

MT LAKE LOCATIONS

Many of the ranchers are having trouble with cattle blout. There have been a number die in the valley.

Threshing is over with for the season, and much hauling is being done. Mr. Hill has been attending the fair at San Francisco. Mrs. Hill expects to go later, and will visit her mother at Pasadena.

Potato digging will soon begin. Reports say there are not as many raised as there were the last two years.

The Mt. Lake school has purchased some pictures and some baseball supplies for the children, with money earned at their entertainment last year.

L. A. West received 300 sheep several days ago, which he will pasture in the neighborhood and feed for market this fall.

Mr. McLellan was a town visitor Tuesday.

George Grizzle and O. D. Craven were Mt. Lake visitors Monday.

The Ladies Aid will meet in special session on Wednesday, October 20th, at the church. There is extra work to be done, and as many of the ladies as possible are requested to attend. It will be an all day session and a picnic dinner.

Forget your troubles and come to the opera house Friday evening, October 15th. Admission free. A good time assured. Ladies of the Sacred Heart church. 12

MEDFORD HIGH SCHOOL MEETS KLAMATH BOYS IN FOOTBALL AT MODOC PARK SATURDAY. TEAMS EVENLY MATCHED

Friday the Medford High School football team comes to Klamath Falls loaded for bear. Saturday they play the Klamath High School at Modoc Park in the first big game of the year. The Medford crew will come over in automobiles, accompanied by many rooters. The team that the Klamath boys will have to play will be the hardest team they will meet this season, according to dopists. The players will outweigh the Klamath boys, but Motschenbacher hopes that his team will overcome that disadvantage with added speed.

The Medford team is coached by Klam this year, and it is expected they will have some new and brilliant plays. Just what the Klamath boys have got up their sleeves in the shape of trick plays no one except the team and the coach knows.

Phillies Sure to Lose Inspires Poets Muse

By BERTON BRALEY (Written for the United Press)

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—The daring baseball prophet is often given Tophet if his prophecy should happen to be wrong, and the other prophets con his and the fans cry "out upon him," and he's booted and he's booted by the throng; but in spite of all those chances of unpleasant circumstances, if I fall to guess the way the wheel will spin, and in spite of fortune's fickle, I will bravely bet a nickel that this Boston aggregation's going to win.

There are darned few pitchers grander than this Grover Alexander, who will doubtless face the Boston bunch today; but although the mighty Grover sure knows how to burn 'em over, he's in need of SOME assistance in the fray. Most batters cannot find him, still he needs SOME hits behind him, and the Phillies are not hitting, up to date; while that bunch of Boston players is composed of pitchers-slayers, who dislike to let a twister pass the plate.

Furthermore I will adventure in the face of certain censure, to assert that Boston's fielding is the best. Seems to me they have more vigor and are quicker on the trigger, with a bit more pep and ginger, vim and zest.

So, although I may later be proved a bum prognosticator (there are stranger things than that have come to pass); for the present the opinion of this humble rhyming minion is that Boston's aggregation has the class.

Seek to Break Debt Bondage
United Press Service
MINOT, N. D., Oct. 13.—To lead North Dakota out of the bondage of mortgaged debt, the Association of Rural Credits today gave schools of instruction throughout the state, teaching farmers how to borrow money, buy raw material at reasonable prices and sell their product at good retail prices. The object of the association, in which thousands of farmers are interested, is to break up the alleged combination of grain speculators and bankers. They say 75 per cent of the farms of North Dakota are mortgaged, and less than one per cent of the boys of North Dakota ever reach the high school.

CHOOSE OFFICERS AMONG STUDENTS

HIGH SCHOOL ELECTIONS ATTRACT MUCH INTEREST—MANY COUPS ACCOMPLISHED—COMPETITION WARM

The high school held nominations for officers of the student body yesterday, and elections will occur this afternoon. The students are taking an active interest in the elections, and the competition is almost as hot as in a political election.

The fact that such elections do rouse such interest is one of the reasons why educators all over the state favor them. They say that the students receive practical lessons in politics and political science, that they could not get otherwise.

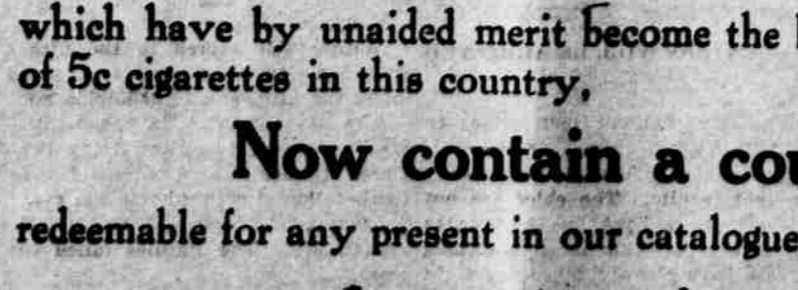

According to students, many coups were carried out this year to swing the elections. It is said that the seniors managed to have many juniors nominated for the offices, so that the votes would be split, allowing the seniors to be more sure of election.

The candidates for the presidency of the student body are Door, a senior, and Melhase, a junior. For vice president, Case, a senior, and Houston, a junior. For secretary, Ruth Ball is the senior candidate, and Marjorie Delsell and Marie Griffith, the juniors. For treasurer, Claudia Spink and Clara Calkins are both juniors, and Hazel Fry is the senior candidate.

Joe Avery and L. Motschenbacher, both seniors, are running for the student managership. John Houston, junior, and Carl Newberry, sophomore, are candidates for yell leader.
