

German Spy Escapes

Ignatius Timothy Treblich Lincoln

Ignatius Timothy Treblich Lincoln was once a member of the British house of commons. Later he became a spy for Germany, and fled to the United States. When he told his story here he was arrested on a forgery charge. He was confined in the Raymond street jail in Brooklyn, but was taken every day by a considerate warden to another office, where he could have facilities for writing a book. The other day he invited his keeper to dinner in a public restaurant. He went into the washroom and out a back door.

Every Klamath Falls resident should read what a neighbor says: His testimony can be relied upon. Here are his own words:

N. Marchand, Worden avenue, Klamath Falls, says: "I was obliged to get up many times at night to pass the kidney secretions. Often my back was so weak I had to quit work. Doan's Kidney Pills restored my kidneys to a normal condition and removed the pains in my back."

Japan Also Develops the "War Millionaire"

United Press Service

TOKIO, Jan. 8.—(By mail).—The European war has brought undreamed of prosperity to Japan. Evidence of this is found not only in the enormous increase in the gold reserve but in the fact that the Japanese newspapers are busy chronicling the rise of many new-made millionaires, who plunged early in the war and emerged with riches.

The leading shippers of Japan have filed orders which will keep them busy for three years. Thanks to the withdrawal of German vessels, Japanese shipping is enjoying the greatest prosperity in its history. Shipping men are predicting that Japan will in a few years have a mercantile marine second only to that of England. They believe, too, that shipbuilding is destined to become a great national industry in Japan.

A Japanese named Noboye Uchida, who at the outbreak of the war was a clerk, saw that a naval war meant a golden harvest for shipping. He left his desk and launched a shipping business, chartering small vessels. Now he owns four steamers and has cleared more than $1,000,000.

In Tokio the Yamashita Shipping company, controlled by a business man of that name, has netted $2,500,000. Japan's gold reserve has increased by $100,000,000. She now has in reserve $250,000,000.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath. Ed Young, Plaintiff, vs. Edmund S. Ryel and Fred Young, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given, That by virtue of an execution and order of sale, duly issued out of the above entitled court and cause on the 27th day of December, 1915, upon a judgment made and entered of record in said court and cause on the 24th day of December, 1915, in favor of the plaintiff above named, and against Edmund S. Ryel, one of the defendants above named, directing that I satisfy the sums mentioned in said judgment, and herein after set forth, out of the personal property of said defendant, Edmund S. Ryel, and if sufficient personal property could not be found belonging to said defendant Ryel out of which to satisfy said judgment, then out of the real property belonging to said defendant, Edmund S. Ryel.

Now, therefore, by virtue of said execution and order of sale, and in compliance with said writ, I have duly levied upon the following described real property belonging to said defendant, Edmund S. Ryel, on the date when said judgment was docketed as required by law, and I will, on Saturday, the 5th day of February, 1916, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the county court house of Klamath county, Oregon, in Klamath Falls, Oregon, sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, all the right, title and interest of the said defendant, Edmund S. The east one-half of the southeast quarter, and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section 29, and the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 32, in township 40 south, range 14 east of the Willamette Meridian, in Klamath county, Oregon.

(there being insufficient personal property belonging to said defendant, and I being unable to find sufficient personal property belonging to said defendant, Edmund S. The proceeds derived from said sale will be applied in the satisfaction of said judgment and execution, and the overplus, if any there be, will be paid into the above entitled court to be disposed of as by law required and directed.
