CASEMENT TO BE TRIED FOR TREASON

Sir Edward Carson and John Redmond Appeal to Officials for Mercy for the Rank and File of the Irish Rebels. Some Will Be Deported, It is Believed, But Majority Will Get Light Sentences

United Press Service LONDON, May 4.—James Sullivan, the former American minister to San Domingo, has been arrested in connection with the Irish revolt. He has been brought to England.

It is announced that Baron Reading will preside at the trial of Sir Roger Casement, who was arrested attempting to land munitions and German forces on the Irish coast. He is charged with treason.

Unless Casement escapes on the ground of insanity, he will be hanged. If so, he will be executed with a silken rope, a privilege of the nobility. Sir Edward Carson and John Redmond, Irish leaders, have jointly appealed for mercy for the rank and file of the rebels. It is believed that the majority will get light sentences, although some of the ringleaders will be deported.

VOLUNTEERS ARE AGAIN GUARDING AGAINST FIRES

WILL SERVE UNTIL DEPARTMENT IS MADE

Following Yesterday's Fire, Mass Meeting Was Held at City Hall, and Several Had Talked, Old Firemen Were Asked to Serve as of Yore Until Such Time as the Council Makes Some Arrangement

The old volunteer fire department members are once more guarding the city against flames. At a mass meeting last night, they were asked to act in their old capacity until such time as the mayor-elect and the council have an opportunity to make some permanent arrangement regarding a fire department.

Following yesterday's fire, in which a house belonging to Martin McAndrews was practically destroyed, and such furniture and effects belonging to W. M. Benner and others were destroyed, the meeting was held at the city hall to consider the question of providing some arrangement to man the fire apparatus until such time as the mayor and council could work out a permanent arrangement. Some sixty or seventy of the representative business men and citizens were present.

L. R. Robertson was elected chairman and the situation was discussed at length. After going over the subject fully, those present voted for a resolution, proposed by L. F. Willits, to ask the old volunteer fire department to offer their services to the mayor and council until contemplated plans were more fully developed.

Quite a number of the members of the volunteer department were present, and they agreed to comply with the request of the meeting, and L. R. Robertson was chosen to present the offer to the mayor and council for approval.

A meeting of the council will probably be held soon to consider the subject, and it is anticipated that the offer of the firemen will be accepted.

Trial of These Men Stirs All France

No. 1—Dr. Lombard

No. 2—Dr. Labord

Forty-seven persons some of them very well known and heretofore believed to be patriots, are now on trial in Paris on the charge of having sold "medically unfit" service papers.

Among them are Dr. Lombard (No. 1) and Dr. Labord (No. 2). They are accused of having sold these papers at sums varying from 20 to 1,000 francs to persons who wanted to shirk military service on the ground of ill health.

Dr. Lombard and Labord were said to be the chief instigators. The latter was recently given a medal of honor, which he persisted in wearing in the prison dock.

Seven women were among the prisoners. They were defended by Mlle. Germaine, well known in Paris as an attorney.

BIGBEE MAY BE ON TEAM AGAIN

LAST YEAR'S STELLAR PITCHER WIRES FROM TACOMA—KLAMATH TEAM TO BE FASTER THAN EVER BEFORE

Lyle Bigbee the big University of Oregon slabster who starred in the box for last year's unbeatable Klamath Falls baseball team, may be a member of the local aggregation again this year. Bigbee was given a try-out by Portland in the Coast League, and was then turned over to the Tacoma Northwestern League team. He has just been released for the season, and he has wired here to ascertain prospects for a summer's job.

The matter has been taken up by the baseball club management. It is known that Bigbee hurt his arm in a football game at the university last fall, and some say this has affected his pitching. Others say there is no truth to this, and they say that Bigbee will be as good as ever, plus some big league experience, in a short time.

A telegram has been sent to Bigbee, asking him as to his real condition. Bigbee is a heavy sticker as well as a good outfielder, and even if he cannot pitch, he should be a valuable addition to the team.

Another likely lad who has just been released by Tacoma is Maher, who played third base for Yreka last year. Maher is on his way to Klamath Falls to play on the local team. Johnson, also an outfielder on the Yreka team last year, and one of the club's heaviest hitters, is here now to play.

A valuable addition has been made by Manager Watt in "Ginger" Greenwood, noted throughout California as a slugger and an out-gardener. He will be here from Chico in a couple of days.

Herbig, "Pinch Hit" Palmer, Bowden, and Catcher Clark of last year's team are already here, and Cook and Peterson form the nucleus of the pitching staff. So far, Vernon Metchenbacher, who caught a majority of the games last year, has sought to keep out of baseball, but it is generally felt that he will come in if really needed.

That Klamath Falls is noted as a good baseball town, with steady employment in the mills for ball players is evidenced by the floods of letters from players received by Manager Watt of the team. Several of these applicants are college students who seek to earn money this summer to help them through school next term.

The Klamath Falls team will make its first appearance Sunday at Modoc park in a practice game with Oliver's Seguendos.

Flag Desecration Is Now Punishable Offense Here

As the teaching of patriotism and the veneration of the flag are cardinal principles of the Women's Relief Corps, the Oregon statute in regard to the desecration of the flag might be of interest. The law, published at the instance of Sprague Chapter, follows: Section 2091.—United States Flag, Desecration of, Prohibited.—Any person who in any manner, for exhibition or display, shall place or cause to be placed any words, or figures, or numbers, or marks, or inscriptions, or pictures, or design, or device, or symbol, or token, or notice, or drawing, or any advertisement, of any nature or kind whatever, or who shall expose to public view, or shall manufacture, or sell, or expose for sale, or have in possession for sale, or for use, any article, or

NO PREFERENCES IN CRATER GATES

ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR WRITES SENATOR LANE IN RESPONSE TO KLAMATH FALLS PROTEST

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—No preference is intended to be shown by the interior department between the Medford and Klamath Falls gateways to the Crater Lake National Park, declares Assistant Secretary Bo Sweeney in a letter to Senator Lane.

The senator had received a protest from the manager of the Klamath Commercial Club and the county judge of Klamath county concerning the condition of the roads on the Klamath side of the park. Mr. Sweeney says that last fall the roads from Fort Klamath and Kirk were found in fair condition. The road from Medford was much worse, so it was practically reconstructed.

R. E. Marshall, superintendent of the national parks, will soon visit Oregon, it is stated, and will confer with the supervisor concerning road repair and plans for the coming season. Funds appropriated are expended under direction of army engineers.

Mr. Sweeney says that visitors to the park are advised by the department to go in by one route and out on the other side, and nothing is done to discriminate between them.

COMPACT SEEMS SATISFACTORY TO BOTH NATIONS

WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS IS FORECASTED

Mexico is to Revise Mining Laws to Permit Proper Development, and United States is to Assist the Carranza Government in Securing Necessary Finance for Reconstruction of the Nation

United Press Service

EL PASO, May 4.—General Scott and General Funston were both pleased today when informed that the president has officially approved the Scott-Oregon pact. No ratifying conference will be held until official notice of ratification is received from both governments.

American aid in rehabilitating Mexico is expected to follow ratification. Developments indicate that something besides military affairs was discussed at Tuesday's conference.

Authorities believe the issuance of the official statement will show a gradual retirement by the American expedition in Mexico, the Americans meanwhile using the Mexican railways. The troops are not to be hampered, with the Carranzistas genuinely cooperating.

America, it is understood, is also to use her good offices in obtaining financial aid for the Mexican government. Carranza will also revise the present Mexican mining laws, to permit the reopening of mines by Americans, and the re-employment of idle Mexicans.

General Obregon told his generals the pact is entirely satisfactory, and the news was communicated to his troops. The newspapers in Mexico today hail this as a great Mexican victory.

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 4.—Secretary Baker today transmitted to the president a long message from General Scott. Army men are convinced that withdrawal is near.

It is expected that Carranza will approve the pact. It is known that President Wilson is satisfied with the agreement, but he will make no formal announcement until after Carranza acts.

BLUE SALMON ARE RUNNING IN LINK

STRANGE GAMEY FISH PROVES TO BE THE BLUE-SACKED SALMON LIBERATED HERE BY STATE COMMISSION

At last it has been solved, this mystery regarding the strange gamey fish anglers have been catching of late in Link River rapids. These are entirely different from the usual rainbow trout, and they have puzzled many an old angler.

Deputy Game Warden Stout announces that these fish are young blue-sacked salmon. Last year the state fish and game commission hatched out 100,000 eggs of this species in the county, and liberated the fry in Crystal Creek, near "The Cedars." The fish are now eight and ten inches long, and they put up a mighty hard fight before they are landed.

Ex-Senator Lorimer Freed of Bank Wrecking Charges

United Press Service

CHICAGO, May 4.—At midnight, the jury hearing the evidence in the trial of ex-United States Senator William F. Lorimer returned a verdict of acquittal. Today Lorimer announced that he will devote his life to the payment of the debts of his bank.

Lorimer, together with Charles E. Munday, his partner, and other officials of the La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank, was indicted following the failure of the Lorimer-Munday banks and institutions throughout Illinois. Munday was convicted and sentenced to five years in prison. He is out on bail, pending an appeal.

Throughout his trial, which began late in February, Lorimer contended that he was innocent of irregularities in the affairs of the banks of which he was an officer, and that he had left all of the details of the management to Munday.

Furthermore, he contended that sooner or later all who lost through the failures would be paid in full.

His principal defense was that the failure of the banks was unnecessary, and forced by a clique of opposing bankers to accomplish Lorimer's financial and political ruin.

Lorimer has had one of the most dramatic careers in the records of American politics. Born in 1861, in Manchester, England, he came to America by steamer; was bootblack, street car conductor, contractor, congressman, and finally United States senator.

Elected to the senate in 1909 by the Illinois legislature, Lorimer was ousted in 1911, when charges were made that his election had been bought.

Lorimer always denied this, declaring his political ruin had been brought about by Chicago newspapers, allied with other interests against him.
