Moving Pictures

Gypsies are generally considered to have a rather low moral code, but so far as the protection of their women goes, their morals have received vindication at the hands of Oscar C. Apfel, author of "The Broken Law." This feature photoplay is the latest offering of William Fox. It was produced by Mr. Apfel, and William Farnum appears in the leading part.

The author makes no attempt to defend gypsies from their traditional reputation for thievery, but he does champion them as occupying a high moral plane insofar as the relations of the male and female members of their camps are concerned. He defends them against the charges of laxity of morals with which they have been credited. No race, he shows, puts a higher appraisal on woman's purity than the gypsy. In substantiation of his claim he has unearthed two gypsy laws. While these laws are not enforced literally today, they illuminate at least one side of the gypsy's character which has hitherto been little known. The laws read:

"The gypsy who wrongs a Chi (woman) is to be flogged, branded and banished from the clan.

"When our Chies (women) yield their purity without wedlock, they are to be flogged unto death."

It is around a violation of one of the foregoing laws that the gripping action of "The Broken Law" hinges. This production in five reels will be shown at the Star tonight only.

FOR COUNTY CORONER

Vote 86 X Dr. A. A. Soule

A physician is well prepared to obtain evidence and conduct a coroner's court, although he cannot act as both physician and officer. In California the coroner's office is combined with that of public administrator. In this state it is an independent office, being combined with no other trade, profession, or office.

Dr. Robert, state health officer, gives the following coroners of Oregon who are physicians:

- Dr. F. H. Dammach, Portland, Multnomah, $1,000 per year.
Dr. W. E. Hempstead, Gladstone, Clackamas, fees.
Dr. E. E. Dunlap, Gold Beach, Curry, fees.
Dr. Joseph V. Wilhelm, Condon, Gilliam, fees.
Dr. W. Leo Chilton, Canyon City, Grant, fees.
Dr. J. P. Truax, Grants Pass, Josephine, fees.
Dr. E. O. Payne, Ontario, Malheur, fees.
Dr. C. C. Chick, Ione, Morrow, fees.
Dr. M. B. Taylor, Grass Valley, Sherman, fees.
Dr. E. M. Wendt, Tillamook, Tillamook county, fees.
Dr. Ira E. Bartlett, Beaverton, Washington, fees.
Dr. H. S. McKenzie, Fossil, Wheeler, fees.

CANDIDATES NOTICE

Any candidate of any political party is cordially extended the privilege of addressing the people from the platform where I speak in this campaign. 6-17 C. M. ONEILL.

For President of the United States-- Vote 27 X Burton, Theodore E., of Ohio

For president of the United States we need a man we know and a man who knows us.

The man of the hour, to unlock Oregon's resources and prosperity is in our midst.

Burton's support gave Oregon the appropriation that opened up Crater Lake National Park, one of the natural wonders of the world.

He knows our timber resources.

Burton has visited Oregon repeatedly in the interest of the Columbia River and has fathered its development at all times.

He knows our agricultural possibilities.

Senator Burton favors preparedness that will protect American interests wherever they are.

When peace comes to Europe, the next world's throes will be for commercial conquest and there is no statesman today who knows what America can do so well as Senator Theodore E. Burton.

There is no statesman who can lead it so well. He has participated in the republican legislation that produced twenty years of prosperity. He was a companion of William McKinley, the martyr, and of John Sherman, who fathered Trust Legislation.

He is an authority on Finance, Commerce and Foreign Relations. Vote 27 X Burton, Theodore E. of Ohio (Paid Advertisement)

Dearest Public:

Yes, I am still running for County Commissioner on the republican ticket, and I want all the support you can shed to me.

We have too good a county to just lay down and let it go to the bad just because some one is sore or has some personal grudge. What we have to have is harmony in office if we are going to forge ahead, and if we do go ahead it means prosperity for us all.

Good roads are manifestations of progress, and they are for all a mutual benefit, that is, if you are on this earth.

We have the roadbeds now, and with some work and a display of ordinary horse sense we can have the roads we require. I am in favor of economy and paying off the county debt, but not to the extent of having every one go broke doing it. I shall favor expending the money in the district in which it is raised, as that is justice to all concerned.

If I am elected as one of the county court I shall do my best to give Old Klamath the best I have in the way of a business administration. Yes, I am a taxpayer, and I venture to say that I am paying more taxes than some of the real noisy ones. If you feel that I am right, I want your support, and I am sure you will have no cause to regret it.
