FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

DRUGGIST SAYS LADIES ARE USING RECIPE OF SAGE TEA AND SULPHUR

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture improved by the addition of other ingredients by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound."

A GROWING ULCER

ONE of the growing ulcers on the body politic that ought to be cut out in the next legislature is the padding of clerkship rolls.

The last three sessions of the legislature spent, or rather mis-spent, $93,197.66 for the alleged services of clerks and stenographers. It is a notorious fact that many of those employed are incompetent, many hold other jobs or attend to their private business while on pay.

The last three legislatures hired as follows: 143 at $26,972.21; 157 at $33,335.95; 186 at $32,889.50, or for the three sessions $93,197.66.

The senate, with half the number of members, and having not as much work as the house, generally hires nearly as many and pays more wages. Will this fraud on the taxpayers never cease? A Portland firm at the last session of the legislature offered to do all the work for about one-fourth what the legislature paid.

The candidate for speaker who will put this business where it belongs and pay for work actually needed to be done deserves a medal.

We can hardly expect that, because very often the speaker is bought and paid for with promises of clerkships to relatives of members.

A HAPPY OUTLOOK

THERE is a force and quality to the letter which Colonel Roosevelt addressed to the progressives which makes it a notable bit of literature. It is an expression of Roosevelt at his best and highest.

The end of the progressive convention at Chicago was both lame and impotent. It was composed of men who knew their own minds, who were there at their own expense, and who had made and were still ready to make great personal sacrifices. There was but one reason for the convention, and that was to nominate Colonel Roosevelt. Outside of that, it had no aim or purpose. The heart and soul of the party, its mainpring, its inspiration and excuse for being, was Roosevelt, and nothing else.

And yet when the matter is gotten into perspective, wasn't it the supreme proper thing to have done when the republican delegates, had forced the nomination of Hughes? The moral qualities, the character, the courage, the modern vision that the Colonel stood for and insisted upon were already realized in the Hughes record. Everything that the Colonel stood for, everything and every aspiration that the progressive party represented, were embodied in Hughes. It was just like getting by indirection the ideal progressive candidate from the parent camp. What other outcome could there be? There would be irreconcilables here and there, but after the first shock was over the logic of Hughes was so manifest that none could escape it.

And so it happens that through the nomination of an ideal candidate by the republicans and his wholehearted acceptance by the leader of the progressive party, there has been brought back into the parent fold 97 per cent of those who four years ago drifted away from it. We have, therefore, the spectacle of a reunited party working side by side for a common purpose. Can the outcome be reasonably doubted with a master of political leadership in the front and a great, enthusiastic, united party back of him?—Telegram.

WARDEN AIDS THE INMATES' PEOPLE

GREAT MEADOW PRISON'S WARDEN CARRIES ON SPLENDID WORK FOR THOSE OUTSIDE THE PRISON'S WALLS

United Press Service ALBANY, N. Y., June 28.—While the Welfare League of Sing Sing is being much discussed today, the Homer prison system at the Great Meadow prison in Comstock is going on, quietly accomplishing its reward in a host of redeemed men.

William J. Homer, warden at Great Meadow, and his wife, known by the prisoners as "Our Lady of Comstock," are meeting with success because they know human nature and its needs.

"No man can be bettered in prison if his mind is ill at ease because he fears for his relatives outside," says Warden Homer today.

"Therefore, the first thing that is done when a man enters Great Meadow is to care for his family, see that it is protected and that the innocent will not suffer outside the prison walls while the guilty suffer within.

"The normal man is made out of the abnormal criminal by ethical, educational, physical and spiritual methods at Great Meadow.

"If a man is physical defective, he cannot reform until his weakness has been obviated."

Therefore Warden Homer deals with each man as an individual. One man may need to be placed where he can live in close touch with nature, so he is given work on the prison farm, while another man may be obsessed with a desire for knowledge, he is placed at work in the prison library, or is given some sort of clerical work that will help him meet his desires.

Common sense, love and charity are combined at Great Meadow, and that is why 100 per cent of its men are making parole and 97 1/2 per cent of its graduates are making good.

Moving Pictures

There will be another Red Feather Photoplay at the Orpheum today and tomorrow. The well known story by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, "Brigadier Gerard," will be shown this time. Lewis Wallace, the famous dramatic actor, will take the leading role as "Brigadier Gerard," supported by the noted beauty of the stage, Maude Tiberidge. This play is a historical drama, shock full of exciting incidents, the kind of a play that everybody likes. The scenes are laid in France during the revolutionary times, when Napoleon was emperor of France. As a dramatic play, this picture is of supreme excellence.

The Star offers the fifth episode of the Mysteries of Myra, along with a program of good comedies. Undoubtedly the Mysteries of Myra become more interesting in each episode, and to-night with a good Frank Daniels comedy, a Lake comedy and a Vitagraph comedy, with Lillian Walker, this program should prove the best yet. The Peerless Orchestra will furnish a suitable program of music, as they have gained such favorable comment on their previous musical programs.

Dearest Public: Pretty day, isn't it? This is to let you know that we still have some of the ice tea tumblers left, and we would like to sell you a set of them, as this is the time you are apt to need them, and we have the teapoons to go with them, and they are cheap.

And, girls, the newest thing in French Ivory, the complexion brush. It gets it on even, and feels most as good as whiskers. Alice, if you are going to be the June thrill for this guy, you had better get busy on this diamond ring business.

We don't repair souls, as we are not open Sundays. Mr. Davis put a tick in a Swiss watch that hadn't run for twenty years, and it's giving perfect satisfaction.

If we can't fix it, you'd better throw it away. We have some goggles for six bits that can't be beat. If it's a watch you crave, see us before you purchase, as we have some real bargains in watches.

New stock of slavery rings. The pearl is the birthstone for this month, and is one of the prettiest and daintiest of the precious stones. We have on exhibition the new Japanese cultured pearl in our window. We would be glad to show you them and to explain the process by which they are produced.

Alice, if you were not out last night, and you in love, you don't know your business. We are told that heaven is a beautiful place, but you could have made it so here if you had been properly exposed. We like you, and shall try to merit your patronage.

HOT WATER THE BEST LIVER AND BOWEL MEDICINE

SAYS GLASS OF HOT WATER BEFORE BREAKFAST WASHES POISONS FROM SYSTEM

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath claiming this is of vastly more importance than its cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance—adv.
