ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Henry Allen, chief moderator for the progressive convention, declared today his intention of supporting Hughes for president, and he predicts the progressives of the northern Central states will do the same.

Furthermore, he believes Roosevelt will actively participate in the Hughes campaign. He suggests the advisability of Hughes being the progressive candidate.

Other progressives have suggested Burdick as a presidential candidate.

visited Hughes today, as did scores of other prominent republicans, including Henry Taft, brother of the ex-president.

Twenty reporters sent Hughes a request for a statement upon the action taken by the German-American Alliance, which is virtually an endorsement of Hughes for president.

Hughes replied that he saw no reason to add anything to the message of acceptance he sent Chairman Harding of the convention Saturday, and he called attention to his statement regarding "thorough-going Americanism."

NEW YORK, June 12.—Roosevelt's demand for time to consider the progressive nomination, with a refusal to accept as the alternative, is taken by the newspapers of the nation as an indication of his intention to support Hughes.

Hughes reached here this morning. Asked if he came to see Roosevelt, he replied that he could not discuss politics.

"I am here primarily to make my summer arrangements," said Hughes. Ex-Attorney General Wickham

Plan to Prevent Nomination of Any Other Jurist as President is Considered by Chairman of National Committee—Platform Will, in the Main, Laud the Wilsonian Administration

United Press Service
ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 12.—The full democratic national committee met here today to complete plans for the national convention, two days distant. St. Louis' coliseum is now completely ready for the hosts of democracy, having been repainted, re-furnished and renovated.

Chairman McCombs announced that he has prepared a platform plank demanding a constitutional amendment preventing any federal judge from being elected to any other office. This is a direct outgrowth of the nomination of Hughes.

The democratic platform will declare Wilson is well able to handle the Mexican and European situations, at the same time preserving the peace and honor of the nation. Samuel Coleman arrived today, seeking to put labor planks in the platform.

The convention program includes keynote speeches Wednesday, adoption of a platform Thursday, nomination of Wilson Friday, and balloting Saturday.

The committee approved of ex-Governor Glynn of New York as temporary chairman and J. E. Cramer of Montana as temporary secretary.

While at the convention, he introduced a resolution, urging the federal government to open the Klamath Indian Reservation to settlement, after proper provision has been made for the Indians' welfare. Orland Is Out-Classed in Game With Klamath Falls

It was easy pickings for Klamath Falls yesterday, and the game wound up with a score of 8 to 1, the last mentioned digit representing the share of Orland in the nine runs rung up. It was just another example of a fast team being outclassed by the far faster Klamath team.

Bigbee walked nobody, hit nobody, struck out eleven and allowed four runs and the boys all around him played the same class of baseball. De Fries was touched for ten hits, including two doubles and a triple, and he hit four men with pitched balls. His team-mates played a good game—but they were outclassed.

Klamath won the game in the first inning by chasing in four runs. Orland didn't get but two men to first, and one to second up until the eighth inning, when she saved herself from a shutout.

Johnson, the first lead up in the first inning, reached first on Marshall's error, threw to first, went to second when Bowden laid down a safe base, went to third in a double steal with Bowden, and scored on Allen's single.

as did Bowden. After Nelson flew out to Marshall, Bigbee singled. A throw to third to catch Allen missed the third sacker a mile, but an over-zealous sub for the Orlanders fielded this, and threw it third. Bigbee, on second at this time, stole third, and scored when Marshall threw to first to put out Greenwood.

The Klamath Falls battery presented the locals with another run in the fourth, Bigbee starting things by knocking a two bagger over right field. "Ginger" Greenwood then received the real "bean ball," for the ball hitting his head bounced half way to third base. Clarke drove out a nice single, scoring Bigbee, but he was put out when Palmer's drive was dropped by the centerfielder, and the ball was thrown to catch Clarke at second.

In the sixth, after Bigbee fanned, Greenwood doubled, went to third when Clarke was thrown out at first and scored on Palmer's double. The right fielder so fumbled this ball that Palmer himself came home. In the

"PEP" AND FRUIT SHIPPED IN HERE

ROGUE RIVER CANNERS WILL MAKE A STRONG BID FOR LOCAL MARKET, SHIPPING IN CARGO LOTS

Wallis C. Larned, vice president of the Rogue River Valley Fruit Canners Association, who spent several days in Klamath Falls, believes there is a good market here for the products of his company. Therefore, he has arranged to have canned fruits, vegetables, etc., shipped here in carload lots, and kept in a warehouse for quick delivery to merchants.

The Rogue River goods compare favorably with any on the market, and have the further advantage of being a Southern Oregon product. In addition to the canned edibles, Larned has also introduced at local soda fountains that great concoction of lemon-berrie and fruit juices known as "pep."

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey C. Sisemore left yesterday for the Port after a short stay here. Mr. and Mrs. James Patton and Mrs. J. G. Cotchett left this morning for that section.

Leavitt is Now Head of G.O.P. Central Committee

At a meeting of the republican central committee held Saturday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Chairman—A. I. Leavitt.
Secretary—C. T. Oliver (re-elected).
Congressional committee—Captain G. C. Applegate.
State committee—Dr. George E. Myrnes.
Executive committee—A. L. Leavitt, C. C. Chittenden, W. E. A. Bonner and E. E. Whitson.

As no central committee was elected in the 1915 election, Alex. Noelar, the former county clerk, was chosen as a "provisional" chairman. E. A. Krumpholtz, county clerk, stated that it was his intention to resign for his term, but he was elected to his position. The committee is confident of a successful effort to have Leavitt elected in 1916 as the republican candidate for governor.
