JESSE SUMMERS FAILS TO RALLY

SON OF FORMER COUNTY COMMISSIONER PASSES AWAY FROM COMPLICATIONS, WHICH OPERATION FAILED TO RELIEVE

After lingering several days in a critical condition, Jesse Summers, only son of former County Commissioner Samuel T. Summers and wife, passed away at 9 o'clock last night at Blackburn hospital.

The youth was 16 years of age, and a native of Klamath county. He was raised here, and after finishing the Klamath Falls public school last year, entered the high school this fall as a freshman.

Besides his father and mother, Jesse Summers is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Lloyd Alford and Mrs. Wellington Temple, both of whom have been here since the first operation was performed.

MT. LAKI MAY GET A NEW SPELLING

EARNEST TALK ON INDIAN PRO-NUNCIATION OF COMMUNITY'S NAME IS FEATURE OF MEETING OF IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Whether the live community between here and Merrill is to be still known as Mt. Laki or "Mt. Lockay," according to the Indian spelling and pronunciation, is a question that was put before the Mt. Laki Improvement Association last night by Captain O. C. Applegate, Klamath's member of the state geographical board.

Besides Applegate, County Agriculturist H. Roland Gislager talked on the farm extension work, cited experiments and results this year, and told of next year's plans.

American Consul at Munich Dining With British Enemy

Thomas St. John Gaffney.

This remarkable photograph of Thomas St. John Gaffney, American consul at Munich, Germany, dining with Sir Roger Casement, the Irishman on whose head the British are said to have set a price of $20,000, shows one reason why he has been recalled by the secretary of state.

Roger had to flee Ireland and Great Britain a long time ago because of his political activities. So anxious was the British government to get him that a large reward was offered for him. He went to Germany, where he was safe. There, as the photograph taken in Munich by H. Hoffmann shows, he was in social intercourse with an official American representative.

CALLED OVER SEA BY OUR HUNTING

RESIDENT OF HAWAIIAN ISLANDS SPENDS TEN DAYS IN KLAMATH COUNTY, AND LEAVES AS A MOST ARDENT BOOSTER

The fame of Klamath county's great duck and goose shooting is even traveling across the sea. It has been heard in Hawaii sufficiently strong to bring one sportsman here from the land of ukeleles and fuzzy neck pieces.

Several weeks ago President Dezell of the Sportsmen's Association received a letter from D. C. Austen, a resident of Honolulu, asking him about the shooting here.

This morning the Austens departed, highly pleased with the sport of the Klamath section.

BUTTON LODGED IN BOY'S NOSE

OPERATION TO REMOVE GROWTH FROM LOCAL CHILD'S NASAL APPENDAGE REVEALS PECULIAR CASE—TONSILS OUT, TOO

Mrs. Claude Davis and little son have returned from Grants Pass, where they have been visiting relatives for several weeks.

While the child was on the table, the surgeons also made an investigation of a growth in the child's nose, and opening this they removed a shoe button.

LAUNDRESSES PUT OUT OWN LAUNDRY

FOLLOWING ARREST OF CHARACTERS OPERATING "LAUNDRY" ON SIXTH STREET THEIR OWN WASHING IS DELIVERED

The "laundry" on Sixth street which has received much attention of late from police and city officials, is "laundering" no more—at least for some days to come, as the two operators, known as the Picard sisters, are serving a twelve days' sentence in the city jail on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The officials have been suspecting that it was not for the purpose of washing clothing that the establishment was opened, following the recent exodus from Oak street.

Good Hikers.

If a fellow could only sit in his dooryard and have the ducks and the geese fly over like they used to, and we could shoot in town without being arrested, gee! wouldn't it be great.

MEDITERRANEAN SCENE OF NAVAL FIGHT; WAR NEWS

ANOTHER BRITISH SUBMARINE IS DESTROYED

Loss of Allied Torpedo Destroyer Also Reported by Turks—Russian Offensive Developing Near Rigo Said to Be Clearing Germans Away—The French Are Hammering the Bulgar Line—Serbs Set Back.

United Press Service LONDON, Nov. 13.—The British submarine E-20 has been missing a month, and the admiralty believes it lost.

Berlin, Nov. 13.—Constantinople says the E-20 was sunk off the Dardanelles November 5th. The Turks recently adopted anti-submarine precautions, and Turkish artillery has frustrated the attempts of allied monitors to bombard the Sarus coast.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The Austro-Germans are everywhere on the defensive except in the East, where they are losing many men. Russians are attacking near Riga, Dvinsk and Volhynia, and there is a gradual German collapse.

Following an allied victory at Velsa, the allies are trying to pursue the Bulgar line along the Vardar River as the quickest means of aiding the main Serbian army west of Nish.

MORE TEUTONS RILE AMERICA; PLOT IS FOILED

INTERNED GERMAN CAUSING TROUBLE

More of the Kitzel-Friedrich crew escape, and future escapes may result in marine firing—Austrian Consul at New York Believed Involved in Plan to Embarrass the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—The state department has received evidence concerning alleged activities of Alexander Nuber, Austrian consul general at New York city, as leader of an anti-American plotting ring.

According to evidence discovered, Nuber is believed to have been intimately connected with at least a dozen schemes to embarrass the government, these schemes ranging from passport frauds to delaying mailboat exports.

As a result of the escape of S. Thiery, a seaman on the interned German raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, held at Norfolk, there is a chance of future escapes being frustrated with bullets.

Secretary Daniels of the navy department has put up to Lansing the question of whether the marines guarding the interned Germans may fire at those attempting to escape.

Thiery escaped Thursday night. It is believed he lowered himself over the side of the vessel and swam to shore under the docks.
