left Central Point, Jackson county, and came to Klamath Falls by way of Hornbrook Saturday in a Ford machine. He carried seven passengers, and will leave for his home in Eastern Oregon tomorrow morning.

A LITTLE SPORTING GOSSIP

By BARRY BARRIS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, June 18.—Fred Merkle "pulled a boner" that cost the New York Giants a pennant. That was years ago, but the fans have never forgotten. "Bonehead" is hurled at him to this day. "Laughing Larry" Doyle was guilty of a very thoughtless act and fully as bad or worse than Merkle's a couple of weeks ago, but already his lapse of memory has been forgotten. It came in a game that did not particularly count. This causes one to think after all, it is not what you do that hurts—it is when you do it.

Merkle's "bone," as is well known, was in forgetting to touch second in order to complete a play. Doyle's stunt was an even more glaring piece of stupidity. With a man on third and one out Doyle hit a long fly to the outfield in a recent series at Boston. The man on third—Burns—dashed for the plate after the ball was caught. The ball was hit so far that he was sure to score. Doyle rounded first just as the ball was thrown in from the outfield. The ball came directly at him and he reached out and caught it, tossing it to a Boston player. Immediately a protest was lodged with the umpire, who thereupon called Burns out because Doyle had interfered with the ball.

Doyle, who has been one of the National League stars for years, had no alibi. He frankly admitted that he had been guilty of a "boner." His only explanation was that he thought as Burns had crossed the plate the play was completed and that his touching the ball would have no effect.

Had Doyle's play been made in a world's series game, as Merkle's was, he would have been a marked man.

Why Farmers Should Keep a Bank Account

Their bank deposit book affords them a complete record of their cash receipts, while the stubs of their check books are a perfect record of expenses and payments. Paying a laborer, a store account or any other bill with a bank check is much safer than with money, because you avoid the risk of handling the actual cash, and the endorsed check returned by the bank is the best kind of a receipt. Farmers, try the experiment for one year of keeping a bank account and see if it does not pay you. A large number of the best farmers have accounts with us now—we want

TAKE SALTS FOR THE KIDNEYS IF YOUR BACK HURTS

We Should Drink Lots of Water and Eat Less Meat, Says
Noted Authority on Kidney Disorders

Recommends a Spoonful of Jad Salts In Glass of Water Before Breakfast to Stimulate Kidneys and Eliminate the Uric Acid

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.
