

The first daily newspaper in the world is said to have been established and edited by a woman in London. It was called the Daily Courant, edited by Elizabeth Mait.

The sacred precincts of the fashionable restaurants of England, where formerly none but French and German waiters were allowed to work, are now being invaded by women.

TURN RIGHT

"TURN RIGHT," say the metal signs placed at the Main street intersections yesterday. They are worth reading occasionally.

Yesterday the voters were at a turning point. They could either vote down the Shippington road measure and the fire apparatus measures, and leave matters as they are, or they could adopt these measures, thereby causing more money to circulate in Klamath Falls, and to reduce the fire insurance rates in the municipality. Election results show that they heeded the terse admonition of the Main street signs, "Turn Right."

The signs were placed to make travel safer and easier on Main street, and to minimize accidents. If their little legend is heeded by all, this will certainly be effected.

And if every person will give a little thought occasionally to the direction given by these signs, they, too, will find travel much easier on Life's highway. Often it is the easier way to turn wrong, but to "turn right" on all matters means the avoidance of serious trouble and a helpful compliance with the laws of Man, God and Conscience.

But this is beginning to run into a sermon, so I'll just "turn right" around, hand this to Nate of the linotype, and pound out some war dope.

CAN IT LAST?

By ROBERT ELLIOTT
Klamath County High School Student

IN THE years preceding the war, we were told that the fire of the combined artillery, machine guns and rifles from an entrenched position would be so murderous that no troops in the world would attempt a frontal attack. The war has proved the very contrary.

Indeed, the present gigantic struggle for the capture of Verdun has consisted so far as the German infantry is concerned of little else but frontal attacks against what are probably the most completely defended positions in the world.

It is probable that since the early history of warfare, troops have never been subjected to such a frightful ordeal as the dense masses of German infantry which have stormed or attempted to storm the outlying defenses of Verdun.

The high command of the German army knows what it is about; but the average layman is beginning to ask himself how long the German army can last if its numbers are to be reduced through the coming spring and summer at the present rate.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

By MARGARET MASON
(Written for the United Press)

"Permit me now to show my mitt," said Swaggar Helen Hogan. Then raised aloft her mittened hands. "Mitts mit uns," is our slogan."

NEW YORK, May 2.—Yes, mitts are now on every hand and what ever will become of those delicate situations that become of all those delicate situations that have to be handled with kid gloves goodness only knows.

If we are going into the old fashioned thoroughly it is only natural that we should look to our hands as carefully as to our hips and you must needs admit that the mitt-hand is as much of the 1830 modes as the hooped and crinolined skirt.

Black silk mitts and white silk mitts are ready to our hands but the really first hand mitt is of all over black lace to add perfection to the frilly old flowered organdies and muslins so reminiscent of old lavender and Goody's Lady's Book.

Now every woman knows that nothing so shows up a hand's imperfections like a mitt. If your nails are not well shaped, your knuckles red or knotty, they will be discovered and uncovered in mitts. All the little man-

Darling, if you but knew how I have strived to please you by buying seasonal articles you'd not hesitate as you have been doing. If you don't think I am starving just come down here and feel of my pocket book.

Did you hear the story of the girl whose skirt was so short no one saw her hat?

cures are already chortling with glee at the rich summer harvest of lady fingers that will now be theirs as long as the mitt is destined to wave on the hands of the brave and fair.

Jewelers are also taking notice, for rings will no longer hide their light under a kidskin but will twinkle unrestrained on nude digits.

A single odd ring, original and unique of design and denoting the personality of the wearer, is most to be desired. The old fashioned cameo rings, coral rings and hair rings are being revived and the whole old fashioned sets of carved coral, cameos and jet are greatly in demand; earrings, brooch, locket, ring and bracelets in their quaint and reminiscent entirety.

Seed pearl sets also are favorites, and old fashioned sets of gold, black enameled and set with pearls are exquisite.

Too many rings, of course, spoil the mitt, for it is an exponent of the clinging vine or ingenious innocence mode of dress. One ring on each paddy is quite all that is permissible to her who is a stickler for good taste and the eternal fitness of things. Hence, all the more need for care in its selection, individuality and design. Art Jewellers are consequently on their mettle with their metal turning out this costume jewelry.

Happy indeed is the maid who is the proud possessor of an exquisite carved red coral set, brooch, earrings, bracelets, ring and back comb all complete.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incombustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which, if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation, should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanse, purify and freshen the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results. (Advertisement)
