

STRAHORN PARTY WILL REACH HERE IN A FEW WEEKS

MEMBERS OF CREW ARE HERE FOR FOURTH

Headquarters is Now at Cburn Ranch, This Side of Bonanza, and Route to Klamath Falls is Through Yonna Valley and Along Lost River to Olene—Chief Engineer Bogue is Also in Town Today.

In a month or six weeks the survey of the proposed route of the Oregon, California & Eastern Railway from Silver Lake to Klamath Falls will be completed, according to Chief Engineer N. H. Bogue of the Strahorn interests. At present the survey crew is stationed at the Joe Coburn ranch, two miles this side of Yainax.

Bogue, who is engaged in the general work all over the proposed system, J. C. McLeod, who is chief of the party working this way, and the thirteen members of his crew are all in Klamath Falls, coming in to attend the ball games and spend the Fourth.

The route from Yainax is through Yonna Valley, then along Lost River to Olene, and from Olene into Klamath Falls.

BOB HUNSAKER IS SHIPPING HORSES

The work of finding military horses for stables & Platt of Denver is a job that is keeping Bob Hunsaker busy these days. Thursday he sent out seven carloads, and Monday he shipped two cars of steeds.

Hunsaker expects to ship again the last of the week. Klamath county is sending out big shipments of horses to farms in California and in different parts of the Middle West.

Klamath People Observe Fourth Here and Abroad

Klamath county people were much in evidence at the celebrations in Ashland and in Dorris, but there were still enough people on hand to make a successful observance of the natal day at Swan Lake, Port Klamath, Midland and Round Lake, and to make up the biggest crowd yet assembled this year at a baseball game. Despite the fact that there were hundreds of others to different parts of the county, the gate receipts at yesterday's ball game were the biggest of the three game series.

Another striking feature in connection with the Fourth was the fact that the local merchants and business houses did the biggest pre-Fourth business in history, and this with attractions elsewhere to call the crowds away.

At the Fort the ball game, races, patriotic addresses and other sports made the day memorable. The celebration continues there, and the Klamath and other Indians are taking a prominent part.

At Swan Lake there were about 200 people on hand to attend the big picnic dinner, and to join in the dancing in F. W. Snyder's big red barn. Captain O. C. Applegate made the principal address, and there were talks by others, races and all manners of fun, making the occasion memorable for all in attendance.

At Round Lake A grand celebration and basket picnic were held at Round Lake yesterday, the stillness of the early morning being broken by the cannonading at

A Hero of Carrizal

CAPT. LEWIS S. MOREY

Captain Lewis S. Morey of the Tenth cavalry, was the one American officer who escaped alive from the fight at Carrizal. He made a gallant defense in an adobe house until sun down. Four men with him tried to carry him off at night, but believing he was about to die from his wounds, he wrote a report of the fight. His men tried to lead him away, but after walking a short distance he felt he would not last, and he directed them to go. Later he recovered sufficiently to wander ten miles over the Mexican desert till he found a house of a friendly American rancher, where he was cared for till American troops found him. Captain Morey had just returned from the Philippines, where he had been detailed with the Ninth cavalry. He was born in New York, June 19, 1875, being appointed a cadet to West Point from Texas June 15, 1896. He was made a second lieutenant in the Twelfth cavalry February 2, 1901. He was then promoted to a captaincy in the Twelfth March 1, 1911. He also has seen service with the Seventh cavalry. He is a distinguished graduate of the Army Staff College.

VIOLENT BATTLE STILL RAGES ON BANKS OF SOMME

GERMAN TROOPS ARE SHIFTED FROM VERDUN

British Claim to Have Made Some Advances, and French Also Announce Gains Along the River—Germany Admits the Battle is Hot, and Tells of Repulse of Russians After Most Bloody Fight.

United Press Service LONDON, July 5.—General Sir Douglas Haig reports the British have made further progress since Monday in their western offensive. Last night they made another advance between Ancre and the Somme River. Two German attacks near Thiéval were repulsed.

German units that have been fighting at Verdun appeared against the British in the fighting north of the Somme today. They were transferred in the past few hours.

Several German officers marched up to the British, surrendering 100 men. "We are of more use to Germany alive after the war than dead," said one.

The French are within three miles of Perrone, an important railway center.

United Press Service BERLIN, July 5.—A violent battle along both sides of the Somme is reported in today's official statement.

French attacks to the northwest of Thiaumont continue, but so far have been repulsed.

Prince Leopold has defeated the Russians near Baranovitchi, after several days of stubborn, close fighting. Both sides suffered heavy losses.

United Press Service PARIS, July 5.—The official communique announces that the French have resumed the drive along both banks of the Somme. They have captured the German trench line east of Curly, and have taken Sormont farm, on a commanding eminence.

SOCIALISTS NAME A COUNTY TICKET

CONVENTION HELD YESTERDAY BY PARTY WAS WELL ATTENDED, AND COMMITTEE IS NAMED TO HANDLE CAMPAIGN

A socialist ticket will figure in the Klamath county campaign in the fall, as a ticket was named at yesterday's convention of the socialist party of Klamath county. THROUGHS GO TO DORRIS TO ROOT

GAME BETWEEN KLAMATH FALLS AND WILLOWS IS ATTENDED BY MANY KLAMATH PEOPLE—GAME HERE SUNDAY

There was a big exodus of the loyal fans today, as hundreds of them went to Dorris to root for the Klamath team in its game with the Willows Giants today. The Willows team is one of the best on the Coast—and Klamath Falls has no reason to be ashamed of her team. A special train left at 10 o'clock, and carried a big crowd of fans. In addition, scores of auto parties also made the trip. The Willows players will spend a few days in the Klamath country, seeing Crater Lake and enjoying the fishing, and Sunday afternoon they will play Klamath Falls again, this time at Modoc Park.

WILL SELL LOTS OF DELINQUENTS

COUNCIL INSTRUCTS THE POLICE JUDGE TO ADVERTISE FOR SALE PROPERTY OF THOSE OWING PAVING CHARGES

Determined to secure the settlement of the delinquent paving assessments, the council has instructed Police Judge Leavitt to advertise for sale the property of the delinquents along all paved streets who did not take advantage of the Bancroft act. The foreclosure method has been decided upon after many notices were sent to these people, without any response from the property owners. Chiltequin Fishing Falling Off Walton will learn that the fishing in the Williamson and Sprague rivers has commenced to fall off. Those who visited that section yesterday were disappointed in their catch. Old timers at the game in that neighborhood say that this is the usual thing. As the water in the rivers warm up the trout seek the higher points of the streams, where the springs keep the water at a lower temperature all the year round.

SUGGESTS MEDIATION OF DIFFERENCES; MAY MEAN WITHDRAWAL

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., July 4.—The text of Carranza's reply to the American note was published today. This latest communication is completely pacificatory.

In this note Carranza emphasizes the immediate release of the Carrizal prisoners upon American demand as indicating Carranza's friendliness.

It also makes formal announcement of the de facto government's favorable attitude toward mediation of existing differences. The American government is left the privilege of deciding whether mediation or direct negotiations should be used to settle differences.

Carranza again emphasizes his claim that the presence of the American troops in Mexico is causing embarrassment. The withdrawal demand, however, is not repeated.

The state department announces that the administration is willing to continue Mexican negotiations, in view of the friendly tone of the note.

United Press Service COLUMBUS, N. M., July 5.—Military men believe an order for the withdrawal of American troops from Mexico is imminent. It is unofficially stated that Pershing favors a withdrawal if intervention is not contemplated.

The establishment of heavy border patrol will probably follow the withdrawal.

United Press Service EAGLE PASS, July 5.—Scouts report General Murguay moving several thousand men from Piedras Negras to Allende, a railroad town forty miles south. No motive is known for the movement.

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—The house ways and means committee reported favorably today in an administration revenue bill designed to raise $210,000,000 to pay for preparedness moves and the Mexican expedition. The house considers the bill tomorrow.

The department of justice reported a Mexican spy arrested on the border yesterday. He had a communication to a Mexican commander containing details of the disposition of the American forces. Later he was released on account of lack of laws for his prosecution.

TWO MORE ARE MARRIED HERE

LUMBERMEN TAKE BRIDES, AND JUSTICE OF THE PEACE GOWEN PERFORMS THE MATRIMONIAL SPICING JOB

Two more marriages were performed this week by Klamath county's "marryin' judge," Justice of the Peace E. W. Gowen. Monday he performed the ceremony making Fay Goddard and Miss Verda Jardin man and wife. Both are well known here, having resided in Klamath Falls several years. They will make their home at Olene, where the groom is firing the Pelican Bay Lumber company's locomotive.

This afternoon Gowen united in marriage George M. King and Myrtle M. Brady. Both have resided at Algoma, but they leave in the morning for Seattle to remain.

Col. Gantenbein Accepts Offer of Local Company

Klamath Falls men's offer to raise a company for the proposed Oregon volunteer regiment has been accepted by Colonel C. U. Gantenbein. He has written his acceptance, and suggests that Klamath Falls and Lakeview cooperate if a full company cannot be organized here.

The gist of Colonel Gantenbein's letter follows: "In answer to your telegram I beg to say that the field officers of the proposed tentative regiment of United States volunteer infantry would be pleased to have a company recruited at Klamath Falls. I have also received a telegram from C. H. Young, from Lakeview asking whether he could assist in the organization of a company at that town. I would suggest that the two cities cooperate and organize one company.

"The age limit under the United States mustering regulations now in force is not less than 18 nor more than 35 years, but this limit is not applicable to re-enlistment in volunteer forces or the muster into said forces of a man who has had prior enlisted service in the regular or volunteer forces of the United States.

"I would request that you forward me daily a list of men signing as willing to enlist, with their ages and a statement as to whether they are married or unmarried. I have forwarded a copy of this letter to Mr. Young for his information."

Under the new defense act the strength of the infantry company is increased, the new complement being as follows: One captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, one mess sergeant, one supply sergeant, six sergeants, eleven corporals, two cooks, two buglers, one mechanic, nineteen first class privates and fifty-six privates.

The matter of co-operation with Lakeview will be taken up at the next meeting of those forming the local company. At present there are no names on the tentative list, but new additions being: Jacob Axley, Delroy, Earl McMillan, Montgomery, Con Black. Black is a splendid scout, and see to it that the men are prepared in case they go to the front.
