Officials Visit.
Project Engineer H. W. Hincks of the Indian reclamation service, accompanied by Mrs. Hincks and children, drove in from Chiloquin yesterday with D. M. Holt, district supervisor, who has been inspecting the Modoc Point project. Mr. Holt left today for North Yakima.

Want Street Sprinkled.
Residents of Oak street between Sixth street and the depot, last night presented a petition to the council, asking that this street be sprinkled, as it is the one most used by teams going to and from the depot, and therefore becomes very dusty. The matter was referred to the street committee.

THE PASSING OF HYNEK BALIN

One of the community's best men—the town, the county, is better for his having lived and worked among us. A good neighbor, loyal friend, a kind loving husband and father—Hynek Balin was honest in business, unselfish in labor, liked and respected by all who knew him.

Mr. Balin was 62 years of age; was born in Bohemia, where he spent his early life. He came to New York, later to Kansas, and for the past six years resided on a farm ten miles south of Klamath Falls.

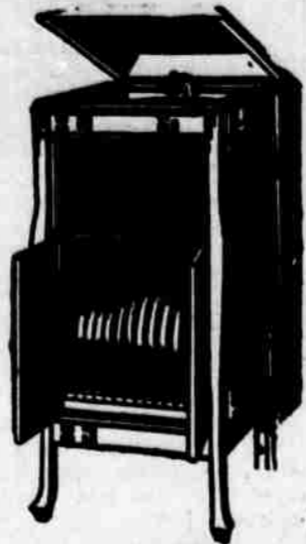

He was married to Mary Uuban in 1894, and leaves the wife and three sons, Charley, Johnnie and Otto; also a step daughter, Emma Walsh, residing in Kansas, besides a host of friends, to mourn their loss.

The family wishes to extend their thanks to the many friends who so kindly helped through his long sickness and the burial, thereby making the bereavement easier to bear.

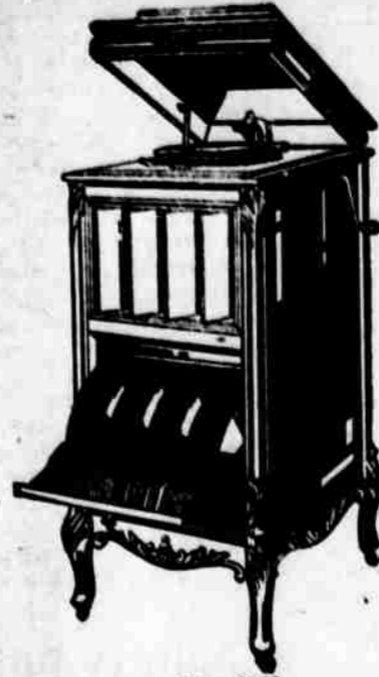

A FRIEND.

Upon request of a number of our lady customers, we have arranged a shoe shining parlor in the store. Mr. Wm. Timms will manage same, and guarantees first class work. White shoes cleaned; price, 15 cents.

ELEVENTH STREET PROJECT OPPOSED

SOME AFFECTED OWNERS OF REALTY SAY CITY SHOULD IMPROVE STREETS LIKE THE SHIPPINGTON ROAD

An echo of the Shippington road improvement plan crept into the Eleventh street project last night, when a remonstrance, signed by a number of affected property owners was read, in which, among other things, it was set up that the city should improve the streets at a general cost, like the Shippington road is to be improved.

Other grounds set up in the protest were that the cost of the improvement was an unnecessary burden upon the property owners, without commensurate benefit; that very little of the affected property is income producing, with practically no demand for this type of realty, and that the adding of this new burden, in addition to other taxes, would likely result in cessation of the property; that no provision is made for a bridge across the canal, or any other method of connecting the strips of pavement on either side of the canal; that the construction of a bridge, which is not provided for, would be an additional costly expense; that the city is not justified in ordering the improvement; that the improvement of Eleventh street from Main to Upham and Upham to Prospect would form a connection with the Shippington road, and therefore, the project should be a general benefit to the city, and should be borne by the city at large.

Project Manager J. G. Camp of the reclamation service was asked by one of the remonstrators if the government had agreed to build the bridge connecting the strips of pavement. He indicated that letters he has received do not show a tendency to do this.

C. C. Brower spoke to some length for the objectors, and E. S. Origby made a talk, his objection being regarding the bridge, and he stated that he would take his name from the remonstrance if he was shown that the bridge will be put in by the city or the government, not at the expense of the property owners affected by the improvement. John Auten made a talk in favor of the improvement, calling it one of great benefit to all of that portion of the city.

The council finally decided to continue the hearing of objections until next Monday. At that time, the city engineer will bring in data showing the area to be assessed, and the area of the property owned by those remonstrating against the pavement.
