

Why These Arctics Wear Longer

Top Notch Arctics won't give out at the heel first like most arctics do. They have the famous Cincher Cushion heel which lasts as long as the sole and doubles the life of the arctic.

This Redfore 4-buckle arctic has the famous non-slip sole which takes a "stranglehold" on slippery surfaces. It is made of the best quality red rubber.

Come in and let us fit you out for the stormy weather with these arctics which will wear better than any you ever had.

Top notch Rubbers---every pair guaranteed to give satisfactory wear---or replaced with new ones. Styles you won't find elsewhere; prices as cheap as the ordinary kind.

Duxbak, waterproof Mackinaws---we are exclusive agents for "Duxbak" waterproof Mackinaws---the kind that turn the water, warm, stylish and waterproof---some snappy exclusive patterns.

Overcoats from the House of Kuppenheimer---America's premier Overcoat house. We have just the Coat you want at the price you want to pay---new style in Balmacaans and belted backs.

SAVED!

Along about noon, a man of very good appearance came into the Big Store to see something about furniture. We used up about two hours answering questions and showing him everything we had in the furniture line. We talked until we were so hungry we couldn't spit. He seemed to have lots of nerve, and he didn't show any signs of getting tired. Finally he decided to buy an all-wood chair for $1.50. He had a baby's rattle in the hardware department and a small frying pan for two dollars. Yes, he found a can opener, one that suited him pretty well, and he took that along at 5c. He had a short bit and a two-bit piece left that we wanted awful bad, but he went down to the Sugar Bowl to buy himself a tumbler.

Chastain Property Sold
Circuit Court Clerk George Chastain today sold his residence on Third and Lincoln streets to Stephen Giff, a prominent Klamath county rancher, who is preparing to take up his residence in Klamath Falls at some later date. The Chastains will occupy the house at least well into next summer.

Prospects are bright at Baker for the opening of the old Connor Creek mine.

Here-on-Visit
Jack Herbers, former proprietor of the Hotel, and his wife are recent visitors in this city.

Back to the Farm
Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Horner and son are preparing to leave Klamath Falls Saturday for their ranch near Midland, where they will spend the winter.

To Visit Fair
J. V. Houston and wife were among those who departed on this morning's train. Mr. and Mrs. Houston will visit the exposition and will probably enjoy a lengthy vacation below.

Stock Buyer Leaves
C. F. Snelling of Yainax was an out-going passenger on this morning's local. Mr. Snelling has been purchasing considerable stock in this locality and will now venture into other fields on his way to Portland.

Gets New Tying Rope
Rev. R. J. Ferguson, in charge of the Methodist church work at the Agency, was today empowered to tie nuptial knots in Klamath county, as his authority to perform marriages was received and filed by County Clerk DeLap.

Getting Returns
Many of the trappers who have ventured into the wilds in search of fur-bearing creatures have already begun to come in, carrying hides of various descriptions. James Thomas brought in a bob-cat recently, and E. L. Hopkins brought in three coyote skins.

It's Fifty-Fifty
Cashier John Siemens of the First State and Savings bank, is suffering today from a severe cold, contracted when he shaved his tenderly nurtured moustache last night. But John minds not the cold, as the amputation of the hirsute adornment beneath his nose makes it possible for him to journey homeward now without danger of a lecture from Mrs. John.

Home Economic Department Meets
The Home Economic Department of the Women's Club will hold a meeting at the domestic science rooms at the Central school on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Miss Elmer will give a talk on pastry. All members and friends are cordially invited.

Hears of Brother's Death
Dick Turpin returned last night from an unsuccessful attempt to auto across the mountains to Grants Pass to attend the funeral of his brother, George Turpin, a railroad man, who was killed there this week. The depth of snow beyond Keno made the trip impossible. Turpin has received no particulars regarding his brother's demise.

YOUNG PEOPLE TO GET ORGANIZATION

ORCHESTRA AND CHORUS TO BE FORMED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH THIS EVENING---WILL GIVE SPECIAL PROGRAMS

A young people's chorus and orchestra is to be organized at the Presbyterian church tonight by the pastor, Rev. Charles T. Hurk. A large number of invitations have been sent out, and much enthusiasm prevails among the young people. It is expected that this chorus will take charge of the evening musical program at the church, and will also render a special musical program on a Sunday evening at Christmas time. Mr. Hurd extends a cordial invitation to all young people who sing or play to be present tonight at this initial meeting. The orchestra will meet at 7 p. m., and the chorus at 7:30.

S. F. Ickes is registered at the Hall.

W. J. Nielson is up from Sacramento.

H. Netter is a business visitor from San Francisco.

A. E. Dartnell is here on business from Portland.

Frank Anthony is down from the Klamath Agency.

Mrs. Page departed this morning for Bandon, Oregon, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall are recent visitors from the Klamath Agency.

Many serviceable articles, as well as no-wetlies at Henderson's, 1134-36 Main street.

Miss Clanton of Bonanza departed on this morning's passenger with Petaluma, Calif., as her objective point.

Who Put the Clam in Klamath

Dearest Public:

If you have put it by for a rainy day you'd better get it out again, as the rains are here. If its frame is good you'd better have it covered. I have a nice line of covers at very reasonable prices. Good umbrellas lead class to your appearance.

A fifty dollar dress and a two dollar umbrella don't go together and if they do you look like--well, pretty rotten.

Bob-o-links in silver and gold. The latest from New York in ladies' handbags. Diamonds of class in most any size.

New stock of slavery rings---I mean wedding rings.

Why was Klamath spelled with a K?

Because it was too far for the Indians to go to get the clam.

If you can't come send me your photograph and I'll wear it over my heart and if it gives me the heart burn I'll wear it on the other side for a liver pad.

You should have your watches and clocks cleaned and oiled, now as winter's cold will make them stop.

Remember the place between the earth and the heavens on the wrong side of Main street, number 511.

McHATTAN.

What the War Moves Mean

By J. W. T. MASON

(Written for the United Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.---Lord Loreburn's warning in the house of lords that anarchy may result from continuance of the war is bound to have a certain effect on the statesmen of the warring nations, even if it fails to impress public opinion. Loreburn's opinion bears some weight in thinking circles from the fact that he is one of the most brilliant lawyers in Europe, and one of the deepest thinkers. He is an intense liberal, and is noted for his frank blurring out of the truth as he sees it.

What he says openly, many minds of the first rank are privately thinking. Hence, with the trail blazed, it will cause them to unburden, half-timorously, their concealed thoughts.

Loreburn's picture of a desolated Europe---a wilderness of old people and children---will produce exchanges of opinions as to the consequences of the war if it is fought to the end. Possibly these exchanges will extend even to the representatives of the enemies, if German Prince von Beulow's purpose in Switzerland is, as rumored, to discover a possible basis for peace. Significant, indeed, is the evidence of Lord Loreburn's warning that Europe, after months of slaughter, is emerging from the blind hatred which has marked the conflict. How long before the way is opened for an exchange of peace views cannot be foretold. But, if the other countries share Loreburn's views with his same frankness, the arrival of the end will be hastened.

THE HERB-BELL COMPANY

"The Herb-Bell company was well received last night at the Star and kept the audience in a continuous round of laughter with their clever sketch. They will be seen in an entire change tonight consisting of two acts. One a clever skit entitled, "Her First Lesson in Acting," and the other a black face singing and dancing specialty. An unusually good program of pictures will be shown in addition to the two acts. See the Theater Guide.
