OLD-TIME COLD CURE
DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Broom Tea, or as the Germans call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a tumbler full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also, because the tea is so strong, it breaks up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rob Gerson from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacob's Oil

Stop "doing" Rheumatism.
It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" right at the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Lather up! Thaw's "Hypnotic Stare"

HARRY THAW, STARRING DR. AUSTIN FLINT, ALIENIST

Harry Thaw has been in the public eye for nearly nine years, and it has just been discovered that he has such a "hypnotic stare," that he will actually try to hypnotize a witness on the stand—and above all an insanity expert, who is supposed to be a past master of anything like "hypnotic stares."

Dr. Austin Flint, the dignified and impressive expert, who for many years and in many courts has testified that Thaw was insane and has thus helped to keep the man who killed Stanford White in an asylum, startled court and jury the other day in New York, where Thaw was on trial for his sanity, when he gravely announced that Thaw had tried to hypnotize him.

Dr. Flint was on the stand when John B. Stanchfield put the following question to him:

"In view of Thaw's behavior in the court room you have to admit, don't you, that he's a perfectly normal man?"

"No I wouldn't."

"What single abnormal thing has he done in the court room?"

"Well, I don't consider his attempt to hypnotize me in court a normal thing."

"What do you mean by his attempt to hypnotize you?"

"He stood there and looked at me for fifteen minutes with the intention of hypnotizing me. I've seen hypnotists at work. He's tried it repeatedly."

The court had already rapped for order and, as the justice showed he was going to speak, even Thaw calmed down so as to hear what might be said.

"Do you mean to say," asked the justice, "that you seriously think Thaw tried to hypnotize you?"

"I certainly do," answered Dr. Flint. "It's in the testimony, I think that Thaw took lessons in hypnotism."

When Thaw was asked what success he had ever had in hypnotizing any one, he said:

"I don't know what he is talking about. I never took lessons in hypnotism in my life. I've never looked at Dr. Flint for more than three minutes at a time."

"Gee!" Thaw exclaimed later, "if I said anything like that on the witness stand they'd keep me in a bug house for a hundred years."
