

Allies Forge Ahead on East and West Fronts

RUSSIAN ADVANCE IS OVERWHELMING THE TUETONIC FORCES

BY WILLIAM PHILLIP SIMS

PETROGRAD, July 6.—Half a million Austrians have been killed, captured or badly wounded since General Brusiloff started his terrible sweep through Volynia, Galicia and Bukowina.

General Letchitzky's advance into southeastern Galicia has been so rapid that his army has menaced Stanislaus, Lemberg and the whole of eastern Galicia. The right wing of the Austro-German line is also under heavy pressure.

The Austrians are staggering back before these heavy blows through the muddy Pruth and Dniester valleys. They are abandoning great quantities of supplies, as the roads are all bogs.

Petrograd is confident that the central powers are effectually trapped between the concerted allied offensives, and are surrounded by deadly danger, being unable to shift their troops in time to meet the constant hammering along all fronts.

It is believed that the German forces remaining in the interior are not sufficient to check the combined offensives.

Apparently the Russians have overcome their munitions shortages, and thousands of men and women are feverishly working in the factories, turning out guns and ammunition.

It is announced that the Russians have captured Mikuliczyn, the railway center thirty-eight miles south of Stanislaus. In this way they have cut one of the main Austrian lines of communications, and have also seized the main railway connecting the Austrian forces with Lemberg.

BERLIN, July 6.—It is admitted that the French have captured Bellefontaine, south of the Somme. The Germans have also evacuated Hem.

The British have also progressed slightly, and they now have a firm foothold in the salient south of Thiepval. British artillery fire is increasing.

Southwest of Fort Vaux the French were repulsed last night.

LONDON, July 6.—General Maig reports a slight British advance near Thiepval, south of the Labasse canal, the British raided German trenches, using gas.

The Welsh Fusiliers in this engagement captured forty prisoners, a trench mortar and a machine gun. The Highland light infantry penetrated German trenches near Mullich, capturing and killing many Tautons.

PARIS, July 6.—It is announced that German forces recaptured two small woods north of Hem. The French, however, carried the wood to the northeast of the town.

German artillerymen fired heavy bombardments at the Verdun cathedral. In the Alsace region, French troops penetrated the trenches near Burchamp. The trench was crowded with dead Germans.

Fighting south of the Somme has decreased in force.

French artillery is shelling the Peronne defenses. French cavalry yesterday entered through a gap in the German second line trenches, and approached the railroad connecting Peronne and Chaulnes.

LONDON, July 6.—The Chronicle infers that David Lloyd-George is to be appointed as successor to the late Earl Kitchener. Lloyd George is at present minister of munitions, and his appointment to the new post is said to be desired by the officers of the imperial army staff.

Prohi Gumshoe Work is Expensive in Klamath

Judging from the claims filed with the county court, the work of keeping the Demon Rum out of Klamath county is just about as expensive as the efforts of the Wilson administration to settle matters in Mexico. Witness the claims aggregating $1,010.95 filed in the county court. These claims are all "for procuring evidence in the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors, pursuant to agreement with John Irwin, District Attorney."

The claims are as follows: Jesse Millett, four weeks and four days, $68.57; Charles A. Otis, three months and six days, $373; Charles D. Wynn, four months and expenses, $379; James B. Moore, seventy-nine days, $167.10; Dude Millett, three weeks and ten days, $42.28; Evelyn C. Bardin, five weeks, $75. Just what the county court will do to these claims is a matter of interest to all.

DORRIS IS NOT A GENIAL HOST

KLAMATH FALLS PEOPLE NOT ESPECIALLY PLEASED WITH TREATMENT THEY RECEIVED AT THE BALL GAME

Klamath people who attended the celebration at Dorris yesterday are not very keen boosters for the hospitality of that town. In fact, they say the word is not in the town's vocabulary.

The several hundred people who went to Dorris yesterday went with the express purpose of attending the ball game. The game was played in the arena of the race track, so far from the grandstand that it was impossible to hear the umpire's decisions, or to tell much about the game.

The Klamath Falls fans, being loyal rooters, accordingly started across the track to get near the base lines, where they could see, hear and make themselves heard. This was not to the liking of the Dorris people, who had bet heavily on Willows, and when O. E. Willey and others started through the fence, four horsemen charged into the crowd, driving them back. One of the mounted men struck Willey a blow on the head with a rope.

As there were many "special" men wearing stars and brandishing pieces of baseball bats or pieces of pipe, the Klamath Falls fans knew they would perhaps precipitate a shooting affray if they attempted to cross over to the game, so they had to content themselves with booing and jeering the mounted police squadron.

It was in order to assist Dorris and Ashland in their celebrations that Klamath Falls cancelled all Fourth of July plans this year.

Application has been received by the government from mountaineers in the Southern Appalachians, to buy all of the black birch bark in one of the national forests of that region. The bark is used to make sweet-birch oil, a substitute for wintergreen oil.

STATE OFFICIAL INSPECTS LOCAL DAIRIES, CAFES

KLAMATH MARKETS AND RESTAURANTS RATED

Three Week Sojourn Here Results in a Scoring of Nearly All of the Meat and Milk Supply Firms and the Restaurants and Candy Factories—Poor Buildings Are Cause of Some of the Low Ratings.

A comprehensive inspection of Klamath Falls dairies, meat markets and restaurants has just been completed by A. E. Tulley, deputy state dairy and food commissioner. Mr. Tulley left this morning, after spending three weeks here. He was the first autist to camp in the city's free camp ground.

According to Tulley, construction of buildings, etc., counts forty points, and methods, cleanliness, etc., count sixty points, the scores all being figured on a 100-point basis. He states that many of the low scores are due not to neglect, but to the people not being fully familiar with the requirements of the state laws.

The scorings follow:
Markets. Score
People's Market, Ezell Bros. 63.3
Klamath Falls Packing Co., S. Bresler 57.3

Independent Market, H. C. Chamberlain 35.4
Mission Market, Hamilton and Stilts 35.0
City Market, Hamilton and Stilts 34.6
John Cabler slaughter house condemned.
*These markets scored lower because they have no slaughter house, which counts 50 points out of a possible 100.

Bakeries. Score
Nurmi Bakery, J. Herri, manager 56.5
Candy Factories. Score
Pelta Candy Factory, H. E. Pelta 65.6
Shasta Confectionary, D. H. Lennox 61.0
Restaurants and Hotels. Score
White Pelican Hotel, E. B. Hall, manager 92.5

Van's Place, R. S. VanCamp and White Lunch, S. W. Kratzer, not scored.

City Dairies. Score
White Dairy, Frank Ira White 81.7
Straws Dairy, J. W. Perkins, mgr. 65.1
Klamath Falls Dairy, Auten and Loosley 59.2
Sutton Dairy, A. M. Sutton 41.3
The following dairies were not scored: Dunbar & Greog, B. G. Terry, W. H. Hawkins, Fred Smith and J. B. Moore.
Of the foregoing places not scored the two restaurants were small lunch counters not easily rated, and the dairies were those having only a few cows, and selling largely to neighbors.

Also's Car Again.
Once more, Alec Davis' Silver is up for repairs. According to Alec, this time the steering apparatus went on the blink, and the car, after weaving along like a logger returning from Dorris, smashed into a pole, and the prestolite outfit set the gasoline adre.

The manufacture of tanks, silos, wood pipe and conduits ranks third among the wood using industries of Oregon. High grade Douglas fir is the chief wood serving the needs of this industry.

Bodies of Carrizal Victims Reach America for Interment

CAPT. CHARLES T. BOYD AND FAMILY

This photograph shows Captain Charles T. Boyd of the Tenth cavalry, who led the American troops in their defense at Carrizal, Mexico, and his family, taken at Fort Leavenworth, Kans. Captain Boyd began the fight when he found General Felix Gomez, under pretense of a peace parley, was surrounding the Americans with Mexican troops. He died leading his troops. Mrs. Boyd was at Rye Beach, N. H., at her mother's home, when she heard her husband was killed.

Captain Boyd was born in Iowa, October 29, 1870. On graduation from the United States military academy at West Point he became a second lieutenant in the Seventh cavalry in 1896. He was made a first lieutenant in the Seventh cavalry in 1901. In 1903 he was promoted to a captain in the Tenth cavalry. He was a "distinguished graduate" of the Army School of the Line in 1912.

SHASTINA WANTS TO BECOME CITY

WEED IS DRY, BUT DISTRICT SEPARATE BY A STREET IS DECIDELY WET. INCORPORATION IS REQUESTED

YREKA (Slakiyou Co.), July 6.—The hearing on the petition for an election on the question of the incorporation of Shastina will be taken up at the meeting of the supervisors in two weeks. The petition was presented by a delegation of Shastina citizens and claims the population of the proposed municipality is 563.

Shastina is separated from Weed, the town of the great lumber company of the same name, by a street. Weed is owned by the lumber company, which prohibits the sale of liquor. Saloons were built outside the limits of the property and the town called Shastina. With the building of several business houses and dwellings, Shastina has become as large as Weed.

REMAINS OF NINE OFFICERS AND MEN ARE BROUGHT TO EL PASO FROM CARRAZAL

Cavalry Detachment Meets the Special Train and Escorts the Caskets. Fourteen Men Are Still Unaccounted For—Starving Women in San Luis Potosi Riot and Pray That Americans Take the City.

United Press Service

EL PASO, Tex., July 6.—A special train today brought the bodies of Captain Boyd, Lieutenant Adair and seven negro troopers of the Tenth cavalry, who were killed in the massacre at Carrizal. There are still fourteen men of the Tenth cavalry unaccounted for.

Five American officers escorted the remains across the border. The caskets were placed on a flat car, and a switch engine pulled the car over the international bridge from Juarez.

Arriving at the American end of the bridge, the caskets were draped with American flags, placed on motor trucks and escorted to the undertaking parlors by a detachment of the Eighth cavalry.

The bodies will be sent to relatives.

United Press Service

HEADQUARTERS, AMERICAN EXPEDITION, July 6.—Reports have reached General Pershing that starving women in San Luis Potosi are rioting, demanding food. Mexican troops beat these women, it is understood.

"May God send the Gringos," was the cry of the rioters.

Carranza troops are said to be overrunning the country, confiscating all food.

WORK ON STREET PAVING STARTS

Work on the paving of Eleventh street from Main street to Upham, and Upham from Eleventh to Prospect street, began today. The work is being done by J. H. Garrett, who took over the Warren Construction company's contract.

The street is to be paved with oiled macadam. Garrett has a small crew at work today, but with his supplies on the way he expects to employ a full crew by Monday or Tuesday.

Thirty-Day Claus Kept in Indian Pension Bill

The many Indian war veterans of Klamath county had ample cause for celebrating on the Fourth, for word has been received that the bill providing for the pensioning of the veterans of the later Indian wars has passed with the amendment providing relief for those who served at least thirty days.

This will benefit the Modoc War veterans, many of whom were in service less than ninety days, the limit at first prescribed, but who served at the time they were needed, and by their prompt response to the call for action subdued several uprisings before they could become serious.

Captain O. C. Applegate of this city, who commanded a company of soldiers in the Modoc War, and who has been an ardent worker for the passage of the bill, is being flooded with letters from former members of his company, asking for military records, etc., so they can establish their status in pension.
