dlerest on Spr

You know you want to give the kiddies an outing. You know you want to get out of town into the country. You know you want a beautiful spot to pitch your tent. or to build your log bungalow where you have plenty of woodland and shade. You know you want this on a cold, clear, beautiful stream of water. You know you want this stream to be alive with plenty of fish. You know you do not want this to be far away from your home. Last but not least, YOU KNOW you want to own this summer camp yourself, to fix it to suit yourself, to do as you please,

There is but one place of this ideal kind that I know of and that is IDLEREST on SPRING CREEK

I am today putting on the market summer home sites, every one a perfect one, in this beautiful townsite, double lots containing 50-foot frontages upon the streets, at prices that no one can refuse to pay. Prices ranging from $30.00 to $75.00, and on terms that even the smallest little fellow in the world can meet.

No Interest or Taxes

There will be no taxes or interest upon this until after maturity. In purchasing one of these lots you get all the privileges that any property owner has upon this stream. whether large or small owner.

Many Improvements Contemplated

There are many improvements contemplated in idlerest that will be for the pleasure of the property owners and guests of this place, such as tennis courts, croquet grounds, a dancing floor that will accommodate all that care to participate

Why Idlerest is an Ideal Place for Summer Homes and is Fast Becoming a Popular Resort

Idlerest is but a two hours' drive by car from Klamath Falls, the same to the noted Crater Lake and Huckleberry Mountain. Five or six miles from the Upper Lake Shores, and only three miles from the S. P. R. line running now as far as Kirk, a small station located about twelve miles above Idlerest, in the section of the Klamath Big Marsh on the Klamath Indian Reservation. The survey of the Hill's contemplated railroad line runs directly through this property lying on Spring Creek. If you want your money's worth and a bargain at the same time, do not overlook this proposition. It is just possible that never again a chance like this will be given the people to own their own summer homes upon this beautiful stream.

This is the last time that any of Mr. Spink's property on Spring Creek will be on the market

"Shorty" Miles of Medford, whose vocabulary is like unto that of a saloon parrot, and who shows just about as much discretion in its use as does one of these bar-room pets, distinguishhimself yesterday mainly by reason of his grabbing and vituperation. His language and abuse from the side line was so offensive that when Bigbee ran in to the plate in the seventh to guard it while Clarke retrieved a passed ball, and Miles left the coaching territory to come to the plate for a continued tirade, Bigbee struck the visiting second sacker. Of course, a baseball park is a poor place for such tuctice ous were used but some other players at once interfered, and this incident, obnoxious as it was,

Another cause of dissention in yesterday's game was the work of Umpire Miller. Miller is a Medford man, and he is said to have admitted after ford. His decisions certainly indicated this, for he started in the very first inning to shade his rulings in favor of the boys from over the hills. This resulted in a real get-together demonstration in the fifth inning, and after that, Miller made himself unpopular with all sides by trying to "even up" matters.
