

JUBILEE FOUR HERE TONIGHT

FAVORITE COLORED ENTERTAINERS WILL OPEN A TWO-NIGHTS' ENGAGEMENT FOR THE LYCEUM BUREAU

The Jubilee Quartet, which will be remembered as one of the pleasing attractions of the season's lecture course last year, is booked to appear at the opera house tonight. Some changes in the personnel promise a strengthening of the attraction, and all music lovers will do well to patronize this number.

The program consists of plantation melodies, popular songs, solos, duets, jubilee quartets, violin and piano numbers, dialect readings and so on. There will be no services at the Pavilion tonight, and tomorrow night the meetings will be held sufficiently early to allow all who desire to attend the entertainment also.

Moving Pictures

She was an actress. Not the "lobster-eating" kind you hear about in fiction of the printed page and spoken gossip; but just as good a girl as ever lived. The young millionaire was in love with her, but she doubted his sincerity. Suddenly both the millionaire and the actress became embroiled in the excitement of a great crime, unraveled by skillful detective work. "The Wrong Door," to be exhibited at the Orpheus again tonight, will reveal in thrilling photoplay the interesting details of the story. Carter de Haven will be the leading player. This picture was shown to a well pleased audience last night, and you should not miss it.

The famous Broadway hit, "Madame X," by Alexander Blason, has been photodramatized by the Pathe company, and has just been released as one of their Gold Rooster features, which are classed among the best of good productions, and they claim "Madame X" is one of their leading productions. Dorothy Donnelly takes the leading role, and her superb acting assures the success of this drama, with which most everyone is familiar. This five reel drama will be shown at the Star tonight only, as tomorrow night the management has secured "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" as an extra comedy attraction.

Do You Want This Little War Orphan?

Borivoi Savitch

It is just possible that if you write a nice letter to Frederick C. Howe, commissioner of immigration at Ellis Island, New York City, he may give you this little Serbian, who is an orphan because his father was killed fighting for his country, and his mother committed suicide through grief. She told passengers on the Ioanina the boy was born in the United States, and she had taken him to Greece to see his father. There she learned he had been killed. Coming back on the liner she jumped off the ship, leaving the boy to the passengers. He is four years old and too young to understand his position. The commissioner of immigration is trying to find a way to keep him in the United States.

G. W. White Again Owner of Main Street Property

WHITE BUILDING, ON MAIN STREET, JUST REPURCHASED BY ITS FORMER OWNER

The sunny southland of California may be all right for some people, but Klamath county still looks best to G. W. White. Consequently, he has just completed a new deal with W. C.

LeHane, whereby LeHane again is the owner of property around Modesto, Calif., he traded to White, and White is once more the owner of the White building.

The White building is a modern two-story pressed brick business structure on Main street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, its lower floor being occupied by Moe & Co., Bellman & Son and the Klamath County

Abstract company. It was erected a few years ago by White, and traded by him to LeHane for California property about a year ago. The deal just closed restores both properties to their original owners.

Takes Horse Whip After Bradnack

by her, and after some altercation, Miss Prehm used the shorter and uglier word.

Witnesses say Bradnack then started back in the restaurant, whereupon Miss Prehm pulled off her coat, pulled a whip out from under the coat, and started after Bradnack, who was inside the restaurant door in time to put his foot against it, and prevent Miss Prehm's entry with the whip. Patrolman McCarter, who was across the street, then took Miss Prehm into custody as she attempted to open the door. She entered a plea of "not guilty," and the case will be tried before Judge Leavitt.

Editor Bradnack informed Chief Baldwin that he would refuse to enter any complaint, and that he did not wish to have anything to do with the charges that had been preferred. He was at his dinner at the Jewel Cafe at the time, and as soon as he saw that the woman was excited and inclined to be hysterical, he ended the interview and returned to his dinner. Miss Prehm's trial has been set for 10 o'clock tomorrow. She has engaged counsel.

"I find that the police of Klamath Falls are usually remarkably prompt in their arrests," the woman told Chief Baldwin today, "but in this case they were just a little too prompt to suit me."

Espee Earnings Show Big Increase

SAN FRANCISCO, March 27.—Julius Kruttschnitt of New York, who is in San Francisco, has given out the latest figures on Southern Southern Pacific earnings, showing a remarkable increase in revenue. He declares the figures indicate the prosperity of the country at large, and the Coast States in particular.

Last month the gross railway operating revenue was in round numbers $11,186,000, an increase over the same 1915 month of $1,709,075, while for the first eight months of the present fiscal year the gross operating revenue was $101,121,324, an increase over the same period of last year of $14,885,449.

The increase in total railway operating income was $7,698,076. With four months' earnings of this fiscal year yet to be added, the company bids fair to largely exceed last year's great showing.
