RANDOLPH GUILTY SAYS THE JURORS

CRESCENT MAN IS CONVICTED OF LARCENY—MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IS FILED TODAY BY HIS ATTORNEY

After nine hours of deliberation, the jurors in the Randolph case returned into court at 1 o'clock on the morning of the 4th with a verdict finding the defendant, C. C. Randolph, guilty of larceny of a steer belonging to the Mayfield stock.

This morning W. H. A. Renner, attorney for Randolph, filed a motion for a new trial. He set forth a number of causes, including objections to the court's instructions, an objection to the court basing additional instructions to the jury after it had been out seven hours and returned for further enlightenment, and an allegation that evidence material to the defense was ruled out.

Prosecuting Attorney John Irwin and N. G. Wallace of Prineville conducted the state's case. The trial brought many Northern Klamath people here as witnesses and spectators.

SHERIFF SEEKS TWO CROOK COUNTY AUTOS

Sheriff Knox of Crook county is here from Prineville, looking for Frank and Ralph Jamison, sheep men, who recently purchased two automobiles on contract from the Inland Auto company of Prineville, and who left without paying for the cars. It is believed that one of the cars was at Fort Klamath a week ago, and Knox thinks both cars have been driven into California.

New Republican Committee Chairman

William R. Wilcox of New York, former chairman of the public service commission of that city, has been selected by Charles E. Hughes, the republican candidate for president, to conduct his campaign. Judge Hughes has asked that he be chosen chairman of the republican national committee. Mr. Wilcox is a lawyer, aged 53. He was born in Smyrna, N. Y., and has long known Mr. Hughes. He was postmaster at New York, and later was appointed chairman of the public service service commission by Judge Hughes, then governor.

MILLWRIGHT DIES IN CANAL WATER

MYSTERY SURROUNDS THE CIRCUMSTANCES LEADING UP TO DEATH OF MAN WHOSE BODY WAS FOUND YESTERDAY

Mystery surrounds the death of F. M. Southmayd, whose body was found in the government irrigation canal yesterday afternoon. There were no marks upon the body to indicate foul play, no signs of a struggle on the bank and little to indicate suicide.

The body was discovered by Joe Burkhardt, who was walking along the canal. He saw the top of the head in the water near the bridge on the old Fort Klamath road, the body being near some timbers.

Sheriff Low was notified in the absence of Coroner Whitlock, and Dr. Hamilton was summoned, after which the body was taken from the water and removed to the morgue.

A peculiar fact is that the body was in the water in a standing position, the feet being on the bottom, the arms extended in front, and the top of the head above the surface, the water being five and a half feet deep.

There were no papers to indicate the identity of the man, and no signs to show how he met his death. His spectacle case was found on the bank of the canal.

Later the body was identified as that of Southmayd, who for the past two years has been employed as a millwright by the Pelican Bay Lumber company. He has a wife living at Bend, and she was notified of the death.

Southmayd was about 55 years of age, a man of regular habits, and considered an excellent workman by the lumber concern. He roomed at the Metropolitan rooming house, and apparently he met his death in the canal Monday night.

MARTIN RETIRES FROM BANK WORK

FORMER KLAMATH MAN SEVERES HIS CONNECTION WITH EUGENE INSTITUTION—WILL MAKE A TOUR OF EASTERN STATES

Herald Special Service
EUGENE, July 5.—Alex Martin, cashier of the Eugene Loan and Savings bank since January, 1913, has resigned. His resignation took effect July 1st.

Mr. Martin expects to retire from active business for a period of at least a year, and perhaps permanently. He has business interests in Portland, will retain an interest in the local bank, and also has interests in Southern Oregon, which will occupy his attention to a certain extent. Mr. Martin has been a prominent figure in Eugene's business and social life for about four years, since coming here.

Mr. Martin came to Eugene four years ago last May from Klamath Falls, where he was connected with the Klamath County bank from 1899 until 1912, at the time of its consolidation with the First National bank of that city, at which time he was cashier. On coming to Eugene he affiliated with the old Eugene Loan and Savings bank of this city.

From July 1, 1912, until January, 1913, at the time of the death of F. W. Osborne, then president, Mr. Martin was vice president of the bank. Following his death he became cashier, which position he has held ever since, up to and including the consolidation of the Eugene Loan and Savings bank with the United States National bank of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin will leave Monday for Portland, where Mr. Martin has purchased a home. They expect to remain in Portland at least a month before leaving for an extensive tour of the East. They expect to visit New York and many other cities, and may remain for the entire winter.

Before returning West they will visit their son, Alexander the Third, at Hamilton, Ohio, near Cincinnati, where he has a position. "Jerry" graduated this spring from the Massachusetts school of technology at Boston, and upon his graduation was offered several offers from a number of large Eastern firms. He is also a university graduate.

Before going East Mr. Martin will make a trip to Klamath Falls, where he formerly lived, and where he has interests. Mr. Martin's father, Alex Martin, an old resident of Oregon, and proprietor of the stage line from Roseburg to Sacramento in the early history of Oregon before the construction of the Southern Pacific railway, who died last winter at his home in Oakland, Calif., also had interests in Klamath county, which Mr. Martin will look after.

Since coming to Eugene Mr. Martin has been prominently connected with the Chamber of Commerce, being president of that organization during 1913 and 1914, and other civic and municipal bodies.

During the past week Mr. and Mrs. Martin have been the guests at many social functions in the city given by the host of friends who are reluctant to see them leave Eugene.

ORINDALE NOTES

The grain is improving fast since the fine rains we had last week and the warm weather following.

The Fourth of July picnic given at Round Lake was a great success. About 115 people were in attendance. The grounds were decorated with flags, and ice cream and lemonade was served and a most bountiful dinner was enjoyed.

T. A. Cregan met with a very serious accident coming home from the Round Lake picnic. The brake gave way coming down the big grade, and his horses became unmanageable and ran away, breaking loose from the wagon, and throwing Mr. Cregan and Mr. Hogue out. Mr. Cregan received serious bruises on his shoulder, face and hands. Mr. Hogue escaped uninjured. J. A. Stansbie found Mr. Cregan's team up in the mountains this morning.

George Shell and C. G. Hunt have commenced haying at Long Lake.

Wm. Hoag is working for Mr. Quilitch down on the island.

Mrs. T. O. Hogue is visiting at Eagle Ridge.

MERRILL DOINGS

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid of Merrill held its monthly meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Taylor, who was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. L. Bowman. There was a good attendance of members, and the society was honored by several guests from a distance, viz.: Mrs. Lagaser of Eastern Kansas, Mrs. Wheeler and Miss Kenyon of Salinas, Calif., Mrs. Jinnette of Berkeley, and Mrs. S. E. Martin of Klamath Falls. The aid is busy with its plans and work for the fall bazaar. After the usual business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, followed by delicious refreshments.

The dry ranchers around Merrill are rejoicing over the recent rains. Mr. and Mrs. R. Wheeler of Salinas, Calif., who have been visiting Mr. Wheeler's sister, Mrs. G. H. Carleton the past week, left Friday for a visit with other relatives in Central Oregon.

Moving Pictures

Baron Chevrial (H. Cooper Cliffe) a wealthy Parisian of rakish tendencies, though prematurely aged by dissipation, still makes the pursuit of women his chief occupation. He has many conquests to his credit, but his interest centers upon Rosa of the opera, whom he has established in luxury and upon whom he spends his wealth lavishly. The baron chafes to meet Therese Beauchamp, the betrothed of Henri De Targy, and is much taken with her innocence and loveliness. Therese's father, on the verge of ruin, compels her to marry the wealthy nobleman, whereupon Henri, her fiance, marries Marcelle, a frivolous creature with aspirations to a theatrical career. The baron sees Marcelle, his sickle heart is again captivated, and in order to have this new object of his affections always near him, he engages Henri as his secretary. Marcelle repulses her elderly admirer, however, for she has been smitten with the charms of Juliet, an operatic tenor. Soon after she elopes to America with the singer, where she later dies. Disappointed, the baron decides to give a party to Rosa. He arranges a fabulous banquet in his chateau, and Rosa and her attendant ooryphoes and their hangers-on arrive. In the midst of festivities the host arises to propose a toast to Rosa. Then outraged nature exacts her vengeance. Weakened by his excesses, the baron's heart stops, and fresh from the orgy of depravity and wickedness his evil soul rises to meet its judgment. This five reel Fox feature at the Star tonight.

The Refreshing Charm of good tea is in its delicate flavor

Unfortunately, the world is not full of good tea. You must choose with care. Those many women who use Schilling's Best know that the cost of good tea is very, very little. But this is not the only reason for their preference. Another reason—a very real reason—is that each of the four taste-types (Japan, English Breakfast, Ceylon, Oolong) brews tea of indescribable charm.

Send for the Taste Packet which makes it easy for you to find the type of tea that you like best. Contains four parchment envelopes of Schilling's Tea—Japan, English Breakfast, Ceylon and Oolong. Enough for five or six cups of each kind. Mailed promptly on receipt of 10 cents (stamp or coin). Address: A. Schilling & Company 333 Second St., San Francisco.
