The reception to Governor Withycombe at the White Pelican Sunday night from 8:30 to 10:30, is expected to be the biggest social event. The reception is being given under the auspices of the Woman's Library Club of this city, but is for the people of the city and county at large.

This is a rare opportunity for the people of our community to meet and speak with the governor of the state for a few moments, a thing seldom done in our city, owing to the distance between us and the state capital. Several local musicians have been engaged to render music throughout the evening, and are Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. A. J. Voye and Lawrence Mehaffey. The committee in charge of the reception are Mrs. R. E. Wattenberg, Mrs. L. Jacobs, Mrs. C. V. Fisher, Mrs. H. R. Harrison and Mrs. Wilbur Jones.

The following women will act as honorary hostesses, and will be in the receiving line: Mrs. C. S. Moore, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. W. E. Faught, Mrs. Geo. Noland, Mrs. Fred Peterson, Mrs. G. H. Merryman, Mrs. J. G. Camp, Mrs. Marion Hanks, Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mrs. E. H. Reames, Mrs. Geo. T. Baldwin, Mrs. W. A. Dellzell, Mrs. C. F. Stone and Mrs. L. Gerber.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the week was a camp fire supper given Wednesday evening by Committee No. 2 of the A. N. W. Club. The members and their husbands and a few friends as guests, motored out about eight miles on the new Algoma road, where they were served with a real camp fire meal by the committee, who were Mesdames R. H. Dunbar, J. Fred Goeller, K. G. Cummings, Geo. Chastain, Henry Newnam, Geo. A. Hayden, R. E. Wattenberg, Geo. A. Wirtz and Carey M. Ramsby. After the table was cleared the party gathered around a huge camp fire and listened to several stories of pioneer days among the Indians, told by Mrs. Fulkerson, a primary instructor in the summer school, which were enjoyed very much, to say nothing of the Klamath snake stories told by Professor W. E. Faught and Fred L. Houston. After several hymns the party broke up, each member pronouncing it the most pleasant time of the season. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Houston and Mrs. Mamie Fulkerson. The members and their husbands: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Faught, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goeller, Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Piel, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Wirtz, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Chastain, Mr. and Mrs. H. Newnam, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. White, Dr. and Mrs. White, Mrs. Jennie Hurn.

The teachers attending summer school at the high school had a very enjoyable time Thursday evening after school hours, picnicking on the west side. They left at 4 and returned about 9 o'clock. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers and evergreens, and with the paintings from the art department. A musical program was rendered by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt and the Seltz Mandolin Club. Mrs. C. P. Stewart, who has just returned from a visit to Florida and Washington, D. C., told of her travels. Mrs. Wattenberg, as a delegate from the convention of Woman's Clubs at Portland, gave a splendid report of the work there. The ladies gave a vote of thanks to the retiring mayor and city council for their support and all others who have helped make the library the success it is. Mrs. C. V. Fisher, in behalf of the Club, presented the retiring president, Mrs. O. C. Stearns, with a beautiful silver platter in appreciation of the work rendered the club. Delicious refreshments were served. This ends the present club year. The new club year begins September 1st.

Advertisement for BIG BASIN LUMBER COMPANY. Klamath Falls, Oregon, June 26, 1915. MR. FARMER: Harvest will soon be here and you haven't built that granary. You planned last year on having it ready for this year's crop and now the time is getting close at hand when you will need it. Several of your neighbors are already figuring with us along this line and you, too, should not delay longer. Lumber is cheaper now than it has been for years, so the expense will not amount to so very much. Then, too, consider the money that you can save by not having to buy sacks. This saving in one year is almost enough to pay the material bill and, if the price of sacks keeps on going up, it will pay the bill. You cannot afford to be without a building of this kind. It will be the best investment you can make. Come in and let us figure with you and help you plan this improvement. We are always at your service. Very truly yours, BIG BASIN LUMBER COMPANY. UPPER LAKE NOTES The Modoc, Eagle and Mazama are busy boats, and seem to be vying with each other in the amount of work they perform. The steamer Mazama will begin running excursions soon. Everything is in readiness but getting up steam and blowing the big whistle. The big dike at the McCornack ranch is nearing completion, and is the means of reclaiming a vast expanse of marsh land. B. R. Yancy is contemplating building an extensive addition to his hotel, to accommodate his greatly increasing traffic.

The strange aquatic birds or kelpies we made mention of a few days ago as having been discovered on Great Klamath Lake, is again in evidence. This time four of them are reported by two gentlemen, whose veracity is beyond question. These kelpies, or whatever they may be, were sporting in the water near the shore some distance of more this side of Algoma. Our informants' story sounds a little fishy, as they were some excited, but in the main it will pass. The boys describe these kelpies as having wings like a penguin, long hair like a mermaid, and tails like a fish. The last, however, the boys were not certain of, as their tails were submerged most of the time. Whether they terminated in fins or feathers is still an unsolved problem. The discovery of these kelpies, if that is what they are, is creating a sensation along the eastern shore of Klamath Lake.

"Coming Thro' the Rye" was the most popular waltz at the dance at St. Cloud on Wednesday evening. Dr. Brodley and Mamie Phipps won the contest in this beautiful waltz, which was the last dance of a well enjoyed evening.

Some men hope and some men fret, Some have pride and some regret, But the good or ill depends, After all, on what you get. —Mister Squegee

There are people who can be satisfied with little if they know their neighbors have less. This is a poor kind of philosophy. It is not necessary to recommend any such doctrine to those who buy Diamond Squegee Tread Tires. They have a right to demand much, no matter how little their neighbors get out of other tires. Unbeatable mileage economy, unusual freedom from trouble on the road, and unexcelled service under all conditions are some of the things the man who uses Diamond Squegee Tread Tires has the right to expect. And he gets them. Diamond Squegee Tread Tires are sold at these "FAIR-LISTED" PRICES:

Race up 60 Per Cent Grade. An informal endurance and "pull" test was indulged in last night by two motorcycle sports in the city, when Leon Decker, who works at the Ewauna box factory, bantered that he could beat Claude Coon up the 60 per cent grade through the Hot Springs addition and up the road to the rock crusher. Decker was riding an Excelsior and Coon a Harley. Coon says he "beat him a block."
