What the War Moves Mean

By J. W. T. MASON
(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The union of the Germans and Bulgarians in the northeastern corner of Serbia concerns Great Britain more than it does Serbia. The junction was effected, not to threaten Serbia, but to establish a quick route for supplying ammunition to Germany's impoverished ally, Turkey.

These munitions, however, must move over thirty miles of mountain highways in Serbia, and 100 miles of Bulgarian roads before they reach the Orient railway.

Such a move can only be countered by a rapid concentration of the allies either in Bulgaria or Turkey. And the Germans will be able to equip the idle Turks with needed supplies unless the allies cut their communications.

Hence the challenge to the allies is serious. Its effect on Greece and Roumania cannot be a source of satisfaction to the allies.

FORTY ARRESTED SMUGGLING RING

CHARGE IS SMUGGLING IN 80 CHINESE—THINK LINER OFFICERS CONSPIRED WITH IMMIGRATION EMPLOYEES

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—District Attorney Preston has issued forty warrants for the arrest of some of the officers and members of the crew of the liner Mongolia as the result of the alleged conspiracy to smuggle 86 Chinese into the United States. The evidence has been submitted to the grand jury.

More arrests are possible before Commissioner General Caminetti arrives Tuesday from Washington. The smuggling ring is considered to be a gigantic and well-organized one made up of boat officials and employees in the immigration offices. It is thought that many Chinese have already been smuggled in through their efforts.

NORTHWEST IS HOLDING WHEAT

FARMERS OF NORTHWEST HOLDING GRAIN FOR BETTER PRICE.
WANT $1.25 PER BUSHEL—THE MARKET IS SHY

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 1.—Less than one per cent of the gigantic grain crop of the Northwest has reached the market. Four million bushels less grain has been marketed thus far this year than at the same time last year.
Lumber dealers report an unparalleled demand for cheaper lumber, and this, coupled with low grain receipts, grain gamblers say, means that the farmers of the Northwest are holding their grain. That the farmer is prepared to hold his grain until he gets $1.25 a bushel for it is a statement often heard.

Women Window Washers in Berlin

Paris is not the only capital where women have taken to the work of men on account of the war. Here is proof that Berlin is as hard put for laborers as France. This photograph shows two women window washers dressed in male attire on their way to work. Being something of a novelty in Berlin, they attracted the attention of a crowd.

Woman Official Gives Rules for Raising Girls

United Press Service
SACRAMENTO, Nov. 1.—Mrs. Edwary Hyatt, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, who recently caused some excitement by declaring "no one could tell her how her daughter should dress when attending high school," has written six rules on raising girls. Here they are:

- First—Above all things encourage a child to tell the truth. When a child does something wrong and confesses it, spanking gives birth to the thought of lying, as a shield against future punishment.
- Second—Teach a girl to dress with- in her means. Let her know the financial circumstances of her family, and the right kind of a girl will not try to equal the rich girl in dress, neither will she envy her, for frankness by her parents will create in her a family pride.
- Third—Let the girl take part in household duties, so she will not believe herself above such things.
- Fourth—Make the house so attractive and agreeable that she will not have to go visiting to find social amusement.
- Fifth—Encourage the young girl to develop her tastes for attractive dresses—ones that will make her appearance pleasing. Such can be accomplished on a very meager means. Let the young high school girl try different ways to dress her hair attractively.
- Sixth—Teach the girl to consult her mother regarding her clothes. The mother's taste is usually the best. She knows better than any outsider how her girl should dress.

Accurately fitted glasses are only possible when the sight has been scientifically tested. We have every facility for doing this, and exercise the greatest care, so that you may receive the utmost benefit from wearing glasses.

TO MEET WITH LATIN-AMERICANS

WOMEN WANT CLOSER CO-OPERATION WITH WOMEN OF LATIN-AMERICA—BAN ON STARING AND BRISTLING

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Women of every race and creed; women of every walk of life; suffragists and anti; neutrals and belligerents, unfurled here today the banner of mutual tolerance.

Under the auspices of the International Congress of Women, these delegates from almost every land on the globe opened their six day convention under an iron-clad agreement not to talk suffragist, peace or religion. There was, however, plenty of talk. The women will try to establish more of an entente cordiale between the women of North and South America.

"We are going to see if we cannot overcome prejudice between the Latin American and the Anglo-Saxon American," explained Mrs. F. H. Colburn, who is in charge. "We stare and bristle at each other like quills on a porcupine. The Latin American woman smokes, but does not go on the street without a chaperone. The Anglo American woman (that is, the most of her) does not smoke, but she goes and comes where she pleases. Each hold their social customs against the other."

NEW CABINET TO CONTINUE WARS

WILL FIGHT ON TO DEFEAT GERMAN AND CRUSH GERMAN MILITARISM, ACCORDING TO NEW PREMIER

United Press Service

PARIS, Nov. 1.—Briand, the new French premier, in an interview to the United Press, said that the new cabinet won't deviate from the policy of France to win the war and crush German militarism.

"We desire the world to understand that the change in ministers implies no change in policy," said Briand.

This declaration, combined with that made by Lloyd George last week, seems to indicate the reports that the allies will soon sue for peace to be without foundation. The English minister said that England will not stop fighting until Belgium was free, English independence guaranteed and German militarism crushed.

Mock Trial in Jail Is Salvation to Burglar

United Press Service

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 1.—Julio Garcia, 19, of this city, is out on probation instead of fighting a charge of burglary. And the reason he is out, starting to keep a promise to behave a year, is that he was adjudged guilty by a jury of alleged felons in the San Diego county jail. He had a regular trial in the "felony tank," with twelve alleged felons acting as jurors, with another alleged felon sitting as judge and with others acting as attorney and prosecutor.

Garcia had made a plea of not guilty at his preliminary examination. When he entered the jail his fellow prisoners suggested that a mock trial should be held to see whether he should change his plea. He agreed, and the trial was held, the case being based on the transcript of the proceedings at Garcia's preliminary examination. There was no joking, everything being carried out with solemnity and judicial exactness. The jury soon declared Garcia guilty.

and, without waiting to consult his attorney, he went before Judge Lewis and changed his plea.

Then came a plea for probation. Garcia's father and friends said he had been a good boy, and would behave if he had a good chance to turn over the leaf. And the judge granted him the chance.
