

Gerard Is Aroused Over Censoring of His Mail

Berlin knows, official documents have been tampered with but once, and that was on board an English liner en route from Liverpool to the United States. In a pouch from Germany came the military attaché was sending a secret report to the navy department at Washington concerning Germany's aeroplanes. This report was sealed in Berlin and reached London in the same shape, but when it arrived in Washington the seals had been broken and the report revealed with an imitation.

Week in and week out, many personal letters from the United States to Americans in Germany after being opened by German censors. Often, though, one will receive letters with stamps in two or three places, showing they were handled by more than one censor.

All mail leaving Germany, however, is subject to the most careful examination. New rules which recently went into effect provide that picture post cards, especially post cards of public buildings, cannot be sent outside of Germany. Spies have been using this means of communicating with their allies in neutral countries. Another new provision is that envelopes lined with thin tissue paper cannot be used to send letters outside of Germany because spies can too easily hide something between the envelope and the tissue lining. Thus one can see why mail censors have developed a prodigious ability to pry into letters and post cards of all kinds, no matter what the origin or destination.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—The bow-wow came into its place in the con; also the daughter, and all the rest of the family during the fair. One hundred and fifteen miles of 'em, 'with plenty of mustard,' were devoured by exposition visitors, according to figures made public today. That means about 2,500,000 frankfurters.

Late Skating Costume

This is for the girls who want to skate in ease and comfort. It is a "Brownie" costume of wool, and an active skater does not look unlike a Teddy Bear in one. Of course, there may be objections on the part of some young women, but nevertheless it will be worn by those who seek comfort first.

KLAMATH FALLS MAN AND PINE GROVE GIRL MARRIED SUNDAY BY REV. HURD—MARRIAGE SURPRISED FRIENDS

Lyle Redfield and Miss Jennie Icenbice were married last night at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Redfield at the corner of Fifth and Washington streets, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Chas. T. Hurd of the Presbyterian church.

The marriage comes as a surprise to the many friends of the couple. They kept the news of the happy event a deep secret, even waiting until yesterday afternoon to secure their marriage license.

The groom is well known here, being connected with Van Riper Bros. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Icenbice, old and respected residents of the Pine Grove section.

WOMAN SPY ARRESTED BY SWISS, "HUMAN DOCUMENT"

United Press Service
MURICH, Jan. 8.—(By mail)—What was termed by Swiss officials "truly a human document," was "handed" by secret service agents in the arrest of a woman, an alleged Austrian spy, whose back was covered with indecipherable writing—military secrets. The Swiss agents are also reported to have arrested another woman with a "broken arm." The case, removed, revealed a perfectly good arm bandaged with military documents.

British Diplomacy Gets Panned by the British and three secretaries, not a one of whom knew Turkish, Turk or Turkey. It is said the embassy had had a chief interpreter, who did know Turkish and the Turk. Mr. Fitzmaurice knew so much that he acquired the sobriquet of "The Man Who Knew." When he was on a vacation the Turkish minister at London requested the foreign office not to let him return. The foreign office consented.

In Bulgaria the situation has been considered even worse. October 1, the day Bulgaria mobilized, Sir Edward Grey arose in Parliament to say that while so far as he knew Bulgaria had no hostile intentions, still, if she did have, England would be forced to act.

During the first fourteen months English and German diplomats had labored at Sofia to win the support of Bulgaria. At the end of that time England's foreign office did not show that it knew that Bulgaria was tied hand and foot to Germany.

The English press has just pointed out that while Czar Ferdinand was prosecuting supposedly sincere negotiations with the entente, he must have been laughing up his sleeve at England's simplicity.

Two months before the Bulgarian mobilization England changed ministers at Sofia. The one recalled was Sir Max Ironside.

Also exasperating to English public opinion just now is the failure of its diplomacy to secure more of Greece than "benevolent neutrality."
