

SOCIETY

A very delightful Halloween dance was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Yancy at Shippington, by Misses Francis Waldron and Grace Brown. The room was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and dainty refreshments were served at a late hour to about fifty guests.

The Shippington Sewing Club met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. B. E. Yancy. Present were Mrs. W. B. Harland, Mrs. H. Lockwood, Mrs. E. Hill, Mrs. Tom Pheasiger, Mrs. E. Putman, Mrs. E. H. Yancy, Mrs. Geo. Nehrbam, Mrs. E. V. Finnell, Mrs. O. Elshberger, Miss Grace Brown, Miss Francis Waldron. The afternoon was delightfully spent in needlework. Light refreshments were served by the hostess.

The wedding anniversary of Mrs. F. M. Garich and the birthday of Miss Marie Moore taking place coincidentally, profured the occasion for an unusually jolly time at the home of Mrs. Garich on Jefferson street. Several choice musical selections were rendered by Miss Marie Moore, and a vocal selection was tendered by Mr. John Hubbard. Concluding everyone partook of a delightful spread. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Cook, Leo H. Osberg, John Hubbard, Miss Vida Thornberg, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buck-

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alexander was the scene of a very pretty Halloween party, given by the Mills Addition Frisella Club, on Saturday evening, October 30th. The house was tastefully decorated with black cats, witches, goblins, and all of the weird things that go to make up such a party. An imposing goblin guarded the entrance to the house, while a typical old witch presided over the ghosts, who did a war-time dance around a large fire, carrying gleaming torches, which lighted up the grounds. A feature of the evening's entertainment that created considerable merriment was a chase on the lawn after three fortune telling ghosts. After games, bobbing for apples, fortune telling and other stunts, the guests were invited to partake of a delightful lunch. The tables were beautifully decorated with Jack o' Lanterns, autumn leaves, cats, witches, etc., and all voted the lunch and the party one of the best ever given in Mills Addition. Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Alexander, Miss Dorothy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Applegate, Miss Wanda Kirkendall, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Kirkendall, Miss Lillie Markwardt, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Miller, Ed Owens, Mr. and Mrs. J. Potter, Mr. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, Geo. Why Not?

You want your house to look nice, don't you? especially cozy this winter, and any room is quite incomplete without a plant or two. Now, the reason why your neighbors' plants look better than yours is because they use a nice jardiniere or fern dish to set them off.

Now, there is no two ways about it, you are going to have one of those unusual fern dishes, and perhaps an odd patterned jardiniere or two, and you are going to buy it where they know how to get real values in everything they sell.

Step in tomorrow, and after you look at the assortment of plant receptacles, we are going to surprise you with the price.

We won't coax you to buy.
