

WALLOP GRANTS PASS

Migs and Punks. Many plays were close, and some decisions were unfavorable to the locals, but all realized that the game was square, and called the plays as they saw them.

In the first, Tucker Johnson walked, was sacrificed to second by Bowden, and scored on Nelson's smash to right center. Bigbee scored Dick on his hit into short field. Two hits, two runs.

Grants Pass in their half made one run, when after Weckler struck out, Osborne doubled, went to third when Aiken fouled Bogart's hit, and scored on a sacrifice fly to Johnson. One hit, one run.

It was raining hard in the third and Lyle walked the first two men to face him. Bogart drove the ball out of the lot for a homer, scoring three. Baker also got a hit, but the next two men were easy outs. Two hits, three runs.

In the fourth Klamath tied the score. Nelson hit, went to second when Greenwood got hit by Cornell, and both scored on Clarke's two-base crash. Palmer duplicated and scored Clarke. Three hits, two runs.

In the fifth, Klamath took the lead, getting two runs on Gingsel's double after Johnson and Bowden hit and Lyle had been purposely passed. Three hits, two runs.

Again the score was tied, Grants Pass running in two in their half of the fifth on a walk, an error, a hit by Fernoll and a delayed steal. One hit, two runs.

Klamath Falls really won the game in the seventh. Bowden lived on an error at first and scored on Nelson's third hit, a double. Nelson and Lyle tallied a moment later, when Lyle put the ball into the northwest corner of Josephine county for a home run. Two hits, three runs.

Grants Pass scored their last run in the seventh on two errors and a sacrifice fly.

To make the game safe, Klamath made four in the ninth. Nelson looked too dangerous to Cornell, so he walked. Lyle got a bingle. Ginger got one. Clarke sent a long fly to left and Nelson scored after the catch. Lyle was right on his heels, and when the throw to the plate went wild scored also. Palmer hit a hard one to second and Greenwood scored, while Bill tallied on Johnson's second two-base hit. Four hits, four runs.

For a moment in the ninth Grants Pass looked troublesome. Osborne struck out, Bogart doubled and Baker hit, leaving one out and two men on bases. Fernoll was up. He smashed the ball over second, but someone had forgotten to remove Johnson from the field of play, so Tucker pulled a neat running catch and raced across second base, doubling Baker unassisted. Two hits, no runs.

AVIATOR NILES DIES FROM FALL

MONOPLANE BIRDMAN WHO THRILLED THROUGHS AT EXPOSITION, MEETS DEATH AS RESULT OF LOOPING LOOP

United Press Service.

OSHKOSH, Wis., June 26.—"Do-Anything" Charles Niles, monoplane aviator, died here this morning as the result of injuries received yesterday when he fell 200 feet while looping the loop.

Niles was for some time connected with the Carranzista forces in Mexico, both as an observer and as a bomb dropper. He also made a number of exhibition flights at the Panama-Pacific exposition in San Francisco last summer and fall, and he sustained two falls while there.

ADAMS CHOSEN A ROUND-UP JUDGE

WELL KNOWN KLAMATH COUNTY STOCKMAN AND PRESIDENT OF PORTLAND LIVESTOCK YARDS ARE APPOINTED

J. Frank Adams has been appointed one of the judges of the Wild West events at the Rogue River Round-Up to be held at Ashland July 4, 5 and 6.

The Ashland association has received word from Wm. H. Daughtrey, president of the Portland Union Stock Yards company, that he would accept the invitation to act as one of the judges of events during the Round-Up.

This news is very pleasing to the committee, and will be to all contestants. For fairness and ability it will be hard to beat Mr. Adams and Mr. Daughtrey.

WOMAN LASSES A NOTED OUTLAW

MRS. WILL SIMS SUCCEEDS IN CAPTURING WILD STALLION. THIRTY KLAMATH HORSES FOR ASHLAND ROUND-UP.

Quite a roping feat was accomplished by a Klamath county woman last week, when Mrs. Will Sims successfully roped and captured "the wild stallion of Bowles Creek," who has been sought in vain for some time by stockmen of Klamath and Modoc counties. This is considered quite a feat, considering the horse's great reputation for cleverness in avoiding capture.

Mrs. Sims was out with her husband, who has a contract to deliver ten outlaw horses and twenty wild horses for the Ashland Round-Up. The stallion will be sent over as one of the wild horses, and he ought to give considerable trouble to the vacquero drawing him in the wild horse race.

Sims has rounded up Rim-Rock Johnny, Skylight and eight other bad buckers for the Ashland show. They are all in fine condition.

CRESCENT CASE IS UP ON TRIAL

ACTION RESULTING FROM SALE OF ESTRAYED HORSE IS BEING THRESHED OUT BEFORE JURY THIS AFTERNOON

The first law case of the June term of the circuit court began today with the trial of the action of J. C. Houston against Augustin M. Jolly and others. The suit is an action for conversion and damages, growing out of the sale of an estray horse for damages he caused on the property of one of the defendants.

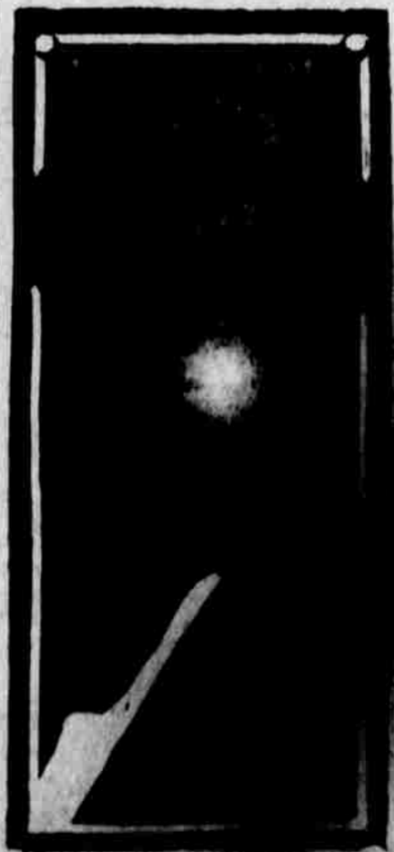

N. G. Wallace of Prineville appears for the prosecution, and E. L. Elliott for the defense. The jury was completed this forenoon and the testimony is being heard this afternoon.
