To New Gold Strike.
W. M. Montelius left this morning for Oatman, Ariz., the scene of the latest gold strike. He expects to remain there until spring, in business with a brother.

Home From South.
Mrs. O. D. Matthews is back from a sojourn of several weeks in Oakland and other bay points. Her description of the exposition was so glowing that O. D. leaves Tuesday to see the wonders of the Jew City.

Nifty Display.
They say that every glow worm has its fire and that every dog has his day. Therefore the "chef" gets his on or about the holiday season. In the confectionary window of the Sugar Bowl is a "nut house," cleverly arranged, and across the street the intermittent flash of a colored light in a window of the Jewel Cafe calls your attention to a novel lighthouse, constructed of white sugar cubes and etched in gold.

Gets Bounty Money.
Henry Haines of Lorella has realized close to $100 off an old horse, who in life would not bring half that amount. He also aided in exterminating the predatory animals of Southern Oregon. The deceased equine was used as bait for poisoning coyotes and as a result Haines bought twenty-two pelts to town Wednesday, receiving $66 bounty from the county and $30.50 for the pelts from Cecil Weeks.

Moving Pictures

"Fanchon the Cricket," the Famous players production showing at the Star tonight and tomorrow night, with the supreme favorite of the screen, Mary Pickford, is an offering that will meet with the approval of everyone. This play by George Sands is one most fitting for Mary, who takes the part of the lonely little girl of the mountains, who rises above the animosity and cruelty of the villagers who persecute her. In her unaffected charm and boundless dramatic power, in sympathy compelling rendition of the suffering of the character she impersonates and in the unconscious simplicity in which she develops her great climax of sacrifice, Miss Pickford proves beyond a shadow of a doubt her right to the distinction of being the world's greatest motion picture star. In this picture Mary will be assisted by her brother and sister, Lottie and Jack. A Chaplin comedy in two reels.

entitled "Mabel at the Wheel," will be shown in addition to the five reel feature, making a program that you can't afford to miss.
