COYOTES STILL AT HIGH PRICE

COUNTY COURT EXTENDS OFFICIAL BOUNTY ON THE VICTIMS FOR ANOTHER MONTH. MANY ARE KILLED

Coyotes killed in Klamath County are still bringing $5.25 bounty. The county has paid out the special $5.25 bounty for another month, and has paid out $3 bounty for another month as of June 1.

As a result of the bounty, the coyotes were killed at the time of danger, there has been no loss of the bounty, and the local bounty hunters have been paid off.

In the past, the bounty hunters have been paid off with the bounty, and the local bounty hunters have been paid off with the bounty.

SPECIAL CLASS TO BE TAUGHT

EPiscopal Dean Will Conduct Course of Studies of the Social Teachings of the Mayor

Today, tomorrow and Thursday the Episcopal Dean will conduct a course of studies of the social teachings of the mayor, and the seminar will be held.

The course will be given in the Episcopal Church, and will be open to the public.

The course will last for three days, and will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

RALLIES OBJECT against... A． J． Krieg, the Episcopal Archdeacon, will conduct the course.

The course will be open to the public.

ANNOUNCEMENT FOR... A． J． Krieg, the Episcopal Archdeacon, will conduct the course.

The course will be open to the public.

Attacked Aldermen
Allege Perjury in Recall Affidavits

New York, June 10 (AP)—Attacked Aldermen will make their appeal to the public, alleging perjury in the recall affidavit.

The aldermen have been charging that the affidavits of some of their opponents have been forged and that they were not signed by the individuals named in them.

The aldermen say that they have evidence to support their charges.

The aldermen have been charged with perjury in the recall affidavit.

They say that they have evidence to support their charges.

The aldermen say that they have evidence to support their charges.

(Continued on Page 8)