

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

United Press Service
RIVERSIDE, Calif., April 27.—
A party of sportsmen left here today for the southern reaches of the San Jacinto mountains to hunt American camels.
E. C. Beach, a prospector, brought the story that a drove of camels was seen within a few miles of Salton Sea, at the base of the San Jacintos. The camels were introduced for desert travel more than half a century ago, and when the venture was given up the animals were left to shift for themselves.

MT. LAKE ITEMS

John Manning and family have moved onto the Wes Manning ranch. His brother, George Manning, has moved to town from the ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Phillips were Mt. Lake visitors Sunday.

Kenneth Case, Gerald West, Herb Phillips, H. J. Lester and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watters attended "The Battle Cry of Peace" in Klamath Falls Tuesday evening.

Mrs. C. A. Hill is reported as improving. She has been sick for five or six weeks.

J. E. Enman and J. A. McComb were among those who sold hogs to Fred Stukel this week. They delivered them to Midland yesterday.

Mr. Reese was taken suddenly ill the other day. He is reported as better.

The storm yesterday was very severe here. It must have caused considerable damage to the grain.

Theodore Case is using some "hog motors," or self feeding devices in his hog pens. These have proven very satisfactory, and prevent a waste of food.

ANOTHER CHANGE OF MIND

THE Written Record: "Mr. Jefferson was an aristocrat, who deliberately practiced the arts of the politician and exhibited oftentimes the sort of insincerity which subtle natures lead to without loss of essential integrity." Washington found Jefferson a guide who needed watching." Woodrow Wilson in "History of the American People."

The Spoken Word: "One of the things which has immortalized the influence of Thomas Jefferson has been that his was the spirit of humanity exemplified upon the field of America. Thomas Jefferson was a great leader of men because he understood and interpreted the spirits of men." The only way we can honor Thomas Jefferson is by illustrating his spirit and following his example. His example was an example of organization and concerted action for the rights of men, first in America and then by America's example everywhere in the world. The thing that interested Jefferson is the only thing that ought to interest us."—President Wilson at the Jefferson Day banquet, Washington, April 13, 1916.

HUMANE EDUCATION PLAN

THE PRONENESS of the world to resort to war shows the need of education to develop humane ideals in the rising generations. Ella Wheeler Wilcox makes a plea and submits a general plan for introducing humane education in the public schools, and shows what a great work has been done in the public schools of Rochester, N. Y. Where at one time an occasional lecture was given, now all the children in the public schools of that city are shown why they should be kind to animals.

BOOSTING FOR KLAMATH

By HOWARD WINNARD
Klamath County High School Student
A FEW YEARS AGO this town experienced a "boom." Everybody "boosted" for all they were worth. It is a fact that when the town is on the jump every one is ready to boost for it, but the minute the boom begins to slack everybody begins to knock. At least, so it was with Klamath. Suddenly everyone seemed to go to sleep on the job. The outside capital that had had its attention called to Klamath and the surrounding country, lost interest through the indifference of the people.

For about two years there has been a slight improvement in the boosting this town has done. People have actually begun to wake up to the possibilities that lie just outside their doors. An attempt to get another railroad through here has been made, the success of which is yet to be determined. Attempts have also been made to get new industries started here. So far, so good. But if every soul in Klamath Falls would begin tomorrow to write to their friends about Klamath, talk Klamath, dream Klamath, think Klamath, and everlastingly boost for Klamath, think what an improvement there would be here inside of the next six months.

Scattered Shots

NOW THE GERMANS are assaulting Pepper Heights. No wonder the fighting is getting hotter.

FROM ALL ACCOUNTS, it will be some pee-ride tomorrow night. Better turn out and join it, if you are for the Shippington road.

MAY FIRST is known in history at the date of the Manila Bay victory. It will also be known as the date of the Shippington road victory.

JUST A COUPLE of more days left in which to enter the City Beautiful contest. Hustle, Mr. and Mrs. Good Citizen.

Scouts Leading Pershing's Hunt for Villa in Mexico

R. J. BOYD

TED HOUGHTON

R. J. Boyd and Ted Houghton are the two chief scouts of General Pershing on whom he largely depends in his hunt for Villa. Boyd, a rough old character of the desert, knows northern Mexico and the Mexicans better than they know themselves. He has hunted them all his life. He is a natural scout, the kind that knows more of the desert than the Indians. Houghton, too, has had much experience in Mexico.

PAINTINGS SOLD TO PAY FOR WAR

RUSSIAN ART IS TO BE SOLD FOR MONEY TO BUY IMPLEMENTS FOR KILLING OR MAIMING EM-BRYO ARTISTS

United Press Service

NEW YORK, April 27.—A collection of old masters that once belonged to Prince Golinicheff-Koutousoff, personal secretary to the Dowager Empress Marie Feodorovna, Winter Palace, Petrograd, is to be sold at the place here today.

The collection is valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars. Nicholas Riabouchinsky, of Moscow, a wealthy man, bought the collection of Prince Golinicheff-Koutousoff. Mr. Riabouchinsky is in New York in the service of his country in matters connected with the purchase of war supplies.

He has discovered that in this land of Bethlehem, U. S., Crucible and other "war brides," works of art sell at much higher prices than they do on the continent. That is why the former Golinicheff-Koutousoff collection of paintings will be placed on sale.

The Ermitage, Petrograd, is one of the great public collections of the world.

Mr. Riabouchinsky's collection is catalogued as containing old masters

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

GLASS OF HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST DAILY KEEP THE DOCTOR AWAY

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can, instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Adv.
