SADNESS

Dearest Public:— A husky said I was awful, but it's not so, as her mind needed renovating. 'Tis not my nature to be awful. The turquoise is the birth stone for this month.

'Tis the blue that lies in woman's eyes, and lies and lies and lies.

Say, Elsie, I got those new wrist watches, and I want you to dash in and see them while they are all here.

French Ivory in sets and single pieces for the most particular.

I am about to be taken with another attack of the NO LUCRE.

We have DIAMONDS of any size.

The real test of true love is for a fat girl to sit on a lean man's lap and keep her mind concentrated from a rail fence.

Ticks on the form are a nuisance, but ticks in a watch are essential.

No, we don't mend holes torn in the reputation.

If you wear a good umbrella and good rubbers you can keep pretty dry, but don't let the police see you.

Our prices and goods are right, and dear heart, come over, we will have a fire all tomorrow. You make me weep.

SAD McHATTAN.
