NO ONE BLAMED FOR FATALITY

CORONER'S JURY UNABLE TO FIX RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEATH OF STEPHEN H. FREEMAN, VICTIM OF SUNDAY'S ACCIDENT

The coroner's jury of the inquest held yesterday afternoon over the body of Stephen H. Freeman, who died Monday morning from injuries received in a motorcycle-automobile collision, were unable to fix the blame for the tragedy. Evidence showed that both parties were on the right side of the road.

Part of the report of the jury was as follows:

"That the deceased came to his death at the Blackburn hospital in Klamath Falls, Oregon, on the 18th day of October, 1915;

"That his death was caused by a fracture of the skull, due to an accidental collision with an automobile while riding on the rear seat of a motorcycle, driven by J. Herwi, the automobile being driven by Mrs. McDonald. That the accident occurred at the corner of Sixth and Klamath streets, in the city of Klamath Falls, Oregon, at about 5 p. m., on the 17th day of October, 1915.

"That the accident was an unfortunate one, and that the jury is unable to fix any blame on any party or parties connected therewith, according to the evidence.

"We, the jury, wish to recommend that all vehicles observe more caution in approaching and turning corners in the streets of Klamath Falls."

FINANCIERS AID STRAHORN PLANS

ORGANIZATION OF PORTLAND RAILWAY COMMITTEE OF MONKEY HEADS OCCURS SATURDAY. STRAHORN AS PRESIDENT

PORTLAND, Oct. 19.—Organization of the Portland railway committee, to assist Robert F. Strahorn in analyzing the plans and formulating a financial basis for development of Central Oregon by the Oregon, California & Eastern Railway company, was perfected Saturday by the selection of these financiers and business men:

A. L. Mills, president First National bank.

J. C. Ainsworth, president United States National bank.

W. M. Ladd, president Ladd & Titton bank.

Nathan Strauss, manager Fleischner-Mayer company.

Franklin T. Griffith, president Portland Railway, Light and Power company.

C. C. Colt, president Union Meat company and president Portland Chamber of Commerce.

These men will collaborate with Mr. Strahorn in formulating a supplementary report to the Portland business men who signed a letter to the railroad builder, asking what great constructive work Portland can undertake during 1916. The report will be made at a second meeting of these men, to be called when engineers of the O. C. & E. have finished surveys and estimates of cost.

With the report it is probable that the committee will present recommendations and suggestions for the financing of the railroad project.

KLAMATH MOVIES DRAW BIG CROWD

CHIEF STATICIAN OF RECLAMATION SERVICE USES PICTURES IN ADDRESSES IN PALACE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The Commercial Club is in receipt of a letter from C. W. Blanchard, chief statistician of the reclamation service, who is at present doing government work in the Palace of Liberal Arts at the exposition, lauding the Klamath movies. Blanchard is using the pictures in connection with his own work, and every day shows them to large crowds.

Last Sunday he talked for an hour to one of the largest audiences ever assembled for a government address at the fair on Klamath county. He used the Klamath movies in connection with the talk, which, of course, means an unestimable amount of advertising for this section. Mr. Blanchard said also that he was having more pictures taken of Crater Lake to use in his addresses.

Mexico's Next President and His Greatest Enemy

poor and down-trodden of his country, and while for many years hunted as a bandit, with a price upon his head, many families of the poor class can do tell stories of his many acts of assistance to that class.

Villa's sister was the victim of the Jeff politico of his native town. Villa, then 17 years old, with the assistance of several friends, kidnaped the official, took him to the mountains, and there compelled him to go through a marriage ceremony, performed by a priest also kidnaped for the occasion. After the ceremony the Jeff politico was killed, and from that time Villa was a fugitive from justice until the overthrow of Diaz, when he came to the Madero regime.

TRAIN WRECKED BY MEX BANDITS; TWO KNOWN DEAD

ENTER TRAIN CRYING "DEATH TO GRINGOES"

"Kill the Soldiers," Slogan of Robbers Under De la Rosa, Noted Mexican. Three Soldiers Wounded—Bandits Burn Bridge, Delaying Pursuit of 500 Soldiers and Civilians—Sixty Mexicans in Robber Band.

United Press Service
BROWNSVILLE, Oct. 19.—Five hundred soldiers and civilians are trailing a band of sixty Mexican bandits, who wrecked a train near here last night, killing several Mexicans. The bandits burned a three hundred foot bridge between the wreck and Brownsville to delay the pursuit. They also cut telephone and telegraph wires.

Lus de la Rosa, a noted Mexican of Matamoros, is reported to be the leader of the bandits. The train was wrecked by removing spikes and bolts from the rails.

Before the passengers recovered from the shock of the wreck, five Mexicans entered the first car, which remained on the track, and began shooting, and crying "Death to the Gringos," "Kill the soldiers."

Passengers were ordered to hand over their valuables. Those resisting were clubbed and shot. They forced several to remove their shoes and all outer clothing.

Corporal McBee, an American soldier, and Engineer Kendall were killed and two American soldiers were wounded.

PAGEANT TO SHOW RISE OF INDUSTRY

BUILDING INDUSTRY FROM CAVE MAN TO PRESENT DAY TO BE PRESENTED AT CONVENTION AT EXPOSITION

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 19.—The evolution of the building industry from the days of the cave man to the present era of steel and concrete will be presented in a great pageant as the closing feature of "American Builders' Week," which began here Monday.

Thousands of builders and contractors from all states of the Union are assembled here for the convention. The celebration of builders' week is under the auspices of the entire building industry of San Francisco, aided by the building trades and similar organizations in practically every large city in the United States.

Wedding Bells.

Edwin J. Bloomquist and Miss Alma Sutherland were united in marriage at 9 o'clock Sunday by Rev. Richards. Mr. Bloomquist is employed at the Pelican Bay Mill. After they return from a honeymoon trip at the exposition they will live on Jefferson street.

Opens Business Here.

Fred B. Hurd, a recent arrival from Southern California, who has been in search of a live town for a business location, believes Klamath Falls is the best business city in the Northwest, and with this impression he will open a jewelry and watchmaker's store at 305 Main street. Mr. Hurd is now busy arranging his store.

Reception for Catholic Priest.

A reception will be held this evening at the Church of the Sacred Heart in honor of Rev. Father Geleson, Provincial of the Jesuit Order, who is visiting Father McMillan. Father Geleson has recently returned to the United States from Rome.

WINDOWS TO BE GAILY TRIMMED

DISPLAY WINDOWS OF STORES WILL BE GRAND SIGHT DURING DRESS-UP WEEK—TO COMPETE FOR PRIZES

Maybe a lot of people will get their share of Dress-Up Week through window shopping, but if they do they will get something worth while. The windows of the stores will be magnificently dressed, and will be devoted to practical seasonal suggestions as well as those of fashion's decree.

Dress-Up Week is not to be observed just by the clothing, drygoods and shoe stores, but every line of retail business is to participate. The idea is to make the town just as attractive as possible.

Complete plans for the observance of Dress-Up Week are to be arranged at the meeting of the Business Men's Association, to be held Wednesday night. Blue ribbon premiums are to be offered for the best dressed windows in all lines of business, including stores handling groceries, hardware, furniture, jewelry, drugs, confectionery, as well as for the special windows of the big department and clothing stores.

Dress-Up Week is not to boost the sale of "finery," but to remind the purchaser of the ordinary classes of goods that it is time to lay in the time for the season. It is also the time for the citizens to put on a smile, keep clean, and wear as good clothing as circumstances will permit.

The man who thinks he is down and out is only down and out because he thinks so. Forget your grouches, and look cheerful, and it won't be long before you will feel that way.

WARRING SHIPS FLY U. S. FLAG

HAVE LONG-ESTABLISHED RIGHT TO FLY FLAGS OF NEUTRAL NATIONS FOR RUSE IN ATTACK OR FLIGHT

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 19.—Officials indicated that no action will be taken regarding the sinking of the steamer Nicossiam. The report that British patrolers used the American flag offered only an international question.

The right of warships to use the flag of neutral nations as a ruse, whether attacking or in flight, has been recognized for over a hundred years.

Attends Forest Week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kimball left yesterday for San Francisco. Mr. Kimball, who is local representative of the Weyerhaeuser company, will attend the meetings of the lumbermen and foresters during Forest Week at the fair, after which he and Mrs. Kimball will probably take in the San Diego exposition.

BRITISH CABINET WILL FALL SOON IS LONDON BELIEF

"CAN CABINET LAST?" IS UNIVERSAL QUESTION

Resignation of Sir Edward Carson Emphasizes Difference Among Cabinet Members as the Greatest Issue of War—London Globe Says Body Must Take Decided Stand as the Rescue of Serbia.

United Press Service
LONDON, Oct. 19.—"Can the Asquith cabinet last?" is the question all England is asking. That there are differences over many of the war's gravest problems among the cabinet members has long been known. The resignation of Sir Edward Carson emphasizes them so sharply that many politicians expect the cabinet to fall.

"We should regret to see the government come down, but it must fall unless it shows strength and decision over such grave matters as the Gallipoli expedition, the rescue of the Serbians, the problems of recruiting and waste, and the Zeppelin attacks," said the London Globe.

United Press Service
LONDON, Oct. 19.—The cabinet met, presumably to consider war problems and Carson's resignation. Asquith is ill, and is resting for a few days.

SCHOOL EXPERT TO AID KLAMATH

M. S. PITMAN, RURAL SCHOOL EXPERT, TO BE HERE DECEMBER 6TH FOR WEEK'S STAY—WILL HOLD TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

M. S. Pitman, expert of rural schools at Monmouth Normal school, will be at Klamath county from December 6th to 13th, according to Fred Peterson, county school superintendent. While here he will make an investigation of schools and hold institute.

Mr. Pitman is one of the best known school experts in the West. It is expected that the institute held under his charge will be the source of much aid to Klamath county teachers, both in suggesting features and improving methods. He will visit the schools, also, thus aiding the teachers personally.

MORE KLAMATH MOVIES PLANNED

HENLINE, THE PHOTO MAN, WILL ADD MOTION PICTURE CAMERA TO EQUIPMENT FOR LOCAL EXHIBITION

Archie Henline, the hustling photographer, who was the first to introduce day and night photography in this city, is now located in his new studio at 327 Main street. Henline, by investing in the latest electrical equipment for his photo work, has made rapid and wonderful success in his line of business, and is still branching out.

His latest move is the placing an order for a late-fashioned motion picture camera, and has entered into a contract with J. V. Henline to exhibit at his theaters from this fall all the interesting motion pictures found in and around Klamath Falls.
