Long Island Girl Admits Burglaries

Mrs. Ruth Taylor Conlin

Mrs. Ruth Taylor Conlin, aged 31, daughter of a wealthy resident of Sea Cliff, Long Island, and belle of the little town and the surrounding country, has admitted that she robbed a number of houses closed for the winter and spring by summer residents.

"Ruth did all the stealing," said he. "She took the lead always. I did not take a thing from the places we went to. I had the means of effecting entrances—the keys.

"We wanted to go to dances and theaters, and devised the burglary scheme to get money. I realize I am as much responsible as she. I have no resentment against her for getting me into this scrape."

Some months ago Mrs. Conlin, then Ruth Taylor, ran away from home and married a chauffeur. She quit him after three months. Clapham's attention to her aroused the husband, who followed the pair when they took a valise on a train to New York city.

POLITICS ARE ANTIQUES AND ON SHELF, BUT--

NEVERTHELESS LEADERS MAKE BROAD STATEMENTS

Republican Chairman Believes People Are Dissatisfied With Democratic Administration—Fight Will Be Made on Domestic Questions, as the Country is Standing Behind President on Foreign Questions.

By LOWELL MELETT (United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, July 31.—"We have every expectation of winning. The country is dissatisfied with the democratic administration. It is becoming more so daily, and is ready to return to the republicans. Every report I get from all parts of the country indicates this. So does every election."

"Unless there is some decided change in the situation, it will not be necessary for either party to establish headquarters next year. The result is a foregone conclusion as things stand now. The democratic party is enjoying unexampled pre-eminence that is not likely to be lost for many years."

These are the first political predictions for 1916. The chairman of the republican and democratic national committees did not issue statements, but suffered themselves to be asked for their views of the political outlook by the United Press. It was not like this one year ago preceding previous campaigns. As a matter of fact, each was rather startled at the sight of a reporter. However, upon recovering, they expressed themselves as set down above.

Apparently politics is at "impasse" like the campaign in France. It was admitted by both sides that confidence rests in the belief of a united party. Chairman Hillis expects Colonel Roosevelt to be regular; Chairman McCombs expects Bryan to be regular. But both are not sure.

"The fight will be on domestic questions," said Chairman Hillis. "The country is standing behind the president on foreign questions."

Chairman McCombs said: "No domestic issues to which the people will listen can possibly be raised by the republicans. The foreign questions, the things the people are constantly thinking about cannot be disregarded. If Dingley were recalled from the grave he could not write a tariff protective enough to make a particle of difference to American business."

Hillis named Maine, New York, New Jersey, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Nebraska and Nevada as the stray sheep expected back in the republican fold next year. A switch from 12,000 democratic majority in St. Louis to 29,000 republican majority is also looked to by Hillis as a hope of carrying Missouri also.

"The only possibility of the republicans being a contender is the restoration of the entente with Roosevelt," said McCombs. "Nobody knows what Teddy will do."
