

BULGARIA'S PURPOSE HIDDEN BEHIND CENSOR'S VEIL

Russians Turn Tables in Galicia; Attempt Envelope Teutons

KING OF GREECE SIGNS ORDER TO MOBILIZE ARMY

GREEK PARLIAMENT MEETS ON WEDNESDAY

Believed When Veil is Lifted Czar Ferdinand Will Be in Command of Bulgarian Forces Ready to Strike. Will Attempt to Force Greece to Cede Macedonia. May Not Join Teutons and Turks

United Press Service LONDON, Sept. 24.—The censors have drawn the veil over the Balkans. An increased belief is manifest here that when the curtains are lifted Czar Ferdinand will be discovered herding the Bulgarians, ready to strike.

It is reported that Bulgarian political leaders have pledged unanimous support to Ferdinand. The Bulgarian legation has unconfirmed report of the mobilization order withdrawn, but the rumor only increases the perplexity of Ferdinand's purpose.

United Press Service ATHENS, Sept. 24.—The king has signed the decree for general mobilization of Greek land forces. Parliament meets Wednesday to vote on military measures.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The Bulgarian legation here has issued statements indicating mobilization is simply a club Bulgaria intends to use in final efforts to force Greece to cede Macedonia. The statement does not mean that the Bulgarians will join the Teutons. The Greek legation has not received mobilization notification.

United Press Service ROME, Sept. 24.—Greek reservists have been called to the colors.

United Press Service LONDON, Sept. 24.—King Constantine has promulgated a decree mobilizing twenty Greek divisions, an Athens dispatch states. Premier Venizelos this afternoon will ask Constantine to sign an order for general mobilization.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 24.—The Greek delegation has been notified by Athens of the Greek mobilization.

United Press Service ATHENS, Sept. 24.—Bulgaria is mobilizing all classes from 1890 to 1915. The government is expected to take over the railway. Newspapers declare Greece must support Serbia in case of a Bulgarian attack, or become a second-rate Balkan state.

Political leaders held a conference tonight. They will probably ask parliament for authority to deal with Bulgaria. Undoubtedly this action is the preliminary step of war.

Odd Fellows End Grand Lodge SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows is expected to meet at Atlanta, Ga., was selected for the 1916 session. A. E. Becker was re-elected Commander in Chief of the Patriarchs Militant.

FARMERS CLAIM MERRILL FAIR WILL BE EQUALLED IF NOT SURPASSED—COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL SEND DELEGATION

September 30th is the date set for the second district fair, to be held at Bonanza. The Commercial Club is making plans for a delegation, accompanied by the band, to attend this fair also.

Farmers of the Bonanza section claim that the Merrill fair will be equalled, if not surpassed. Huge vegetables and produce of all kinds will be on display, and contests, etc., will add to the entertainment.

FLEET BUILDING TIED UP TIGHT

POWERS MUST WAIT TILL GERMAN MANY OPENS GATES TO PRODUCE ENGINES, SAYS FAMOUS JAPANESE

United Press Service SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—A veritable bomb exploded in a circle of brilliant naval engineers from all parts of the world in a conference Tuesday. A quiet little vice admiral of the Japanese navy, who built the fleet that whipped Russia on the high seas, touched it off.

The naval brains of Europe and the United States, with the exception of Germany, had been exchanging ideas on the building of great fleets. Then Motoki Kondo, Togo's right bower, spoke:

"A halt must be called in the construction of big navies by the nations of the world," he said. "The powers faced a famine in engines for their battleships and submarines. Germany manufactured the engines. Her door was closed to them. The nations must wait until the door was again opened, either by force or persuasion. War fleet construction was curbed. Japan must wait. The United States must wait. The world, all save Germany, must wait before new fleets are to be built."

Decision Made in Reclaim Suits. In the opinion of the state supreme court, actions brought against the state reclamation board by property holders to secure the payment for lands taken over in the course of reclamation work, are not damage suits or suits for injuries to real property, such action being properly classed as one for money due under contract for sale.

SHERIFF TALKS; PRISONER FLEES

SHERIFF LOW TURNS HIS BACK JUST ONE SECOND, AND AWAY GOES ALLEGED ROBBER OF IMMOBILIZED

To catch the alleged robber of Jordan, the bootblack in Fitzpatrick & Bean's barber shop, after several months seeking, then to have him escape, was the fate of the Klamath Falls police. Several months ago Jordan lost some clothes and other property. No one was arrested until last evening, when Officer Holman spotted a man out at the box factory with a coat astonishingly like the stolen one. He arrested the man, and brought him down opposite the court house. There he left him in charge of Sheriff Low. But one of the sheriff's friends came along just then, and Low turned around just an instant. When he looked back his prisoner had jumped into an alley and escaped. He was still uncaught at a late hour this afternoon.

EXHIBIT WINDOW IS FIRST STEP

COMMERCIAL CLUB SECURES A WINDOW FOR PRODUCE DISPLAY. FIRST STEP TOWARD EXHIBIT BUILDING

The first steps toward an exhibit building have been taken. A window of the Atkinson store has been secured for exhibition purposes, and grains, vegetables, etc., will be immediately placed upon display. Until an exhibit building can be secured, this window will be used for displaying Klamath county products. The display of honey that won so much admiration at the Merrill district fair will be placed in the window as well as prize-winning produce. Farmers are requested to bring in any choice products for display.

WORK KLAMATH DRAINAGE WILL SOON COMMENCE

BIG DREDGES WILL BE PUT IN OPERATION

All Appropriations Secured, and as Soon as Men Can Be Found Work Will Commence—Head Chief of Construction Here Looking Over the Ground—$75,000 Will Be Cost of Building Ditches.

S. P. Williamson, national chief of construction in all reclamation projects, is in Klamath Falls today, and he brings word that work on the Klamath reclamation project, stopped June 1st, will recommence at once.

The project is one of drainage of a great tract of land extending east from Klamath Falls, comprising part of Lost River Valley, and extending to Tule Lake. The big drainage ditches have already been completed, but lateral ditches are yet to be constructed, at the cost of between $75,000 and $90,000. The big ditches were built at the cost of $100,000.

An action by the Water Users Association was first necessary, and this was passed in July. Then appropriation had to be secured from the reclamation commission, the chief of construction, and the Secretary of the Interior. Mr. Williamson has looked over the ground, and the two big dredges will be put in operation as soon as possible.

Mr. Williamson was formerly in charge of a division of the construction of the Panama canal.

FATHER PERJURES TO PROTECT SON

OLD MAN LIES ON THE WITNESS STAND TO SAVE SON FROM JAIL SENTENCE, BUT HIS EFFORTS ARE IN VAIN

United Press Service SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—The saddest father in the state today is James Cornell, whose only son, Joe D. Cornell, a lawyer of Sacramento, is under sentence to serve eight years in San Quentin prison for forging a note for $7,000.

The aged man, called by the prosecution to testify that Cornell had forged his father's name, tottered to the stand, and baffling the prosecution, stood by his boy, testifying that he had the right to sign the name. In so doing, the father assumed the financial responsibility for the entire amount of the note.

Cornell had forged another name to the note, also, and on this he was found guilty. The father broke down completely when sentence was pronounced.

SUBMARINES TO DEMOLISH FORTS

JAPANESE ENGINEER PREDICTS HUGE DEVELOPMENT FOR UNDER-THE-SEA CRAFTS—WILL BE LARGE AS BATTLESHIPS

United Press Service SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Rear Admiral Motoki Kondo, inspector general of naval construction for the imperial Japanese navy, said in an interview today that the submarine in time would be perfected to such an extent that it would be able to do the work of a battleship in battering down fortifications on shore.

"In time the under-sea craft will be as large as ordinary battleships or cruisers," said the Japanese naval constructor. "They will be able to travel as far and carry as many guns. They will be able to rise to the surface and give battle, gun for gun, with the surface ships."

$45 AND WATCH TAKEN IN PURSE

MRS. C. WANNER OF PETERSTEINER'S CAFE LEAVES POCKET-BOOK ON PHONOGRAPH—FOUR MEN SUSPECTED

Mrs. C. Wanner of Petersteiner's cafe left her pocketbook, containing $45 and a gold watch, in the horn of a phonograph in her room last evening. Also she left a fire in the stove and her door unlocked.

Four men, rooming in the boarding house above the cafe, noticed the unlocked door and the fire in the stove. It was a cold evening, according to the manager of Petersteiner's. So these four men walked in and set down.

Mrs. Wanner found them there, and when they rose to go they apparently took the pocketbook with them, for when Mrs. Wanner looked for it it was gone. She has notified the police but neither the four men or the pocketbook had been found at noon.

Lost Their Baby Girl. Word was received in this city last evening that the 2 1/2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donnelly had died at their home in Langdon Valley. The funeral was held in Bonanza this afternoon.
