TORPEDO SENT HESPERIAN DOWN

TORPEDOED, NOT MINED, AS GERMAN CLAIMED—MAY BE BASIS FOR NEW REPRESENTATIONS TO BERLIN

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 1.—The navy department has reported to Secretary Lansing that the Allan liner Hesperian was torpedoed, not sunk by a mine, as Germany contended. This fact may be the basis of new representations to Berlin.

Lansing indicated, however, that the Hesperian case will not re-open the submarine question. Damages will be asked for the American merchandise aboard the Hesperian.

EXPECT 300,000 ON 'FRISCO DAY

AMUSEMENTS PLANNED FOR EVERY HOUR—SHAM BATTLE AND HORSE RACES WILL BE FEATURES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Amusements of every character, beginning in early morning and lasting until early next morning, will mark "San Francisco Day" at the Panama Pacific exposition as one of the biggest days in the history of the fair. An attendance of 300,000 persons has been set as the goal, and indications today point toward a close approach to that figure.

A sham battle between United States soldiers and sailors, harness races for $20,000 prizes, band concerts, dancing, folk dancing, and a hundred or so other events will occupy every minute of the day and night.

San Francisco is planning to make its day at the fair a vast holiday, and many, in fact, most, of the mercantile establishments of the city will declare the day a holiday, or half holiday, at the least. The Southern Pacific has taken out 10,000 tickets, which it distributed throughout the state.

Every Friday Will Be Sunday
United Press Service
MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 1.—E. A. Mussweller will observe Sunday on Friday after today. He wishes to comply with the state law effective today, requiring all delicatessen stores to close on Sunday. The law provides that where a man observes some other day than Sunday as his Sabbath, he may work on Sunday.

"I decided on Friday as a day of rest because little meat is sold on that day," said Mussweller.

Cavalry Escorts Governor in Oregon Day Ceremony

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—When Governor Withycombe was escorted to the fair grounds by two troops of United States cavalry, amid the inspiring, patriotic music of a band, the celebration of Oregon Participation Day at the Panama-Pacific exposition was begun with an enthusiasm remarkable for its intensity.

Oregon's chief executive was roundly cheered as the parade he headed made its way toward the administration building, and a salute fired in his honor boomed noisily.

Governor Withycombe was accompanied by his staff. At the administration building a luncheon was given in his honor by President Moore and the directors of the exposition.

Among those speaking at the Oregon building were Governor Johnson of California, Mayor Rolph of San Francisco and Governor Withycombe.

President Moore, who also delivered an address, paid high tribute to Oregon for the magnificent exhibit at the exposition, and the huge and picturesque log structure that housed it.

The official ceremonies were completed with the planting of an Oregon pine tree on the grounds by Governor Withycombe.

Open house prevailed at the Oregon building all day, with apples, loganberry juice, cider, prunes and cheese for all visitors.
