

MOOSE START MOVE FOR PEACE

United Press Service
CHICAGO, June 8.—To keep the more radical bullmoosers from "spilling the beans" by premature action and thereby spoiling chances of a successful reunion with the republicans is the difficult task ahead of Chairman Perkins of the progressive national committee.

Radicals of the progressive party believe the Moosers will nominate Roosevelt before midnight. Conservatives deny this.

It is predicted that Governor Hiram Johnson of California will again be Roosevelt's running mate.

The conservatives, it is reported, have forced an agreement upon Walter Brown of Ohio as the permanent chairman.

Before the convention was called today, Perkins urged Radical Leader Parker to defer nominating Roosevelt until tomorrow, lest he ruin the chance of the republicans nominating the Oyster Bay man. William Allen White of Kansas, on the other hand, urged Parker to act this afternoon.

Governor Johnson favors a delay. The delegates are frenzied with excitement.

A big riot broke this afternoon when Garfield of Ohio moved the appointment of a committee to confer with the republicans. He was hooted, as was Clifford Pinchot's second to the notion.

During the debate, Murdock of Kansas urged the nomination of Roosevelt at once. Bedlam reigned.

"I favor harmony, but I want harmony both ways," said Murdock. "Rise ye knee! to the old crowd at the Coliseum!" Yells of "No!" came from all sides of the house, and the delegates arose, shouting for Roosevelt.

One delegate arose to make a speech for unity, but he was howled down. During the clamor, the gavel repeatedly rapped for order.

In the long run, a resolution for a conference was finally adopted. This apparently defers the Roosevelt nomination, pending negotiations.

Oyster Bay advises say the colonel is expected to leave for Chicago tonight or in the morning.

PAVING PROJECT WILL BE TALKED

An informal meeting of the city council will be held tomorrow evening at the city hall, at which time will be heard the interested property owners in the Eleventh street paving district.

The council is ready to award the contract for paving as soon as the property owners decide which kind of paving they desire used. The meeting has been requested by some of the property owners and it is desired to have as many interested parties present as possible.

PARIS, June 8.—The French war office admits that Germans have occupied Fort Vaux on the east bank of the Meuse.

United Press Service
LONDON, June 8.—The Austrian official statement admits a five-mile retreat northeast of Bukovina by Franz Josef's troops. The intensity of the Russian artillery activity is described as "tremendous."

Russian successes against the Austro-Germans are developing southward from the Pripet river, along a 250-mile front. Russian advances claim big captures of men, munitions and arms.

In this offensive, which is declared to be a carefully coordinated movement, the Russians are said to have a plentiful supply of ammunition and men and with the roads now in good condition their maneuvers are expected to develop swiftly. The number of the Teutonic allies facing the Russians is reported to be about 600,000 men.

LONDON, June 8.—The German admiralty admits the battle cruiser Lutzow and the cruiser Rostock both sank on their way to the naval base as a result of damage sustained in the Skagerrak battle. The loss of the Lutzow adds 28,000 tons to the German tonnage loss. This was one of the newest German vessels, the keel being laid in 1913. Detailed figures are not obtainable on the Rostock.

Teddy Says He Will Address Republican Delegates if Asked

United Press Service
OYSTER BAY, June 8.—Colonel Roosevelt, following the receipt of an invitation from William Jackson to address the republican national convention at Chicago, has answered:

"In answer to your telegram, I can only say that the matter depends upon the republican convention. If the convention desires me to address it, I shall be glad to do so."

Roosevelt further said he hoped the republicans and the progressives will remember the gravity of the American situation today and nominate a candidate to restore America to its rightful place among the nations.

He charged President Wilson with dulling the national conscience by "teaching our people to accept high sounding words as atonements for shabby deals." The main issue, he declared, are united Americanism and national preparedness.

"If we are not thoroughly prepared, sooner or later we must submit to an alien conqueror," said the telegram.

Roosevelt also denounced "professional German-Americans" as "anti-Americans to the core." "They are attempting to terrorize the convention," said he, "seeking the election of a man as viceroy of a foreign government."

In concluding his telegram to Jackson, Roosevelt implored the republicans and progressives to forget their past differences and join forces as of yore, for the nation's safety and honor, to enforce the policies of genuine Americanism and preparedness.

United Press Service
CHICAGO, June 8.—After reading Roosevelt's message regarding a speech here, Temporary Chairman Warren G. Harding of the republican convention said:

"Roosevelt is always interesting, but the chair has no authority to invite him to speak unless the convention so orders."

NELSON AND ANSE CORNELL COMING

UNIVERSITY STARS WILL JOIN OLD TEAM-MATE, SIGBEE, IN TIME FOR SUNDAY'S HARD GAME WITH ORLAND

Klamath Fall's chances for Sunday's game with the Orland team have been materially strengthened by the arrival of word that Anse Cornell and Dick Nelson, stars of the University of Oregon baseball team, will be here Saturday night, in time to play in Sunday's game.

Nelson is well known to the fans on account of his work last year. This year he is playing a still better game, and is the captain of next year's University nine. He will resume his old place at first, and Allen will go to the outfield, where he can be relied upon to get 'em all.

Anse Cornell, in the years he was at Portland Academy, and in his years at the university, has become one of the coast's best known athletes. He was captain of the university team this year, and as an outfielder he has few equals. Cornell will take Maher's place at short.

Orland is noted as a baseball team, and this year, Manager George Minard has a more formidable array than ever before. If Klamath gains a victory over Orland she can claim the Pacific coast semi-professional championship.

If Klamath loses—well, the fans will at least say that they died fighting, for the boys are out every night practicing hard. Baseball teams usually are content to play the nearby towns, so when the Klamath Falls management is willing to take a chance and bring one of the West's best teams a distance of over 300 miles, the team is deserving of the support of all of the fans, and the stand and bleachers should be packed Sunday.

SUFFRAGE PUT IN PLATFORM OUTLINE

United Press Service
CHICAGO, June 8.—Senator Smart's motion to appoint a committee to confer with the progressive peace delegation was adopted.

United Press Service
The republican committee has endorsed woman's suffrage as one of the platform planks by a vote of 26 to 21. The opponents demand a reconsideration.

Late this afternoon Senator Lodge began reading the platform as drafted by the committee. This urged a united people, true to American ideals, and promises protection of American rights everywhere. Neutrality is advocated.

In the platform the Wilson administration's foreign policy is called "humiliating." Horror is expressed at the Mexican situation, for which the administration is held responsible.

The party pledges itself to restore order in Mexico, reaffirms the Monroe Doctrine, and favors a continuation of policies causing closer commercial relationships between North and South America.

The Underwood tariff law is called a "complete failure in every respect." The platform favors a reasonable protective tariff, an adequate national defense, and a large navy. The universal military training plank was defeated in the committee meeting.

After chairman Harding called the convention to order this forenoon, the report of the credential committee was adopted, as was the organization committee's report, making the temporary organization permanent. Harding was roundly cheered as the permanent chairman, and Harding, in accepting, thanked the delegates for the great honor.

Harding refused to make a speech, but he invited Chauncey Dapew to give a talk. Dapew was cheered, and he opened his discourse with a collection of Ford jokes.

Soon, however, he turned his vitriol on the democratic camp, excoriating the Underwood tariff, and advocating a stronger foreign policy. He made a striking comparison between the convention of 1896 and the present session.

An ovation greeted the appearance of "Uncle Joe" Cannon. He defied the progressives, and with windmill gestures he predicted that:

"This convention will nominate a real republican for president, and he will win—even the gates of hell cannot prevent a republican victory."

Senator Borah spoke, urging the party to stand strong in its opposition regarding the national honor. He also attacked Wilson's foreign policies.

The convention recessed at 1:35, and reconvened at 4 o'clock to adopt the platform.

It is reported that republican leaders plan to make the nominations tonight, if possible.

UNCLE JOE HAS AN OPPOSITION

HOWEVER, THE OCTOGENARIAN SAYS HE ISN'T WORRYING AS HIS OPPONENT IS A CHRONIC RUNNER

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Uncle Joe Cannon says he's not worrying because of the new head-hunter on his trail out in his Danville district. Henry B. Downs, a fellow townsman, has announced he will enter the primary against Cannon even if "all the opposing forces of hades are arrayed against him."

"Oh, he's just a chronic runner," said Uncle Joe. "He is a kind of a fellow who runs for nomination and if defeated, runs at the election anyway. I wonder where he got the 'Honorable' attached to his name."

R. Spear, one of the West's best-known turfmen, will appear as a jockey in the races during the big celebration of the Fourth at Dorris. He came down from Portland to prepare for the contests, and has made a couple of visits to Klamath Falls during that time.

HAWAIIANS BRING 'WITCHING MUSIC'

WEIRD, TUNEFUL MELODIES OF THE SUNNY ISLES OF PEACE DELIGHT ALL CHAUTAUQUA GOERS TODAY

The plaintive sweetness of Hawaiian songs, rendered to the accompaniment of the strumming ukuleles and guitars, form a combination hard to equal as a musical entertainment, and as a consequence, all who heard the prelude concert at Chautauqua this afternoon by Kekuku's Hawaiian quintet are telling their friends to be sure and attend tonight's program by the same entertainers.

The quintet is composed of members of the celebrated Toots Paka and Bird of Paradise companies, and members of the Hawaiian Glee Clubs which proved such an immense hit at the Horticultural Palace, the Hawaiian building and the California building at the Panama-Pacific International exposition. All are splendid singers, and their solo work proved as pleasing as the quintet numbers.

A feature of the program all will enjoy will be the steel method in guitar playing, as used in solo work by Joseph Kekuku, its discoverer. In this Hawaiian's hands, the guitar is made to play the most bewitching music by a slurring action he originated quite by accident, and the tones have the same appeal to the ear and soul as have the strains of the violin.

The Hawaiians furnish the closing program of the Chautauqua. This is a bill well worth the patronage of all Klamath Falls people.

WILSON-ROUSES COMMITTEEMEN

ACTION IN NAMING THE TEMPORARY CHAIRMEN OF ST. LOUIS SESSION IS NOT PLEASING

United Press Service
ST. LOUIS, June 8.—The appointment by President Wilson of ex-Governor Martin Glynn of New York as temporary chairman and Senator Ollie James as permanent chairman of the democratic national convention has distressed the democratic national committee.

The members believe Wilson should have consulted the committee before acting in this manner.

The cabinet at Washington yesterday considered a draft of the democratic platform as prepared by Secretaries McAdoo, Daniels and Baker.

Announcement has been made by Father Hugh J. Marshall, pastor of Sacred Heart church, that hereafter services will be held Sunday mornings at 6 o'clock and 9 o'clock instead of 8 and 10:30, as heretofore. The change is made owing to the summer season, with its many Sunday picnic parties, to give the churchgoers an opportunity to attend services before leaving town for the day.

Changes have also been made regarding the time for holding catechetical instructions.

CHANGE MADE IN TIME OF MASSES

Announcement has been made by Father Hugh J. Marshall, pastor of Sacred Heart church, that hereafter services will be held Sunday mornings at 6 o'clock and 9 o'clock instead of 8 and 10:30, as heretofore. The change is made owing to the summer season, with its many Sunday picnic parties, to give the churchgoers an opportunity to attend services before leaving town for the day.

Changes have also been made regarding the time for holding catechetical instructions.

Justice Hughes was informed of this attack upon him, but he ignored it with a smile, refusing to make any comment.

In view of the popularity of his name today, Hughes was asked again to make a statement regarding his position. The answer was: "Hughes' opposition is the name of always."

The judge's necessary taking of leave would probably be an advantage from Hughes' point of view, but he is not so sure.

"Alfalfa Bill" Attacks Hughes; Judge Ignores It

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 8.—Representative "Alfalfa Bill" Murray, democrat, of Oklahoma, has attacked the Hughes boom as a violation of the American rule that the supreme court must be kept from politics.

In his attack upon Hughes, the congressman compared the supreme court justice to "a girl waiting to be kissed," accusing him of flirting with his captives.

Republican Committee Will Organize Saturday

The organization meeting of the members of the county republican central committee, which has been called for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the court house, is attracting considerable interest. Committeemen in twenty-three of the twenty-nine precincts in the county were elected, but there was a tie vote in three of these precincts. The successful candidate will have to be decided upon and vacancies filled by the certified members.

There is much speculation as to who will be selected as chairman, as this official will have the burden of handling the campaign this fall. It is not known whether R. A. Emmitt, the present chairman, will seek re-election or not. There is a feeling that he has disqualified himself by his activity at the primary election in attempting to select a personally picked ticket. The fact that every one of his publicly supported candidates was defeated at the election, has not added to his strength as a political leader.

As the expense of the fall campaign will have to be borne mainly by the republican candidates, there is a feeling that the chairman selected should be a man known to be friendly and acceptable to these candidates. As Mr. Emmitt opposed practically every successful candidate on the republican ticket at the primaries, it is believed he will recognize the impropriety of aspiring to the chairmanship.

Sentiment among republicans in the county seems to favor a more representative organization than has obtained in the past, with new blood at the head. It is argued that men who have been mixed up in factional fights in the past should give way, for the good of the party, to newer men who are not handicapped by political enemies of the past, and would thus be better able to promote a stronger organization.

Among the names heard mentioned as possible candidates for chairman of the committee are: Judge A. L. Leavitt, Dr. Geo. H. Merryman and W. H. A. Renner.

Judge Leavitt has been in politics in Klamath county about as long as "Bob" Emmitt. No one seems to know just when either of them started. Leavitt's experience, however, has been more as a candidate and office holder than as a political "boss," and he has rendered some valuable assistance in the counsels of the party in the past.

Dr. Merryman, former state senator, has taken a part in many of the campaigns in the past, but has not been active politically for the past two years. It is not believed that he would consent to neglect his business to assume the management of a political campaign.

W. H. A. Renner, in comparison to the other men mentioned, is practically a new man. He is well known in the legal profession, here and during his six years residence has acquired a considerable acquaintanceship throughout the county. This is the first year he has taken a very active interest in politics, but his active campaign for Judge Kuykendall proved that he was an effective and energetic worker. Those insisting on new blood at the head of the organization are inclined to favor Renner for the position.
