SLAV ONSLAUGHT BUSIES TEUTONS

GERMAN ADVICES SAY RUSSIANS ATTACK TO THE NORTH OF PRIPET MARSHES—TEUTONS GAIN IN THE NORTH

BERLIN, June 20.—It is officially announced that the Russians are attacking in strong force north of the Pripet marshes. The Slavs advanced there after heavy losses.

Other attacks by the Russians along the River Styr, especially near Kolki, were repulsed.

At the northern end of the eastern battle line, the Germans attacked in force south of Smorgon. They forced back the Russians, and captured 144 men and four machine guns.

War Bulletins

(Too Late for Yesterday's Herald)

United Press Service
PARIS, June 19.—It is announced that the French yesterday repulsed a violent German attack north of Hill 211. The Teutons are heavily shelling the south slopes of Dead Man's Hill.

United Press Service
BERLIN, June 19.—The war office admits that the Russians are progressing opposite Kovel. It is declared that the Germans have partly repulsed the Russian attacks.

United Press Service
LONDON, June 19.—An unofficial source places the German loss at Verdun at 415,000 during the 119 days of battle. The estimate is placed on the statements of captured Germans.

Come to the Pavilion tonight and enjoy a dandy dance. Best of music.

SUIT TO RECOVER A DISPUTED LOG-TRUCK

Through W. S. Wiley, the E. H. Edmonds Lumber company has filed suit against F. C. Bolin to recover a logging truck, which he alleges that Bolin is wrongfully withholding. Bolin, it is said, may make a counter claim in the action started by the Otene saw-mill concern.

For the very best life and accident insurance, see Chilcote.

Come to the Pavilion to dance tonight. Good music, good time.

Champion Handshaker at Work

Colonel John I. Martin, sergeant-at-arms of the democratic national committee, is the greatest handshaker the democratic party contains, and for many years he has been an asset, which mere candidates for president and chairman of national committees, who come and go, have recognized. When the colonel shakes your hand he throws his soul into it. See his nose, that indication of the impulses of the soul, in this photograph. It bends downward, and his face spreads out into a smile as wide as Texas and as long as California. In this photograph the colonel was welcoming a new member of the national committee. The colonel just loves every member of the committee.

PREPAREDNESS MARCH IS HELD IN OLD K. C.

United Press Service
KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 20.—Seventy bands marched today in the preparedness parade here. One band was provided for every 500 members. It required several hours for the parade to pass the reviewing stand.

Original plans called for the parade Memorial Day as a part of the reception of Colonel Roosevelt, but it was postponed after the dry of "politics" had been raised.

DEMOCRATS WILL MEET AT COURTHOUSE TONIGHT

The local democrats will meet this evening at the courthouse to perfect a county organization. At this time, plans for participation in the national and state as well as the county campaign will be discussed. All democrats are asked to attend.

Surety bonds while you wait. See Chilcote.

Best of music, and best kind of dancing at Pavilion tonight.

MINNESOTANS MAKE LIVING HUNTING SNAKES

United Press Service
WINONA, Minn., June 20.—Hunting rattle snakes is becoming a popular sport in and near Winona. Several men are following the hunt of the deadly serpent as a profession and are making a living at it. The snakes are numerous. A live snake on the Winona market today is quoted at 90 cents per pound. The bounty for the hisser is 50 cents, and rattle snake oil is used for medicine. The average snake weighs five pounds, making $5 the average wage. Some catchers get several snakes a day.

Applegate is Again on Board

Elmer I. Applegate

At yesterday's school election, Elmer Applegate was re-elected as a director, this time for a term of five years. Applegate received 114 of the 128 votes cast at the election.

Applegate was appointed a member of the board a few years ago when Frank Ira White resigned as director.

Double Tread Tires

Your Junk Tires Made to Run 2,500 to 7,000 Miles More

Our method will save you 75 per cent of your tire cost. We will give you a DOUBLE STRENGTH casing practically puncture, blowouts and weather proof. Send us two of your old junk tires and we will combine them into one thoroughly serviceable casing.

The cost is insignificant from point of mileage, especially in view of the fact that new-tire prices are soaring. It figures a small fraction of a cent a mile, whereby you save the price of a new tire. If you have several we will be able to re-tire the four wheels of your car. If you have only one we will furnish the others.

There are many hundred satisfied customers. One trial will number you amongst them.

Dearest Public:

Pretty day, isn't it? This is to let you know that we still have some of the ice tea tumblers left, and we would like to sell you a set of them, as this is the time you are going to need them, and we have the teaspoons to go with them, and they are cheap.

And, girls, the newest thing in French Ivory, the complexion brush. It gets it on even, and feels most as good as whiskers.

Alice, if you are going to be the June thrall for this guy, you had better get busy on this diamond ring business.

We have a stock of auto glasses. We don't repair souls, as we are not open Sundays.

Mr. Davis put a tick in a Swiss watch that hadn't run for twenty years, and it's giving perfect satisfaction.

If we can't fix it, you'd better throw it away.

We have some goggles for six bits that can't be beat.

If it's a watch you crave, see us before you purchase, as we have some real bargains in watches.

New stock of slavery rings.

The pearl is the birthstone for this month, and is one of the prettiest and daintiest of the precious stones. We have on exhibition the new Japanese cultured pearl in our window. We would be glad to show you them and to explain the process by which they are produced.

Alice, if you were not out last night, and you in love, you don't know your business. We are told that heaven is a beautiful place, but you could have made it so here if you had been properly exposed. We like you, and shall try to merit your patronage. McHattan.
