

FINDS HOMES FOR BELGIAN BABIES

PRIEST AT WORK ARRANGING FOR THE FUTURE OF MOTHERLESS LITTLE REFUGEES OF WAR-SWEPT NATION

United Press Service
PARIS, May 12—Wanted, 1,500 Belgian war orphans. This is America's latest appeal to battle-scarred Flanders. Rev. John B. de Ville of Chicago is heralding it throughout Albert's tiny kingdom. The Belgian-American alliance commissioned the Illinois clergyman to the task. Reports of his progress have reached the French capital. Father de Ville personally is rounding up the great throng of youngster boys and girls, ranging from 2 and 3 to 13 years, are his guests.

Belgians and Belgian-Americans, living in the states have supplied him with the names and probable whereabouts of orphaned nephews, nieces and grandchildren. All are now waiting to gather the little motherless and fatherless chicks under the peaceful shelter of their own wings.

Not a few "unhyphenated" Americans are also parties to the charitable enterprise. The clergyman's searches are taking him into city and hamlet. Everywhere he is forced to foot his way into avenue and by road. War denies him the luxury of either horse or automobile. Fifteen, sixteen, and even twenty miles, he covers in a single day. Very short and very stout, he puffs along with much effort; but with good old Yankee cheerfulness he makes the best of it.

Railroad and ship tickets for the brood are already provided. Father de Ville in person will escort the 1,500 children to America. Afterward he will supervise their adoption, for the most part in the South and West.

War-time works of mercy are not new to Father de Ville. Some months ago he placed 600 Belgian war orphans in childless American homes. Previously he had settled a colony of Belgian farmers and their families in the states.

Irish Secretary Quits

Augustine Birrell

At the same time Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that four Irish conspirators, including Patrick J. H. Pearse, for five days "President of the Irish Republic," had been shot, he also announced that Augustine Birrell, secretary for Ireland in his cabinet, had resigned. The Irish have been much opposed to the policy of Birrell.

Plath Goes East
Carl A. Plath, proprietor of the Star Drug company, left this morning for Cincinnati, Ohio, to attend a convention of the state agents of the American Druggists Fire Insurance Association, which Mr. Plath represents in Oregon. He will be away about a month. During his absence, Clarence H. Harris of Portland will be connected with the store. Incidentally, Mr. Harris is a singer and actor of no mean ability, and will appear in some of the specialties in "A Night in Bohemia."

Seeks a Foreclosure
Suit has been filed against Ray Telford, an administrator of the estate of the late Harry Weber, for the foreclosure of a mortgage given by Weber as security for a note. Lulu E. Shepherd is the plaintiff, and her attorney is Bert C. Thomas.

Improvements at the Star
J. V. Houston has closed a deal whereby the Star will be made into a real theater. Workmen are to start at once remodeling. The operating booth will be moved back; the roof will be raised and a horseshoe gallery added. The floor is to be sloped and new, up-to-date chairs installed. Manager Houston has purchased a new machine, and was fortunate in securing the Powers machine that was built expressly for and used in demonstrating at the Panama-Pacific World's Fair, the machine that took first prize. The Star theater has gradually worked high class, exclusive features to a permanent basis and the patrons will appreciate the proposed improvements.

Ybur at the Star Theater
Manager Houston of the Star theater has secured at a great expense one of the most talked-of acts in vaudeville. Ybur has been on the big time circuit for several years past and has just finished playing at the Empress theater in Sacramento.
The little queen of mystery has performed feats of skill and strength even greater than those of the famous Houdini.
Tonight Ybur will present her sensational water novelty. She is the only lady in the world performing the milk can mystery. She holds the world's record for women for staying under water and gives an exhibition in her famous milk can for almost two minutes. It is not only mystifying as well as dangerous, but seems almost incredible. The can is filled to the brim with water and the lid is locked on with six padlocks. How Ybur escapes is a mystery. To fall in the daring feat would mean certain death.

Profits of the Standard Oil company of New York for 1915 were more than double those of the preceding year, according to their annual statement just issued. Net earnings of $15,761,633 show an increase of $8,025,744, the surplus increasing from $1,736,000 to $9,761,665, and the total surplus from $16,701,591 to $26,464,254. The total surplus is now more than one-third of the company's entire capitalization.

Shrewd Buyers

Are those who look thoroughly into any commodity before purchasing. In case of sickness it pays to consult a favorably known physician. Where a point of law is at stake, a good lawyer can smooth the way; otherwise, when in the market for a new or used musical instrument, visit a reliable dealer and tell him what you have in mind—it should be his concern to please you, not himself.
Among the late purchasers of pianos are several of Klamath Falls' leading business men who selected small styles of upright pianos for their homes; also several pianos have gone into the progressive homes of Wood River Valley ranchers, as well as a number of Hestey organs to Klamath county's modern country schools. Middle Klamath basin farmers have added several instruments while six brand, splintering new pianos and player pianos were purchased in the Merrill section.

Moving Pictures

Cleo Ridgeley, the beautiful and clever Jesse L. Laskey company leading woman who scored such a success in "Stolen Goods," "The Puppet Crown" and the "Secret Orchard," as

Cleo Ridgeley well as other Laskey productions, will be seen at the Star tonight, in the photo-dramatic version of James Forbes' famous comedy, "The Chorus Lady." Cleo Ridgeley has been an actress of standing for a number of years and has been prominent in theatrical and motion picture companies. The role of Patricia O'Brien, "The Chorus Lady," was especially selected for her and in it she is said to have an opportunity to display her wonderful beauty and training to the best advantage. Prominent in her support is the well known actor, Wallace Reid, and the clever fourteen-year old protégé of Geraldine Ferrar, Marjorie Daw, who scored such a pronounced success in the Laskey production of Charlotte Walker, in "Out of Darkness." "The Chorus Lady" has been given a wonderful setting and is presented in the usual Laskey thorough and artistic manner.
