What the War Moves Mean

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The Italians are in the midst of a major offensive which does not yet promise important successes. It is divided into mountain fighting and a renewal of the struggle to cross the Isonzo toward Trieste. This place is the most important objective. Unofficially it is reported Gorizia has fallen, but it is inconceivable that Italy would not announce it immediately if it were true. The Austrian entrenchments along the Isonzo are proving as capable as the Germans' along the western front. Mountain fighting is only slightly more successful. The most important victory is the capture of Prognas, but this only a mile inside of Austria. There is no evidence that the Austro-Hungarians are withdrawing from other fronts to strengthen the Italian defenses.

AMERICANS CAN NOT LEAVE WAR

MUST FIGHT TO DEATH OR END OF CONFLICT—MANY AMERICANS HAVE THEIR FILL OF WARFARE AND WOULD LEAVE

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
LONDON, Oct. 27.—Adult Americans whose adventurous spirits tempted them to enlist in European belligerent armies must remain soldiers until they are killed or until the war is ended.

This is the situation confronting scores of Uncle Sam's citizens who have their fill of war, and want to get out. Uncle Sam cannot help them, though many have requested his mediation. The British war office will not release the Americans it has enlisted.

The American embassy in London, which has been successful in having between fifty and sixty American minors released from British military service, could not extend this service to the adults. In answer to many appeals from men who joined the Canadians, and who have survived hard fighting, the embassy passed the question to the state department at Washington. The department's answer quoted the following order of 1201, which is still in force: "The department of state, in an instruction to the United States consul at Lourenco Marques, during the Boer war, held that an American citizen who willfully takes up arms in the service of a foreign state, must bear the consequences of his act, and cannot expect, while he serves under a foreign banner, to be protected by this government."

Previous to receipt of this instruction, inquiry by the embassy at the British war office elicited the statement that the British government was unwilling to release American adults who have taken the king's oath. So American fighters must keep on fighting until death or peace musters them out.

Panama Canal Traffic Absolutely Cut Off by Slides in Gaillard Cut

Narrow channel which must be dug out every day to permit rowboat passage. This photograph shows the stupendous work ahead before the Panama canal can again be opened to navigation. Thousands of tons of earth and loose rock slid down from Gold Hill at the left and completely blocked the canal, which was 300 feet wide at this side of the cut. The length of the closed passage is 1,500 feet. When this is opened to a width of 100 feet get through. This fills every day, navigation will be resumed.

LID IS DOWN ON NAUGHTY SHOWS AT THE EXPOSITION

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 27.—The "slip" has been extracted from the Zone. No longer do the "Streets of Cairo" team with handsome harem girls (direct from the East Side of New York); no more do the "muscle dancers" shock the "small town" folks in the "Street of All Nations"; and likewise the "second shows" in the Model's Dream and the "Girl in Blue" have been deleted by the censor. The rattle of chips, the click of dice and the whirring of roulette wheels in the "49 camp" are stilled. The barkers along the Zone have been ordered to run some of their "spiel" through the muffer, and consequently the Zone nowadays is fairly serene. Only a month or so ago all three shows ran full blast. Then the directors of the exposition began to hear from the folks who had risked at least one eye to gaze at the naughty sights in some of the shows. These persons didn't think the shows were a bit nice. Particularly they objected to the manner of the '49 camp. This institution, whose slogan was "the days of old, the days of gold, the days of '49," ran a regular Monte Carlo for a time. It is said. It was closed down, only to re-open in a somewhat quieter fashion, using "scrip" instead of regular money. For a while the camp was largely patronized. Every night fashionably gowned women, heavily jeweled, might be seen taking a fling at faro bank, the roulette wheel or even shaking dice. These attractions were shut because it was held they were in violation of the state anti-gambling law. With the game gone, business slumped; the cafe closed, its Indians took up their tents and silently stole away, while the "cowboy" musicians sought other fields. The next move in the crusade to take the slip out of the Zone was aimed at some of the shows. They were "live" shows. "Now, after this performance, we will have a second show, where you will see the dancers as you like to see them—just a bit more 'pep' and 'spice,'" barked one spieker, intimating that the dancers would be in costumes of smiles and beads.

ART TREASURES HID FROM BOMBS

ENGLAND BUILDS VAULTS IN WHICH TO DEPOSIT MUSEUM TREASURES SAFE FROM THE ZEPPELINS

United Press Service
LONDON, Oct. 27.—Elaborate precautions against damage by Zeppelins to priceless treasures in the British museum have been taken. The Elgin room, containing the great Elgin marbles, is closed to the public, and the pedimental sculptures of the Parthenon have been removed to a strong room, specially constructed, in the basement. The Parthenon frieze, affixed to the halls, has been elaborately protected with sand bags.

ENGLAND GAINS ON GOLD SHIPPED

SAVES $30,000 ON GOLD CONSIGNMENTS TO NEW YORK ON ACCOUNT OF U. S. METHOD OF CALCULATION

United Press Service
LONDON, Oct. 27.—The Bank of England's system of valuing gold coin by weight, as against the United States treasury's face value computation, has saved the former $30,000 on only two shipments to America. The first shipment on reaching New York was counted coin for coin, and found to contain $10,000 too much. The last consignment of $19,000,000 was $30,000 heavy. These amounts were turned over to the financial agents of Great Britain in New York, and will be properly applied on future shipments.

The American system of computing gold coins is for face value, it was pointed out here, unless more than one half of one per cent has worn away.

PLAN BIG NAVY YARD FOR WEST

BREMERTON, WASHINGTON, TO BE GREATEST PACIFIC COAST NAVY YARD, ACCORDING TO SECRETARY DANIELS

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 26.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today indicated that the next big development of Pacific Coast navy yards would be at Bremerton, Wash.

"It is one of the finest, if not the finest on the west coast," said Secretary Daniels. "It is an all around admirable yard, and especially capable of development. While we do not plan any extensive immediate enlargement or activities at the Pacific Coast yard, when the fleet on the west coast is enlarged, and the Panama canal made permanently available, I expect to have much work done at the Bremerton yard."

Unlike Mare Island navy yard, the naval head said the Bremerton yard has unusual facilities for development because of deep water. "The trouble at the Mare Island yard," he said, "is the limited dockage. This is not true at Bremerton, which has ample room for expansion, with deep water available."

Children That Shouldn't Be Born
United Press Service
SALEM, Oct. 27.—Patriotism ran high today at the session of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, when songs of praise of the nation were sung by delegates and visitors. A striking feature of the session was to be an address by President Sarah A. Evans, in which she would enumerate the classes of children that should never be born.

LINCOLN RELICS TO BE AUCTIONED

WILL BE SOLD UNDER HAMMER AT COAST, GUN AND OTHER REMAINS OF THE GREAT MARSHAL PATRIOT

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—The cost he wore when shot, his finger ring, rifle, inkstand, watchkey and other intimate personal relics owned and used by Abraham Lincoln, will be sold "under the hammer" at the Anderson galleries today. Minor sales already have been made.

Among these objects are the Lincoln-Brooker rifle, bought in common by Lincoln and Henry Brooker for $15, and used by them in their shooting trips until 1830; a lock of Lincoln's hair, and a cane and umbrella handles owned by the great emancipator.

These things are a part of the collection of Lincolniana formed by John E. Burton of Milwaukee, who has been assembling them for fifty years. Among the books and manuscripts to be sold are nearly all the biographies of Lincoln, including several in foreign languages, many portraits, the only known copy of the pamphlet entitled "Reasons Against the Renomination of Abraham Lincoln"; the only copy ever offered at auction of "The Bloody Justo"; Lincoln's last order for a pardon, two leaves from Lincoln's sum book of about 1824, with his autograph, and a series of seven documents signed by Lincoln which reveal four professional associations "about which nothing has been generally known."
