Moving Pictures

"The Cave Man" is novel because it is real. It is so true to life that you shudder at the realization of it all.

"The Ne'er-Do-Well." Rex Beach's great story of Panama, filmed in nine reels, proved a good attraction at Houston's opera house last night.

ical scenery abounds, together with unusual sights along the Panama canal. There is not a dull moment in this extraordinary production, which is a worthy successor of "The Spotters."

Robert Service an attorney of Baker for Public Service Commissioner

He is conceded to be one of the best authorities on railroad rate regulation in the state.

He states that rates today are the highest in railroad history, while the cost to produce the "ton mile" (the unit of transportation) is the lowest.

The O. R. & N. paid a stock dividend in 1908 of 79 per cent, and in four years a total of over 100 per cent.

This shows the need of regulation by one who knows.

Six republicans are out for this place. His record shows that he has done more to expose discrimination and unlawful practices by the railroads than any other man in Eastern Oregon.

Stilts Drygoods Company "WHERE THE LADIES SHOP"

of the Berkeley schools, directs a chorus of forty voices, and is accompanist for the Sixth, Seventh and Eighth grade choruses. In her spare time she gives piano lessons to four or five pupils.

The dance given by the ladies of Sacred Heart church at Moose hall Thursday was well attended, and was enjoyable, but especial mention is due the Maypole dance, directed by Miss Alice Blackford, and danced by herself, Mrs. Joseph P. Pratt, Mrs. Philip J. Sinnott, Mrs. C. E. Wheeler, Miss Dorothy Weeks, Miss Helen Paxon, Miss Alice McCourt, Miss Gertrude Seely, Miss Lillian Van Riper, Miss Josephine Van Riper, Miss Mae Maguire, Miss Helen Maguire, Miss Esther McAndrews, Miss Elinor Dreher, Miss Violet Dreher, Miss Mabel Martin.

The dance was somewhat intricate, but it was prettily executed by the young ladies, and they made a beautiful picture, as clad in light shaded gowns, they gracefully danced around the Maypole, concluding with the winding of the ribbons. This number was warmly applauded, and was heartily enjoyed by all. Music for dancing was furnished by the Barlow orchestra, and dancing obtained until a late hour. Throughout the evening punch was served, and a luncheon was also enjoyed by the guests.

Considerable interest is taken by local people in the special offer of the Rose Festival committee to give 5,000 extra votes with every dollar's worth of votes purchased for any candidate for queen.

Don't miss the big dance at the Pavilion tonight. You will have a good time.

Player-Pianos Are Desirable

BECAUSE—you educate the children's ear in music while they are taking lessons.

BECAUSE—you can hear the world's best in music in your own home.

BECAUSE—if the children fail to learn you still have music.

BECAUSE—With the average family of five, one only generally is a musician, and the Player makes musicians of us all.

We have a number of very good buys in Player-Pianos and will give you a good allowance for straight silent pianos taken in exchange.

We would be pleased to make you a proposition.
