stay of proceedings in the case of Jeremiah Lynch, pending investigation.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., May 15.—Anxious about the fate of Jeremiah Lynch, a native of Ireland who is a naturalized American and who is under sentence of death for complicity in the Dublin revolt, President Wilson last night instructed the state department to cable a demand that England stay the execution until America is better informed. Lynch was to have been executed at 4 o'clock this morning.

Get Your Tackle. Sunday will be a good day on the trout streams, and even now the enthusiastic are making preparations to get an early start. No use going unless you have the proper flies in your book, and the Klamath Auto Tire company has a lot of flies made up especially for the streams in this section. If you don't know what to take, ask Charley Marple or George Bradley, either one of them can tell you what to use to lure the gamy denizens of the Klamath waters from their hiding places. All other necessary tackle, too, can be purchased from the Klamath Auto Tire Co., Sixth street, between Main and Klamath.

Orpheus reopens Saturday night with a big bill. See program later. It
