RAINS TO START SOON IS BELIEF

THICK CLOUDS FORECAST STORM AND COLD—DUCK HUNTERS AND SMALL BOYS REJOICE AT WINTER'S APPROACH

For the first time in months the sky is overcast with a thick bank of gray clouds, and the old timers who have watched the first symptoms of real winter for years, predict that rain and snow and wind and frost is just about at hand.

A low pressure area has been moving toward Klamath the last few days, and storms are predicted. But the feeling that greets these clouds is not entirely gloom. In the first place, there are the duck hunters. They know that not until the storms start, so that the ducks fly during the day, and not fly out of gunshot range, will the shooting be first class. There are the kids, who are repairing their boats and sharpening their skates. Of course, there are the woodmen and fuel men. In the severe frosts of the last few nights the swamps are already beginning to freeze about the edges.

Man Who Made British Drive Possible

LORD NORTHCLEFFE

This is the most recent photograph of Lord Northcliffe, owner of the London Times and Daily Mail, and a number of other publications, and the greatest man in Great Britain. The British drive against the Germans in the north of France, which has also made possible the French drive in the Champagne country, an action which even Germans admit may mean defeat for them, was due to his courage more than any other man on the allies' side. Neither the French nor the British could have undertaken this drive had not the British forces under General French—after more than a year of delay—been supplied with cannon and high explosives. It was Lord Northcliffe several months ago who compelled the reformation of the British cabinet which took from Lord Kitchener the matter of supplying munitions of war. Lloyd-George was given the place of minister of munitions in the new cabinet, with the result that the army in the field was supplied with instruments for the great drive. A few months ago, or even weeks, Lord Northcliffe was denounced by every Briton who was too stupid to see that high explosives must be provided the army. In the face of condemnation he stuck to his course, and drove the government to action. His sagacity is now evident, and after the slow-thinking Britons awake he will probably be hailed as the savior of the nation.

Boston Stock Leaps With Third Victory

United Press Service BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Boston stock jumped again when the Red Sox took their third game from the Phillies today. Three defeats out of four have left Phillie's friends down in the mouth, with the championship a long ways off. The weather was perfect, and the attendance was 41,096. The gross receipts of the game were $22,046, of which $44,851 was the players' share. The batters were: For Philadelphia, Chalmers and Burns; for Boston, Shore and Cady. Umpires for the American League were Evans and O'Loughlin, and for the Nationals, Rigler and Klem. Neither side scored in the first or second innings, although Stock of the Phillies singled, but died on base. In the third Boston scored one as follows: Barry walked, Cady singled to the infield and Shore sacrificed.

Barry scored on Hooper's single to the infield. In the fourth and fifth innings both teams were blanked, but in the sixth Boston added another run—Hoblitte singled, and Lewis knocked a two-bagger, allowing Hoblitte to come home. Neither scored in the seventh. In the eighth the Phillies took a spurt, and things looked bright for a brief moment. With two out, Gravath lined out a three-bagger, and Ludarus singled to center, permitting Gravath to score. Boston also accentuated the heart action of the fans in the eighth, for at one time there were three men on base, but Chalmers pulled himself out of the hole, and blanked the Red Sox for that frame. Neither team scored in the ninth. The totals were: R. H. E. Boston 3 3 1 Philadelphia 1 7 0 Of the four games played, the play-

FARMERS DRAWN BY BUYERS' WEEK

KLAMATH COUNTY CITIZENS BEGIN TO COME IN ON SECOND DAY OF WEEK—REST ROOM IS THROWN OPEN FOR GUESTS

This is the second day of buyers' week, and the farmers are beginning to come in. Many are buying wagon loads of provisions—enough to last them all winter—at the reduced prices.

The purpose behind the movement is a closer union between the city and country, according to business men. "Keep the money at home," is the slogan.

The vacant Bristol store room near the corner of Sixth, on Main, has been thrown open as a rest room. Chairs, tables, etc., have been provided for the guests of the city. On the walls are such slogans as "Let county and town be a unit," "One dollar spent at home is worth two abroad," "There is no town like my home town," etc.

The big rush of business is expected for the week end. As planned at present, festivities in the shape of dances, banquets, etc., will start Thursday evening.

Making Ready for New Theater. The Orpheus theater on Main street, which was partially destroyed by fire some time ago, is at present undergoing repairs, and as soon as the finishing touches have been completed, it is expected that this playhouse will again open its doors to the public.

To Reside Here. Mr. O'Brien, who is employed by the government as ditch foreman, is in this city, and expects his wife down from the Klamath Agency. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will make their home here.

Share of the gate receipts is $145,899. Sixty per cent of this goes to the winner and 40 per cent to the loser. At present, with only one more victory needed, Boston is jubilant. But the series is never won until the last game is played.

United Press Service BOSTON, Oct. 12.—The baseball commission formally decided to allow Boston and Philadelphia teams to tour the Pacific Coast after the completion of the world's series. The teams will play Western cities, and will arrive at the San Francisco exposition the last Saturday in October.

VICE CAMPAIGN FOR THIS CITY COUNCIL'S PLAN

OFFICIALS ASK OFFICERS TO ARREST OFFENDERS

Houses of Ill-Repute to Be Cleaned Up, Their Women Inmates Ordered From City, and Men Frequenters Arrested, According to Plans Mapped Out in Council Meeting—City Attorney Quotes the Law.

An anti-vice crusade for Klamath Falls will take place in the near future as the result of discussion at the city council last night. The chief of police brought up the matter by asking what ordinances there were by which he could raid suspicious houses in this city, and arrest inmates.

It was the opinion of City Attorney Groesbeck that the state law covered the matter, as well as the city ordinance making disorderly conduct an offense for arrest. He also said that "common fame" was enough to take action against an alleged house of ill-repute.

A place on Sixth street, of which councilmen and police have received many complaints, was the principal house under discussion. The chief asserted that he could fill an automobile with offenders any time he chooses to raid the place.

The council seemed united in one opinion—to clean up such places, drive out of town their women inmates and arrest the men that frequent them. According to directions given by councilmen to the chief, such a campaign is likely to begin in the near future.

INQUEST OVER BODY UNLIKELY

WOULD BE BUT FORMALITY IN CUDAHY CASE—INDICATIONS ARE THAT ACT WAS NOT PRE-MEDITATED

In all probability no inquest over the body of William Cudahy, who killed himself instantly with a revolver yesterday morning, will be held. An investigation into the cause of his death would only be a formality.

So far nothing has been found to indicate the cause of his act. He had never discussed suicide with any of his friends, and evidence points to the fact that the idea of suicide struck him almost the same moment that he carried it out.

For instance, he ate breakfast quite heartily with Mr. Harrison only a short time before he fired the fatal shot. Then he slept awhile—something hardly likely for a man with suicide on his mind. Although nervous and distressed, he did not seem particularly morbid when Harrison talked with him.

Some think that the idea of suicide came to Cudahy during the moment that Harrison was away from the office. And in a few seconds after his friend had gone he loaded the Colt's 32 with three cartridges and fired.

At 16 She Must Have $25,000 a Year

Virginia Bruce Loney

Virginia Bruce Loney of New York is only 16 years old, but she cannot live on less than $25,000 a year, her guardian says. And the guardian herself, who is much older, cannot live on less than $5,000 a year.

The girl's father and mother were Lusitania victims. She was saved. They left her $1,000,000. The guardian has gone into court with a request that the child be given $25,000 a year from the estate and $5,000 for herself. In her list of expenses in her affidavit, the guardian shows how $30,000 a year may be spent.

Rent of Park avenue apartment, $6,000; school, music, languages, books, etc., $2,500; maid's wages, $600; three servants' wages, $1,200; food and household supplies, $4,000; clothing, $3,500; doctors, dentists, etc., $500; upkeep of auto and chauffeur's wages, $2,000; recreation and amusements, $1,500; summer vacation and traveling expenses, $2,500; insurance and storage charges, $200; incidentals, $1,000; wages of guardian, $5,000; total for one year, $30,000.

LIST OF NAMES STAND AT 77

TWENTY-TWO HAVE SIGNED THE LIST OF THOSE WISHING TO GO TO EXPOSITION SINCE YESTERDAY—TRIP ALMOST ASSURED

Yesterday it was announced in the Herald that all of the 100 names required must be in by Friday to secure the one-way fare excursion to the exposition. At that time there were fifty-five people signed.

In the following twenty-four hours twenty-two people signed the list, and at noon today it stands with seventy-seven names. Fred Fleets thinks that by night there will be ninety names on the list.

This practically insures the one-way fare excursion to the exposition. Only a hundred fares are needed, and it is thought the list will be complete tomorrow night. The success of the excursion means the staging of a Klamath Day at the fair, with enough Klamath folk present to make it a success.

"There are two reasons why Klamath people are turning out so well," said Secretary Fleet of the Commercial Club. "In the first place, they know they couldn't go at a better time, since they will have home folks to accompany them all the way down and back, making the journey so much more pleasant than it would otherwise be. The second reason is they realize what an enormous advertisement it means to Klamath. It not only gives away cheese, pictures of Creter Lake, etc., and Klamath people can be there to back him. Besides these causes, I think that the people appreciate the fact that October is going to be the biggest month of the fair."

ALLIES' RAILWAY FOR CONDUCTING SOLDIERS TAKEN

BULGARIANS CAPTURE STRATEGIC POINT

United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 12.—According to Athens dispatches, two Bulgarian divisions have crossed the Serbian frontier at Gariboghas, near the Serbian town of Kniashevatz, thirty miles from Nish, on a railroad which the allies must traverse from Salonika if they help the Serbians resist the Austro-German advances.

United Press Service PARIS, Oct. 12.—Reliable information is that the Bulgarians have penetrated Serbia at Kaitchar.

United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Serbian legation has announced all Bulgarian attacks have been repulsed.

According to an Athens dispatch, Zaimas, the new premier of Greece, has admitted that the inter-national situation is complicated and dangerous when introducing his new policies in the chamber of deputies.

"My administration's policies will be founded on the same principles that guided Greece since the war began," he said. "It is better to protect our vital interests, and let our neutrality be an armed one for the present. Our future attitude will be influenced by events."

WILL RECOGNIZE CARRANZA SOON

SUCH IS BELIEF AT THE WHITE HOUSE—MUNITION SHIPMENTS PLACED ON VILLAGES—EARLY END OF TROUBLE

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—A hasty and complete recognition of Carranza is imminent. The administration will probably not wait a new ambassador appointed. A formal White House statement is expected soon. The situation concerning Carranza is such that the administration is confident of an early end of the trouble.
