

KLAMATH BOOTH IS REVELATION TO FAIR GUESTS

ROLAND GLAISYER RETURNS FILLED WITH OPTIMISM

AND Visiting Stock Shows, Exhibits, Mr. Glaisyer says Klamath Ranches Need Not Doff Hats to Anyone—Phil Sinnot Right on the Job—Monster Challenge to Eclipse Thirty-Four Pounds Is Only Need.

County Agriculturist Roland Glaisyer has just returned from the San Francisco exposition, where he took a week's honeymoon trip with Mrs. Glaisyer. While there he visited all sorts of stock shows, fairs, booths of other sections, and returns with word that Klamath county ranchers need take off their hats to no one. In work, in progressive farming methods, in products, Klamath county ranchers are among the foremost of the Northwest.

"I visited the Klamath booth, of course," said Glaisyer, "and I was gratified by the way Phil Sinnot is handling it. It is one of the most attractive booths at the fair, and displays Klamath county products in a way that convinces everyone that sees them that they ought to own a ranch here. There are vegetables, grains, and, of high quality, all displayed to great advantage."

"Sinnot is 'right there' all the time. If he has to leave the booth for an instant—to go to the bank to write a check, for instance, Mrs. Sinnot takes charge of the booth. Any time anyone wants to know anything about Klamath, either Sinnot or his wife are ready to tell them."

"The only thing they need down there is monster cabbages. One from Eastern Oregon weighs thirty-four pounds, and Sinnot would like to have one that could eclipse that. If any of the farmers have a titanic cabbage, they ought to bring it in."

"The fair came up to my expectations in every instance. I didn't feel the earthquake shock, in spite of the fact that it was a severe one. But I can say—Klamath looks good to me."

U. S. TO RELIEVE FOREIGN TRADE

SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY McADOO OUTLINES PLAN FOR AUXILIARY FLEET OF NAVY TO RELIEVE COMMERCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 13.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo outlined the administration's new naval marine bill. He gave to the United Press the plans for the navy reserve to be operated through a corporation wherein the government will be sole stockholder.

The chief factors of the plan is the necessity for an auxiliary fleet of the navy, for the immediate relief of American commerce. The hopelessness of private capital coming to the relief of American foreign trade leaves the government as the only agency of sufficient strength to give the quick assistance necessary.

Members of the Athletic Club seem to be an enthusiastic class, and the way some of the boys are showing up in basketball practice leads definite promise that a strong team will soon be developed. Challenges are now being issued to any outside club that wishes to aspire for basketball honors.

SAVES MONEY BY BUYING AT HOME

DAIRY RANCHERS ORDER SAME GOODS IN KLAMATH FALLS AND BY MAIL, AND MAIL ORDER PLAN COSTS MORE

Dick Brown, one of the successful farmers near Dalry, is a firm believer in the "buy at home" policy. Mr. Brown's practical experience has taught him that the man who insists on seeing the goods before he pays his money, is taking very little chances on making a poor bargain. A recent experience has convinced him more than ever that it pays to buy at home. A short time ago Mr. Brown got into a friendly argument with one of his neighbors, who had a strong leaning toward the mail-order catalogue. Mr. Brown made the assertion that he could buy the same goods at any of the stores in Klamath Falls just as cheaply as they could be sent away for.

As a result of the argument a little friendly bet was made, and judges were selected to decide the question by the two men. The one man selected his goods from a catalogue and ordered by mail, while Mr. Brown came to Klamath Falls last week and purchased his order from merchants here at their regular prices. The bill of goods consisted of a suit, shirt, underwear, hat, socks and shoes, for which Mr. Brown paid something over $22. When a comparison was made it was found that the other man had to pay 15 cents more for his bill of goods, besides paying several dollars parcel post charges.

The judges decided that the suit purchased by Mr. Brown was of better quality than that received by mail, and Mr. Brown bought a $4 pair of dress shoes, whereas the other man bought a pair of cheap, $2 shoes. Mr. Brown was in Monday and bought another pair of shoes with the five he won on the bet.

ALLIES TO START NEW OFFENSIVE

WILL ATTEMPT TO KEEP GERMANS SO BUSY ON WEST FRONT THAT THEY CAN'T HELP THE BULGARIANS

AMSTERDAM, Oct. 13.—A drive of the allies in Artois and Champagne, and perhaps elsewhere, is momentarily expected. It is understood that the allies plan to keep the Kaiser too busy in the western front to push the Balkan campaign.

The Serbians are being reinforced by allied troops. Buys New Buggy. Wm. Kinney was in the town the first part of Buyers' Week, and while here purchased a fine new buggy.

"PUT HOUSE IN ORDER," IS WORD FROM STRAHORN

KLAMATH COUNTY MUST HELP, SAYS LETTER

Acknowledges Receipt of Telegram From Commercial Club—Says That Opening of Indian Reservation and Drainage of Klamath Marsh Would Result in More Immediate Construction of Central Oregon Lines.

The following letter to the Klamath Commercial Club from Robert Strahorn, railroad builder, was received this morning:

"Gentlemen—I take pleasure in acknowledging receipt of your very kind telegram of the 9th inst., in regard to the Central Oregon railway project. I agree with you that there is no other field in the United States so deserving of development, and none which so appeals to any one desiring to be really helpful in such great constructive work. As I think you know, the enjoyment of accomplishing these things, and my all-absorbing spirit of helpfulness are my only incentives. However, in this connection, I cannot refrain from emphasizing my recent statement here that the people of your great country must take hold and help put their house in order. A lot of very important problems urgently need solution. I do not think I need to call your attention to the particular matters, but will be very glad to submit my views on this at an early date, should they be desired."

"While this may be a little premature, I cannot refrain from suggesting that your largest local problems which must be solved as a condition precedent to the success of our Klamath Falls line are the drainage of Klamath Marsh and the opening of the Klamath Indian reservation. These two items, to my mind, stand as an insurmountable barrier to the completion of the Klamath connection with the balance of our proposed Central Oregon railway system. Whether I proceed with the railway project or not, it seems to me you will find these problems always standing in your way when you attempt any of these larger ones. I would, therefore, suggest that you can best serve yourselves and this railway project by immediately and vigorously proceeding to secure the drainage of Klamath marsh and the opening of the reservation. Probably the drainage should come first, as the other is inevitable, only depending upon the effort bestowed upon it. With the drainage assured, enough development in the northern part of Klamath county will be in sight to make that portion of the railway which is to cross it reasonably attractive from a local traffic standpoint, also solving some construction problems, and doubtless considerable development would take place after it is drained, even in advance of the opening of the reservation."

"Earnestly hoping that together we may work out this great project so that Central Oregon and neighboring districts may come into their own, and anticipating great pleasure in the association with the people of Klamath Falls in this accomplishment, I remain, sincerely yours, 'ROBT. E. STRAHORN.' High Collars and Long Sleeves United Press Service WATERTOWN, S. NEW PLANS MADE FOR EXCURSION

ONE-WAY FARE TRIP LIKELY TO BE CALLED OFF, AND ANOTHER, AT HIGHER RATE, BUT GRANTING PRIVILEGES, MADE

The one-way-fare excursion to the exposition, in all probability, will not take place, but Klamath Day will. Another excursion, one in which 100 names will not be required, stop-over privileges granted, and, most important, to stay as long or as briefly as wished, is now proposed, at a rate of about $17 the round trip.

The difficulty in procuring the one-way-fare excursion was that the entire party had to go on the same train and return on the same train. This prevented many from going, as they could not remain away from their work at Klamath for two weeks. Moreover, $1,325 had to be deposited before the Southern Pacific company would produce the cars. But now the Commercial Club officials are on another track, realizing that a hundred people could not be influenced to pay their fares before Friday, knowing that they must come home on a certain date. In fact, many of the eighty-some who had signed backed down. They are telegraphing—and expect an answer momentarily—for a fare-and-a-third rate, which is about $17. The Southern Pacific gave this rate for a few weeks, but withdrew it.

Fred Fleet thinks that even more will take this opportunity that the $13 rate, as it gives stop-over privileges, and right to return by any train, any day. Although a hundred fares are not required, he thinks that many will probably want to go, and at least enough will participate to make Klamath Day feasible.

ELKS BIG DANCE TOMORROW NIGHT

COMMITTEE MAKING ELABORATE PREPARATIONS FOR FIRST SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON FOR ELKDOM

The committee in charge of the entertainment for members of the Elks Lodge have been busy this week, getting ready for the first big dance, to be held tomorrow night. A bunch of the boys worked until 2 o'clock this morning decorating the hall, which will present an attractive appearance for the opening affair of the season. The dance will be informal, and invitations have been extended to all members and visiting Elks and their families. Good music has been secured and refreshments are to be served by the committee, who expect a large attendance.

VICE CAMPAIGN BRINGS RESULTS

INMATES OF SEVERAL OF MOST NOTORIOUS HOUSES LEAVE TOWN THIS MORNING—PREQUENTERS WILL BE ARRESTED

The city council's instructions to the police to clean up the city's alleged tenderloin district has already brought results. The chief has not attempted a raid yet, but the inmates of several of the most notorious houses have already taken the train out of the city. "I'm glad they are not waiting for a raid," said the chief. "The sooner this class of women leave the city the better. I hope they all go before a raid is necessary. But if we do raid not only the women will be brought up, we'll arrest the men frequenters, too."

"RED SOX" WIN CHAMPIONSHIP IN WORLD'S SERIES

BOSTON TAKES THE FOURTH WRAIGHT GAME TODAY

Last Game of Series Is Full of Thrills and Excitement—Centerfield Fence Seems to Have Been Target for the Batters—Four Home Runs Made During Game—Hooper Carries Off Honors for Boston by Getting Two.

Official attendance, 20,306. Receipts, $52,029. Each club owners' share $25,414. Each club owners share in the series, $72,214.

United Press Service PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—By winning their fourth game today, the Boston American League team was declared the champion team of the world. Philadelphia won the first game of the series, and then Boston took four straight.

The game today was full of thrills and interest for the spectators. Four home runs were made, one by Luderus for Philadelphia, one by Lewis and two by Hooper of the Red Sox. After Gardner knocked out a three-bagger in the second, and was followed by a single by Barry, Mayer was replaced in the third by Rixey. He was able to hold the Red Sox batters down in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh, but in the last two innings they found him, and batted the ball all over the field.

United Press Service PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—The special train bearing the Boston and Philadelphia teams was five hours late, not arriving until 11:30. The weather was extremely hot, causing the crowd to become apathetic.

The batteries were: For Boston, Foster and Thomas; for Philadelphia, Mayer and Burns. Umpires: Klem at plate, O'Loughlin on base, Evans and Rigler on foul lines. Boston did not score in the first inning, although Hooper, the first man up, singled on the first ball pitched. Philadelphia scored two runs. Stock was hit by pitched ball and went to first; Bancroft and Paskert singled; Stock was caught at home plate on Cravath's roller; Luderus doubled, scoring Bancroft and Paskert.

In the second inning Foster tightened up, and Philadelphia failed to score, while Boston made one tally. Gardner tripled, Barry singled, scoring Gardner.

In the third no score for Philadelphia; Boston scored one, by Hooper smashing out a home run over the center field fence.

Boston failed to score in the fourth and Philadelphia duplicated their feat of the first inning, by making two runs. Luderus followed Hooper's example and knocked one over the fence making a home run. Nelhoff singled, Burns singled; Nelhoff scored when Gardner let Hooper's throw get away from him.

Rixey replaced Mayer on the mound for Philadelphia in the third, and in the sixth Boston put Cady behind the bat, in place of Thomas.

Neither side scored in the fifth, sixth or seventh. Each side got one hit in the fifth, and Philadelphia got one in the seventh. In the eighth Boston secured two runs, tying the score. Gainer singled to infield and Lewis followed with a home run over the center field fence, scoring himself and Gainer. The Phillies failed to score. In the ninth Boston scored one. Hooper made another home run by smashing the ball the second time over the center field fence. Philadelphia was unable to score in the last half.

CHIEF PREVENTS KNIFE QUARREL

INDIAN DRAWS KNIFE ON FILIPINO—TROUBLE STARTS OVER GAMBLING DEBT OF FIVE DOLLARS, IS REPORT

An inter-race conflict was narrowly averted today by the interference of Chief Baldwin of the police force. The trouble was between Ike Moss, an Indian from the reservation, and a Filipino of unpronounceable name.

Several times this morning did the argument become so strong between these two that spectators thought a battle was imminent. Time and time again they met each other and exchanged hot words, but each time the police kept them apart.

It seems that the Indian owes the Filipino a "debt of honor" for $5. The Indian wouldn't pay, and threatened to bring it up before the officials. The Filipino said that he was no Indian, but a Filipino, and he was going to have the five. "Keep away from me," he shouted.

But Moss didn't keep away, and the next time arguments grew to threats, and threats to a knife-drawing by Moss. Consequently Moss is in the lockup today on a serious charge.

RICH MEN FACE FINES AND PRISON

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Arraignment (preliminary to the government trial) of William Rockefeller, Theodore N. Vall, Robert M. Taft, Lewis Case Ledyard, James S. Hemingway, George F. Baker, Henry K. McHarg and other nationally known financiers and lawyers, charged with criminally conspiring as directors and counsel, to unlawfully control New England transportation through the New Haven railroad, began in the United States district court here today.

Probably never in any court room in this country has such a distinguished coterie of financial, social and commercial leaders gathered to defend themselves from criminal charges drawn in an indictment against them by their own government.

The defendants are capitalists and lawyers that a federal grand jury has declared probably guilty of plundering and wrecking the New Haven road. They will appear today before Judge William A. Hunt and admit or deny the charges. Pleas of not guilty and a long drawn trial are expected. Prison terms and heavy fines for Rockefeller, Vall and Baker and their associates constitute the government's punishment if the defendants are proved guilty.

The government will attempt to show that they as directors and counsel for directors of the New Haven, violated the conspiracy clause of the Sherman anti-trust law by conspiring to pyramid the road's finances and, through buying up the Boston & Maine and other rail lines, gained unlawful control of New England transportation.

Disclosures at the time the road's affairs were investigated showed that millions of dollars of small investors' money were banded about and juggled into such a financial tangle that it took expert investigators many months to get at the bottom of the affair. Widows, orphans, small landholders and other small investors, particularly in New England, who had sunk all their life savings in New Haven stock, which they had grown to consider an almost infallible financial institution, found themselves, when the investigation finally concluded, either poor, paupers or deep in debt.

Honorees in the City. Jonah Sparks and Robert Lytle are among the Bonanza people on the city streets today. Glendale Visitor Here. W. E. Spitzer is here on a business trip from Glendale.
